DISCLAIMER: I do not reveal these people's identities because they believe they were victimized, harmed, abused, ETC. I reveal them not only as I believe they should be criticized for their heavy (and yes, relevant) wrongdoings - but legally, I am allowed to use their online personas in this document due to this potentially becoming a case of defamation / libel.

Criticism is appreciated if genuinely constructive, however, if you have only hateful forms of criticism, please do not express them publicly. This improves nothing you want it to. It only makes things look worse, and it does mess up the process legally. (And yes, the authorities are aware of EVERYTHING.)

And please, for the love of God read the document. It does get lengthy, but I wouldn't be writing or explaining this much if I wasn't innocent. You would think there is no way to "defend" or "explain" any of these claims, but the point of this isn't to whine and complain, it's to do just that. Defend, explain, and ultimately: debunk.

And for those confused on the meaning of debunk, here is the textbook definition:

By definition, this is a debunk. It doesn't mean every last thing is completely false. It does mean some are misconstrued, down right lies, or twisted to personal narrative. Especially the illegal claims.

Get both sides of the story. If you can listen to Yummi, and Juni - You can listen to me. This is beyond "controversy" and “drama”. This is real life now.

If you would like to contact me (Daisy), email me at salukisavior@proton.me, or wait patiently for my return. I will be taking a break to both take action legally, and perform some sort of damage control on the situation, and my private life. I will not be touching social media for a hot minute. It has gotten to the point where my family has been targeted.

With all of this being said; thank you, and let’s continue.

CSEM ACCUSATIONS

This tab will discuss all of the accusations of both Daisy, and Safari possessing illegal content.

The August 2024 / D*isy’s D*struction situation

The August 2024 / D*isy's D*struction situation

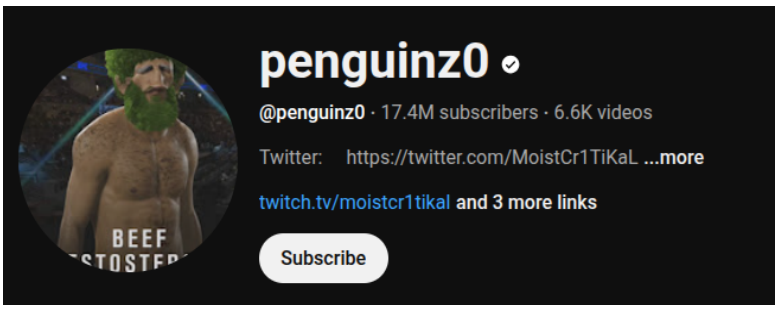
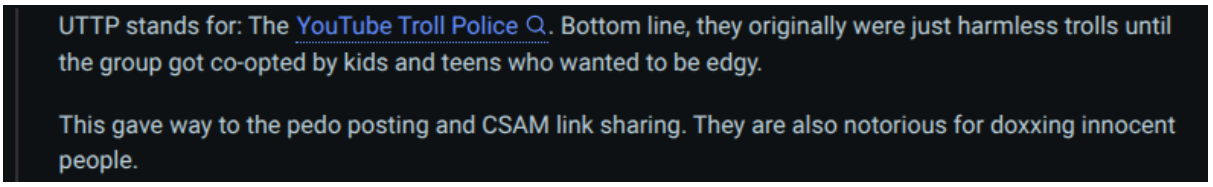
This situation occurred August 2nd, 2024. I was 15. On this day, I was watching a popular Youtuber by the name of "MOISTCRITIKAL".



I do not remember the specific video, however I am certain that this information isn't crucial whatsoever due to the comments I'm about to mention popping up in all of his comment sections. Not this specific video.

What am I speaking of?

UTTP BOTS. If you aren't aware of what these are, then here is a brief explanation.



UTTP stands for: The YouTube Troll Police. Bottom line, they originally were just harmless trolls until the group got co-opted by kids and teens who wanted to be edgy.
This gave way to the pedo posting and CSAM link sharing. They are also notorious for doxxing innocent people.

Here are some resources regarding this group. I've also included a video by MOISTCRITIKAL himself to show I am not making what I witnessed up. I am not the only victim of this.

Youtube's Insane Bot Problem (UTTP)

The UTTP's Darkest Chapter Yet

Finally Talking About This Problem

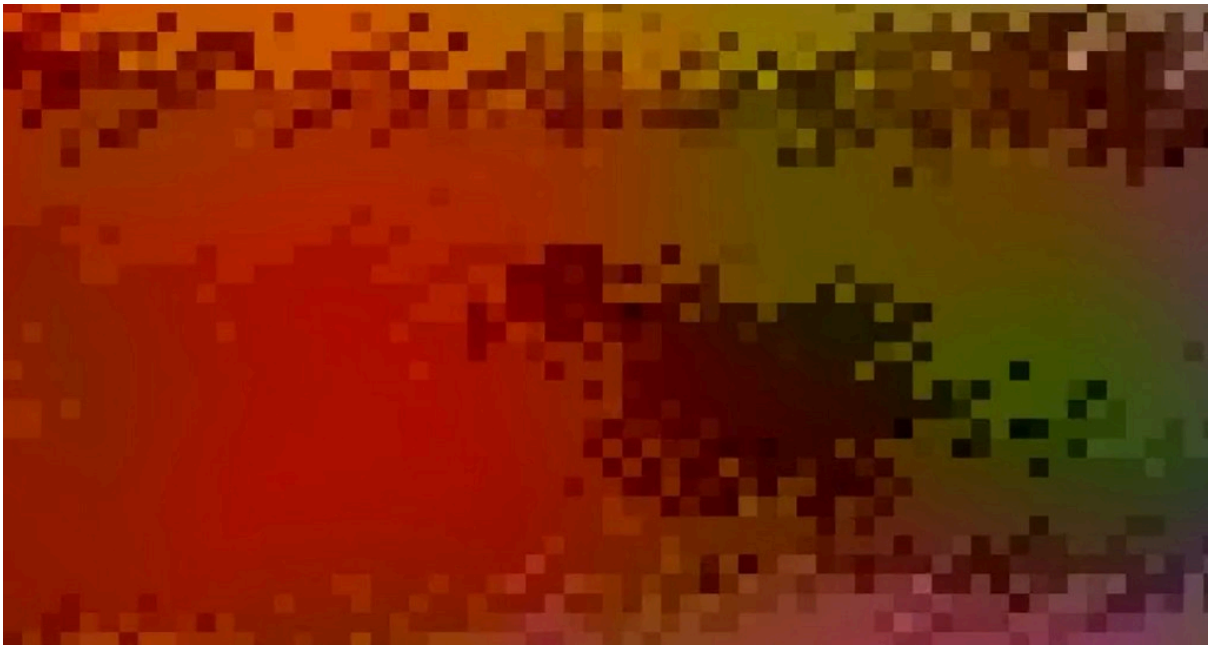
Keep in mind, when I discovered these accounts existed, I was not aware of the fact they distributed illegal content for shock value. I had heard of mentions of them previously, but my only knowledge was that they were a troll group. I also did not know this account was specifically a UTTP bot at first, because there was no indication of such.

The bot in question had a PFP of the Mr Beast Logo with a Map flag behind it. I do not remember the exact username, but I do remember it mentioning “Ava Kris Tyson”. Again, to my knowledge I assumed this was a harmless, edgy stunt. I believe this comment said “My content is better than MoistCritikals!”

Being curious, I clicked this profile, wondering why they were supposedly so much better than the youtuber I was watching - again not taking it very seriously due to the assumption it was a harmless troll. The account had one video, and the title displayed a collection of various characters, almost like a keyboard spam. EX: “ak3kfc2sDgKaGz3e4” or something of that nature. I clicked on this video, still under the presumption it would be harmless. The visuals were incredibly distorted, as well as the audio.

Now, I am going to clear up a common misconception - no the video was not clear enough to tell what was going on. One of my peers made a lovely comparison to visualize this.

Take this distorted, heavily filtered image of something random.



What if i told you, this was simply an image of a dog hopping?

Obviously, the visuals aren't exactly on par but it does give insight into how distorted the video was. Nobody, not even the people in the server would've been able to make out the contents of this, except me; and even then this still took over a minute for me to decipher.

Now, at this time still unaware of the contents, I sent this Youtube Video link into my small server. This server was strictly for my close friends, and due to me (no sugarcoating haha) being incredibly chronically online I felt the need to send this, and ping everyone. I stated something along the lines of me being curious on what I was looking at. It was also more in a satirical tone, given the profile picture and name. It was not a specific instance though. My point is that I would share all of my activities, and findings with them. I mean hell, they were my only friends at the time. This wasn't anything inherently malicious. It also kind of makes more sense to send something like that to a private server - I mean hell, It's not everyday you see a bot with a Mr Beast Map PFP. It's peculiar enough to show interest.

Upon reviewing the video again, I noticed something off that I hadn't noticed before. I took a screenshot of a frame and traced what I perceived to be a child's silhouette, the action still indiscernible.

To provide context, I am a victim of being shown clips from the very video I am being accused of distributing. In 2023, while I was being subjected to mass grooming and abuse by an online fascism cult, one of my groomers—whose name I withhold due to intense distress and paranoia—showed me a clip of this infamous video. These two groups collaborated to dismantle my already fragile innocence. The cult's tactics will be further detailed in the "NAZISM" section.

This is not something I asked for whatsoever, and I still suffer from this memory. It makes me feel filthy to have to relive this every two months. I got away from him mid 2024, barely a few months before this situation occurred. I was a victim of a genuine adult predator showing me this in early 2024. This is why I would've been the only one able to potentially identify what was behind the distortion. I was the only one subject to seeing a clip.

Admittedly, I have not clarified this until now, due to lacking the time and mental capabilities to genuinely process the event. It's possible I was getting ahead of myself.

Even after I attempted to make out what I was seeing, the witnesses present at the time stated they couldn't see the comparison I was making. The correlation could have been a grave coincidence with what I perceived. The clip I was victim to seeing was not in the same position as what I supposedly was tracing over. I apologize for being more descriptive, but I'm legally obligated to clarify my innocence, so please bear with me.

The reason I believe this might have been an incredible coincidence rather than simply imagining is because of what happened next.

Two of my peers (that have testified and I will include this) clicked on the catbox.moe file in the description.

(For context, catbox.moe is a file hosting site. Think of a visual pastebin, or imgur.) The fear was in fact confirmed, with them panicking and notifying me it was in fact a full, uncensored mp4 of the media I was accused of distributing. Upon being notified of this, I purged the channel immediately, and went to their DMS to figure out how to submit a cybertips.

As we can see here, the video was reported to the authorities.

Everyone in the server agreed that it was a very traumatic situation for all, and we agreed to not bring it up after the event as it was rightfully reported. There was quite literally no reason to bring this back up if legal action was taken.

In early February (estimated to be the 6th or so) I criticized Yummi's callout on an individual by the name of JimboJimmy. They responded, making fun of me. I wasn't very bothered as it was typical internet stuff.

I found out a few days later, Yummi was dating another creator I wasn't exactly fond of - Junidrawz.
I jokingly commented "mid dating mid" on Junidrawz' post.

This marks the start of the Yummicactus drama.

The individual in this censored screenshot is a person known as Analbonez, a notorious pro necrophiliac groomer. This individual is recognized for influencing children as young as 13 or 14 to adopt harmful pro-paraphilia beliefs, specifically necrophilia.

As much as i dont like you, cupid definitely is in the wrong for coming after you. Not because of the comment, but because cupid has actually sent videos of CSAM (specifically daisys destruction) to their discord server on multiple occasions when they were having "breakdowns".

Daisy recounts the events surrounding him accidentally distributing CSAM.

This is proof that what he claimed was cleared up beforehand.

He still posted the video.

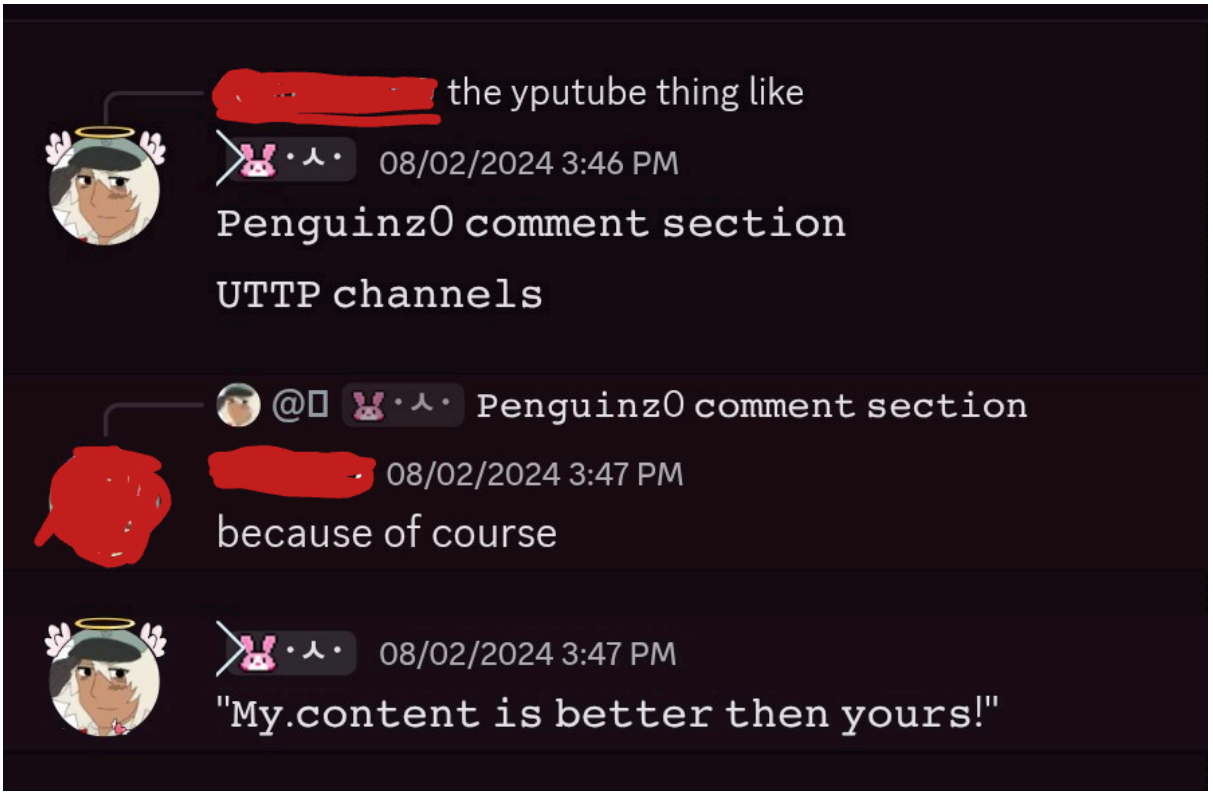
I then responded, with nearly the same story I have now.

Here is proof:
my first response video

He never clarified the misconceptions, even after the video was made. It took him until July to finally take it down due to us making a silence agreement that I will be bringing back up later.

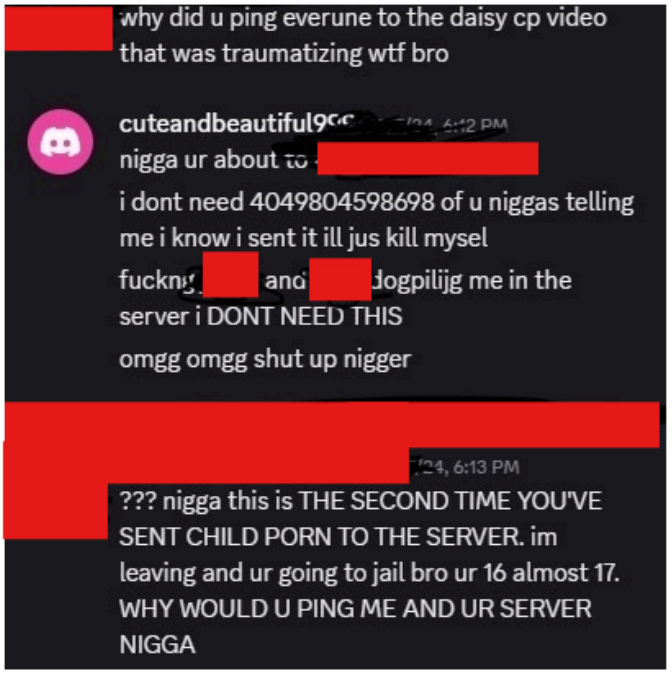
Common misconceptions or flatout lies

The first one, is that the channel was purged to “hide any evidence of it happening”. This quite literally makes no sense. Obviously, I am going to purge a channel if I was notified an attachment had an uncensored file to the most notorious hurtcore film known to man? I’d only cleared that channel, nothing more. I can verify this, as the server it happened in is still up. It is only archived. Here is visual proof, us conversing about the incident not even 30 minutes after it.



The second claim is that I downloaded/saved this file. I did not download this, or have this saved as claimed. This is just a flat out lie. I did not give any indication to doing so, rather the contrary with me purging the entire channel. I didn't even click the link in the description to begin with. I am unsure of where this claim came from.

The third, is that this was the second instance of me distributing this. I will say this is a misconception, and I see why some would be confused seeing this.



why did u ping everune to the daisy cp video that was traumatizing wtf bro

Unknown user yells at Daisy for sending CSAM in his discord server, and claims it's the 'second time' this has occurred.

As seen here, anon states it's the second time something like this has happened. Not the second time I've sent the infamous film; because that is not true. This is the ONLY instance of this happening.

The first instance they are talking about is the PRIM situation, and I will be speaking about that in the 3rd subtab. (May 2024 situation)

The fourth, and ultimately stupidest - Is that I named myself after this material. In Yummi's document, there is a screenshot where my usernames are set as "Daisy's D*struction" and "Daisy's Construction".

9/xx/25

Let me get a few things straight - first of all this screenshot is just downright faked. This is a DM nickname. Not a name I set myself. Discord has an option to give people on your friendslist nicknames.

One of my ex peers, who I will name Blue, maliciously sent this to NyloGutz, another contributor on the document. Nylo was fully aware of this not actually being my username, as Blue sent me them discussing it in a group chat.

This girl got me fucked on Very obviously sarcasm, but I will also clarify what my name came from. I changed my name to Daisy in 2022 after watching Girl interrupted and this is PUBLICLY known.

I did not get my name from CSEM, nor was it EVER my display name. I have not spoken to anonymous since, as I am still very hurt by what they've done.

Even if Nylo was not aware of this being a username, it is still negligence as they rid a baseless claim without verifying it.

This situation was handled so stupidly. If these claims were true, I am quite unsure why it took 9 months to finally report to the authorities. ALL of the evidence provided was hearsay from people who have expressed disdain for me previously.

WHO IS PRIM ?

Primavera (also known as Prim, PJ, or Lonesometeacup) is a former friend from whom I distanced myself from due to her incredibly harmful (and down right illegal) actions towards both me and others. While I'm uncertain of her exact age, it's estimated she is between 16 and 18. Primavera has a history of changing her age based on circumstance.

Here are two instances that raise concerns:

Example one: Prim explicitly instructing one of her victims to misrepresent her age, seemingly to prevent scrutiny regarding their questionable dynamic and age difference.

girlfiend✧ Today at 9:36 PM
Tell daisy I'm 13
Today at 9:42 PM
I dont know if she would believe that girlfiend✧ Today at 9:42 PM
Well fuck
Tell her to be the bigger person and stop this I'm sorry I said what I said to you
I'm scared

Example two: in 2024, her server offered an 18+ option. While it's plausible she added this option while underage, it's difficult to accept given her history of dishonesty about such details and inconsistent timelines.

These are not the only instances. She claimed she was 16 in 2024, then 12, then 13, so on so forth. It was all sporadic.

I do not dive into her background as a point to redirect attention to her, but because; not only is she a danger to others, she has proven to be an incredibly unreliable narrator. She has a history of manipulating people; even Yummi, as seen here.

And no - I will not sugarcoat the fact that I insulted Yummi's intelligence for contacting a party publicly known only for their outrageous actions against others. As someone personally harmed by them, I am entitled to my emotions. If I previously warned you about their character and you deliberately ignored it simply because of your hatred towards me, unfortunately, I will not offer my assistance. This is the same stance Yummi took with me when I confided in him about the harm Prim inflicted upon me.

Juni and Yummi claim, in the document I send “no proof” yet there isn’t a single lick of evidence where he asks for this. I find it concerning that you would side with an alleged groomer you haven't even spoken to, over a victim who informed you beforehand.

Prim has a long history of pathological lying, evident in her general behavior. Her lies range from her race, claiming to be Black, Asian, White, Mexican, and ultimately all four, to faking schizophrenic episodes that supposedly make her strip naked in alleyways (???help me) and speak different languages, such as Latin. She has faked committing suicide, and messaged her victim from a fake phone number claiming it was “his fault” for coming out about her abuse against him.

I do not have access to this evidence as of now - but I will assure you it does exist. As soon as I am able to reach this archive, I will edit the document accordingly.

She has also lied about her sex, claiming to be intersex with male genitalia while simultaneously stating she is biologically female. (This is incredibly disrespectful to the intersex community. It is different from saying you’re a male, when you’re female and vice versa. Intersex is an umbrella term for individuals who have innate sex characteristics which do not conform to medical and societal norms about biological sex, and as such are vulnerable to stigma and discrimination.)

Furthermore, Prim has fabricated past experiences to gain sympathy, even inventing personas for "abusers" to justify her own actions.

Please brace yourself for what I am about to show.

Prim had been in a relationship with a 13 year old in 2024. Again, we are unsure of her actual age, but I do have an admission of her thinking that said 13 year old were attractive due to their age. This is not normal for someone that was supposedly in the same age range.

Her partner (Macintosh) at the time was estimated to be 2 years older than her. Keep this in mind.

When confronted, her claims shifted:

- She developed a fascination with CSEM at age 10.
- An adult groomer named David introduced her to this content (contradicting an earlier statement that Macintosh showed her).
- She "poorly worded" asking her then-partner to show her CSEM, claiming she was "referring to someone else."
- She claims to dislike (not refuse to watch) zoophilia, not due to the act itself, but because "The women performing the harm against the innocent, unsuspecting animals are ugly."
- She admits to actively searching for this content three times in this single screenshot.

yeah i admit. when i was with my groomer it was something i actively seeked out

David is a fictitious persona. This is another one of her fabricated pity personas, created to justify her pursuit of illegal content involving toddlers and children. Her true age at this time remains unknown.

loathsometeacup 05/26/2024 3:13 AM you are the evil one. you've been playing with my emotions and trying to get me to be submit to you then you stab me in back. even after knowing that i attempted suicide because of your attempt. and i'm now physically disabled. i'd like to tell you something though. when i am 18 i am going to the police about you leaking my nudity and pressing charges against you. same for defamation and falsely accussing me of things like being 16 with a 12 year old and being a zoo. my parents forced me to give them my shit and they read our convos and are aware that i was talking about a past incident with my rapist when in elementary school up until middle school. so why don't you get the fuck out of here before i change my mind and the police have more info on you because of your self pitiful mindset where you beleive you cant do anything wrong. sorry hon but newsflash. your a criminal. stop digging your own grave and be the older one in this sitation. stop being a fucking child. also everything that comes out goes around. everything you say in order to hurt me just gives me more evidence agaisnt you in court. (edited)

Her explanations for encountering these terms have evolved:

1. First Claim: Her boyfriend, Mac, searched for it at her explicit request.
2. Second Claim: David, her "in real life groomer," showed it to her when she was 10.
3. Third Claim: Her elementary school assailant showed it to her.

She is also lying about being “physically disabled for life” here.

The entire reason we fell out in the first place is because when I had a suicide attempt, she decided it’d be good to lie about jumping off of a 12 story building, and having a lung punctured and 6 ribs broken because she was “upset I overdosed” (I was literally fine before she claimed to do this). Need i mention: She also claims my suicide attempt was falsified? This entire situation was a disgusting, apathetic way to get attention.

Prim came out as a Pedophile and zoophile because my educational paraphilia video “helped her come to terms”. The problem is she has acted on these thoughts MORE than enough times.

loathsometeacup 07/19/2024 8:41 PM
oh my god. i watched your video and its truly change my perception on the world around me and mostly what makes us all human. we as a species treat people who have paraphilias but would never think to remotely get up and molest others, only imagining it, the same as people who actually caused that harm. we act like people who have those thoughts but dont actually feel that its right deep inside are as bad as people who truly beleive it is the right thing to do.
i constantly denied people telling me that i was a pedo and zoo, most definite because i never commited those acts.
even though my unconscious mind influences my morals and sexual thoughts, it doesnt mean id ever act upon them.

Other things Primavera has done:

- Threaten to rape a peers pets, and brothers

- Has made false animal abuse, and rape claims about me its so fucked up.

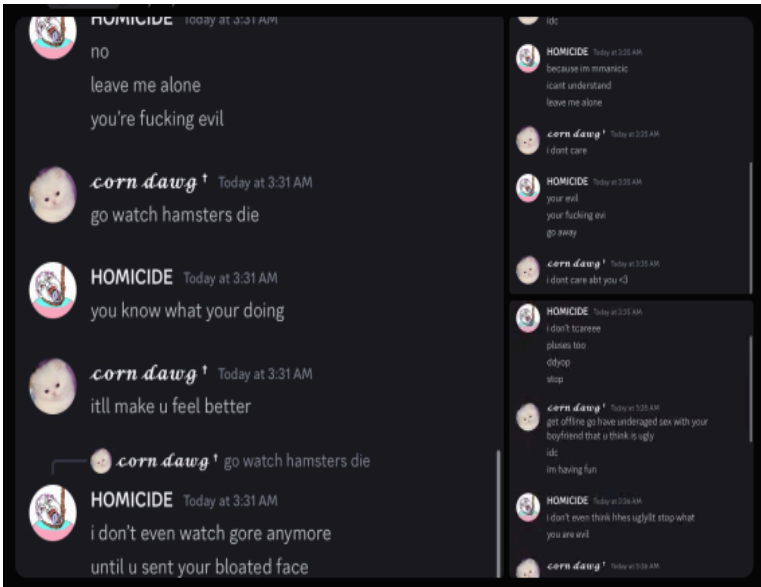
oh i didnt even mention prim went out of her way to use daisys trauma against it to make her look better by skewing the ages of the people involved in daisys rape she tried poisoning the well by saying daisy was involved in a child on child sexual abuse situation and saying it was the one that initiated it when in reality it was raped by its cousin they did this purposefully to make people alienate daisy and possibly make them off themselves.
>which by the way im pretty sure they even acknowledged and laughed about it to daisys face.

- Taken advantage of my mania, (+ shaming me for having intercourse before marriage?)



here's prim purposefully fucking with daisy when it was extremely manic wanna know why? daisy was manic because prim was leading on false allegations about it not only this, prim was saying daisy was a rapist even though thats far from the truth and daisy was the one who GOT assaulted.

they were also saying daisy faked their overdose at the time because they were gonna commit suicide from how much pressure this was giving them do you realize that i can be manic and say and do things on impulse too?

doesnt mean i actually meant it or actually felt it

- Drawn shotacon and sent it to her 13 year old victim

- Drawn extremely graphic scat porn of people she doesn’t like (Obviously with them having no knowledge)
- Masturbated to a unsuspecting 12 year olds face
- Sent gore, scat, nudity of 12 year olds, and prolapse porn to her victims
- Has masturbated in Discord voice calls with people as young as 11, & 12. I was also a victim of this.
- 10/27/2025 11:04 AM like me and her didnt really speak much, only time we did was when it was drama related and she wanted me to try to help her with things since i was in contact with ppl that she was in drama with, yet whenever i actually spoke to her outside of that it was usually weird as they were usually in gcs and stuff, i get if she was hypersexual tho but she knew about my age of some sorts.... at least i hope because she said that she's known me since i was 12, usually in the gcs i'd be shown nsfw and other stuff be it by prim herself or her friends at the time, i kinda looked up to prim at the time because of how nice she was with me and allat, usually it would be just straight up porn of real people, which i believe were underaged at the time as it was from actual people i knew (toff, prim herself etc etc) or just drawn porn, i've seen things like this before in the past when i was younger but i don't think i shouldve been openly exposed to such things for such a long time either
- Sidenote: She has harassed and threatened the then 12 year old for coming out about this.
- Has sent her genitalia to me without consent

My massa 04/07/2024 10:17 AM bro i sent daisy a video of it normally and its small as fuck \

This is not even half of the things she's done, nor the crimes she's committed. She has been reported to cybertips and we're working on getting her investigated.

This is not someone you want to be trusting whatsoever. Not only has she admitted to doing heinous things, she has lied about numerous things. She is using this situation to grab attention. Not to "spread awareness".

March 2024 / Prim Situation

The march 2024 / Prim Situation (1)

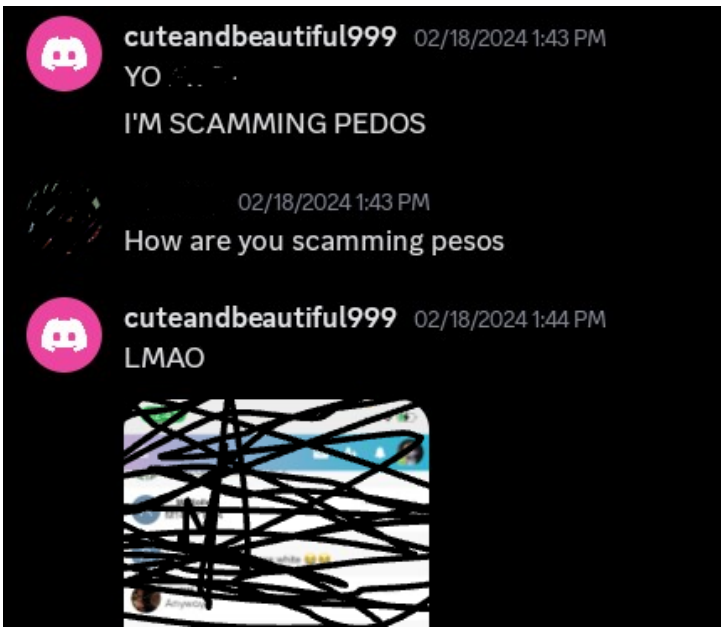
To begin, it is established that Prim has a notable history with hypersexuality. This is stated not to assign blame, but to provide essential context.

Albeit, this particular situation is straightforward, and the provided messages will speak for themselves.

On March 5th, 2024, I was openly discussing / and boasting about scamming pedophiles in my now-deleted Discord server. At the time, I viewed this as an act of justice: preventing people who harm children from using their money to cause further damage.

It was also an advantage for me, as it was my only source of income besides commissions. Crucially, I was 15 years old. My relevant personal history included being a victim of abuse and extortion. This activity was not new to me; I had been doing it since I was 13.

Here is me, a month before telling one of my peers of what I was doing - again with no warning to stop.



I saw no ethical conflict because the adults around me not only failed to tell me it was wrong but actively encouraged it. I recall doing this even while on calls with my rapist.

The collective goal was purely to financially hurt the predators, which no one around me viewed as wrong. If I were an adult working with law enforcement, the activity would have been safer and less criticized. The real danger laid in the fact that I was a child potentially endangering myself, regardless of whether I used my own photos or not.

I initially learned about this method from the popular YouTuber Mamamax and will link the video that introduced me to it.

KidsChat.net

I apologize for making this site known. Again; it is crucial to prove my innocence and intentions.
My intention was never to create mischief; in fact, the opposite was true, as I will explain shortly.

Prim saw my message and reached out to me first, viewing this as a personal opportunity. As the evidence shows, she messaged me, not vice-versa.

I responded by sharing my own method. This was done simply to help a friend struggling with money, which I genuinely saw as a "sharing is caring" act. I only wanted to assist. Her claim that I "forced" her is an outright fabrication. While sharing the method may haven't been safe, construing my actions as "pimping her out" (a direct quote from her) is malicious and (demonstrably) false.

Here is me explicitly telling Prim not to show visuals of herself. While not in the most assertive way - It's only as much as you'd expect from someone the same age in the exact same position. Clearly I was still under the impression she wasn't going to use images of herself, as I wasn't.

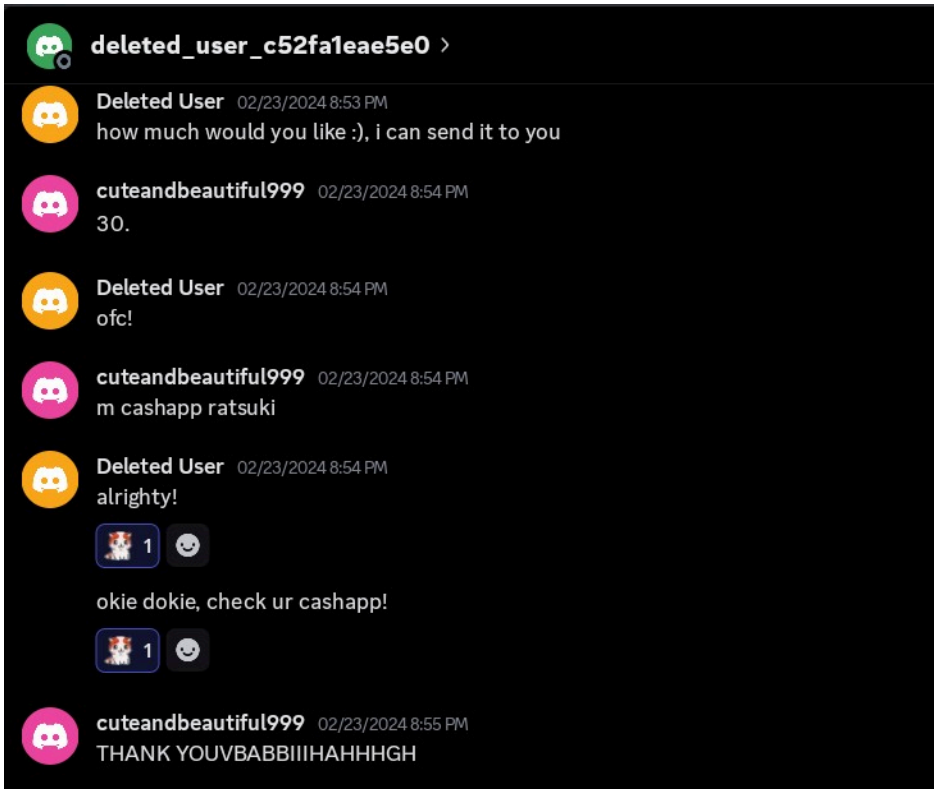
GIRL BYE HELO ME

In appreciation for my help, she offered me a portion of the money she received. I advised her to keep the majority of the funds; nevertheless, she allowed me to get 30.



While the entire situation was regrettable, the assertion that I "groomed" Prim into these actions is objectively untrue. We were the same age, and the shared mindset was mutual support, not manipulation. Neither of us adequately recognized the risks involved.

This is a situation where we both needed mental support, and help from healthy support systems. Neither of us had this. We were both victims. Not Prim alone.

I will go ahead and clarify a few things:

No, I did not possess Prim's photos, nor did I distribute them. I am unsure where that claim came from.

No, these people did not believe I was Prim, and Prim was me. The whole idea was catfishing. We found separate people and again, decided to share what we got from it.

No, I did not force Prim to do anything. Again, telling people about the situation is not malicious, however saying I forced her, is malicious. There is evidence clear as day she approached me regarding it.

No, I did not make Prim send material of herself WHAT SO EVER. I actually obliged against it. Again, a clear lie. Indeed, the way I rebutted against it wasn't mature, but again I was quite unsure what to do. My first recommendation was the opposite of harming herself.

And ultimately, this is not an example of me distributing CSEM as claimed. I am unsure how they reached that conclusion, again with the amount of hearsay and lack of proof, but it does not correlate to the proof I've shown. The things that Prim sent were on her own accord and had little to do with me.

Graceful's involvement

Me and a peer did notify commentary youtuber Graceful of this. She was the first to hear about this, due to the first Prim spiel where she claimed I raped my pets, family members, ETC. She contacted Graceful after making a few videos on me.

We sent Grace all of the logs, proving I did not orchestrate anything. We politely recommended not to make a video as we were taking it to the proper authority. She debated against it, in another petty grasp for clout.

Despite this, as of October 28th 2025 Graceful still says I “lied” about the UTTP situation, and the Prim incidents. (I’ve explained all 3 of these to her)

Graceful 2 days ago
It genuinely feels so amazing that someone I've advocated against for over a year is finally receiving some sort of punishment. Yes, I've acted somewhat neutral at times because I didn't want their fan base to jump me in my comments, luckily that won't be happening as they're FINALLY opening their eyes, which I don't know why it had to get THIS far.
Learning about this new stuff really solidified my stances on them, and if you support them even an ounce, unsubscribe!
ALL of my Cupidite videos are public again, all of the videos that caused me to get harassed.
Daisy has built their community and platform on manipulation and lies, and it's actually disgusting how they got away with it for this long.
Another thing I want to mention, Cupidite has put me in a gc with a person named Neetcorp months ago to try and get me to think that the first 2 CP incidents were accidents. Turns out Neetcorp is a VILE person as well. Neetcorp will be mentioned in my video, and I do want to say this directly to them.
Try playing lawyer for them again, necrophile.

This is not the only time Graceful will be brought up. As much as I don't like to say it - Graceful has a history of misconstruing communications based on how much she likes the person. This would be an example.

This is not said out of malice. You can like Graceful, you can be her biggest fan ever, I do not care or mind. I have also wronged her, and I will obviously bring that up. My point is recognizing she has made many immature mistakes - such as these. Two wrongs don't make a right.

In conclusion, I acknowledge I should not have never told prim how to get money from people like that as of now. I was the same age she claimed to be, and have had a long history of exploitation - therefore I didn't understand the issue with this. I do recognize why letting them get involved wasn't smart.

This situation was not the result of me "forcing" or exploiting Prim; it was simply negligence on all sides. It would be more productive to focus the blame on the adult parties who sought to take advantage of us, regardless of whether they knew they wouldn't receive anything explicit.

Please move forward with the knowledge that this was nearly two years ago, and I have not done this since.

This situation should not have been publicized. There is not enough nuance for it to be handled by a community like this. Me and Prim would both be victims.

May 2024 / Prim Situation

I cut ties with Prim in May 2024, as previously mentioned. This decision was based on her falsely claiming to have attempted suicide "in my honor," asserting that she had "medically died over 6 times" (I am not exaggerating), broken her ribs, punctured her organs, and was permanently physically disabled “because of me”. Her actions after this were completely uncalled for, and stapled the end of our friendship. I’d been uncomfy before due to her sporadic actions and genuine examples of sexual assault to my friends, but I had not had a decent outlet to express this in.

The reason she’d gotten upset in the first place was because one of my ex peers kicked her from my server for sending an edited photo of her face, bloodied and bloated. We were under the impression this photo was real. I was recovering from a medically recognized manic episode, and I was trying to keep myself under control for weeks on end. This peer only wanted to keep me safe from that content due to this episode, and due to that they kicked Prim. It was a petty dispute, but it didn’t need to go as far as it did.

I don’t recall the entire surge of events in between, but there was a stream Prim started where she screamed at the top of her lungs about how she hated me for betraying her. A clip from the stream in question is available here (warning: INCREDIBLY high volume) that contradicts the claim of someone having just jumped off a 12 story building.

VOLUME WARNING

During this livestream, the individual made several claims against me, including alleging I had pimped her out (addressed previously), as well as accusations of me raping family members and killing my hamster (the latter was, in fact, done by another family member). The second claim regarding CSEM did not arise at this time, but I will address it shortly. First, I will address some statements I'd made in this period.

People, unfortunately, ended up believing these claims, and it'd been a huge obstacle in front of my recovery. It is not very helpful for people to purposely trigger you in these episodes, and it is very easy to do so.

It's important to state that this situation did end up triggering this pre-existing episode. It was also incredibly hard to "step back" and "get off the internet" at this time as I did not, and still don't have a real life support system.

I made some extremely impulsive, non-serious comments. These have been addressed previously, but as the information is in the document, I include it here for context.

The following is a screenshot of me making offensive, and (admittedly) triggering comments:

- I claimed I would rape my then-partner (who, admittedly, had raped me a week prior to this comment).
- I also claimed I would rape my cat (who was not in my vicinity). Tragically, this cat is now deceased, as a parental figure threw it on concrete during an unrelated fit of rage merely three or so days after this started.

As unserious as these comments were, obviously they weren't okay things to say. I immediately apologized, assuring the parties who saw this I was not serious. I'd even had a conversation where someone genuinely sat me down and spoke to me about it instead of berating me.

dontdmsetfordeletion you're humr can be dark, but saying you'll rape your cat exceeds that for awareness and telling people, they can in fact change

I only address this as it was brought up in the document. My goal is to clear up all the allegations.

Back onto the main track - I allowed Prim to contact me. I was in a voice call at the time, because as I mentioned; i was unstable. My support system at the time was in this voice call.

Prim messaged me, and claimed she was sorry for all the things she said about me. I responded and asked “how are you sorry if you keep lying” (referencing her being in the hospital and about to die) and her demeanor quickly changed. Rather than reassuring me of her honesty, she launched a counter-accusation:

i'm extremely sorry for everything that i have said and done... i was undergoing psychosis, mania, and delusions that took over my mental wellbeing and decision making. I'm extremely scared and struggling physically... i lost everyone that i knew and loved.. my parents were contacted from the hospital that i might not make it. my world is spiraling and i truly wish i could fix this.. my heart has stopped lastnight and i underwent a code blue. i am physically and mentall declining... i'm really sorry for all that i did i thought you were going to die and i wanted to come with you.. God wouldn't let us.
but..
my body is physically failing me now.. every single organ in me is struggling to keep living. and i did this all to myself.
i always loved you daisy, i never hated you i hope one day we can be friends again

This brings us to the core issue. I revealed to a then-close friend that Prim had been masturbating while looking at a picture of a person who was 12 years old at the time the picture was taken, without any of their knowledge, or consent. Prim was fully aware of the person's age. She was threatening to send this video to the victim, who was the same age as me at the time. She had also sent this video in batches, to unsuspecting victims as young as 11.

I will show the conversation below:

i do have another video lmao

The video that prompted my reply only contained suggestive, poor-quality art, and was not actually NSFW.

Prim also, out of the blue, brings up the video. As you can see here - I DID NOT ASK FOR IT. I cannot show the entire screen, as the video does happen to be below.

She also claims a then 14 year old “asked her” to do this, yet sends no evidence. Even if so, it is still absolutely revolting to do. If her alleged age was true, she would’ve been at least a year older than the person she claims asked for this. I also contacted the 14 year old as we were mutuals, and they denied this.

I replied with… well, it’s right there. It does not imply that I welcomed or appreciated the content I received. At that time, I was quite accustomed to receiving this kind of material, especially when it was sent unprovoked. Prim was a close friend of mine as well, and it was hard to tell her I wasn't comfortable due to her constant sporadic behavior. When people expressed discomfort, she would reply with insults, accusations, or even as far as suicide/rape threats, like in this situation. I did not feel safe expressing discomfort around Prim.

Prim claimed to have made a shrine of the victim, and admits to sending this to minors other than me without consent.

Back to the “interrogation”, it is evident that Prim was being deceitful. Simultaneously, Prim was demanding "evidence" and visual proof. At the same time, the people in my private server were asking; and even advised reporting the matter to authorities due to its sexually deviant nature.

When I sent said proof to Prim herself, she backtracked instantly.

Let me clarify, this video was not saved whatsoever. It was copied. There was a clipboard feature on the device I used, similar to using “CTRL + V”.

Prim asserted that I was "in possession" of CP and that this had "nothing to do with the conversation." This claim is made despite the fact that she was the one who initiated the topic and demanded for evidence. More importantly, Prim was the person who actually created and distributed the content without consent.

This is by definition, manipulation. More specifically (though I hate to use this term in a serious context) "gaslighting".

- Denial: The gaslighter denies that events occurred or that agreements were made, making the victim doubt their memory.
- Attack credibility: They question the victim's judgment, intelligence, or mental health, often suggesting they are "crazy" or "too sensitive".
- Undermine reality: The gaslighter may twist conversations to make the victim feel like they are always the one who is wrong or to blame.
- Isolate the victim: They may try to turn others against the victim or convince the victim that only they (the gaslighter) can be trusted.

As I said before, I was going to report this video to cybertips due to the offense, therefore I would need to have this evidence attached to my clipboard, in order to report properly.

I had planned to submit two pieces of evidence: a message directly proving Prim's actions and the video itself. The message proof, which lacked visual NSFW content, was the only one intended for the server; both, however, were meant to be sent to cybertips.

It was an extremely reckless error: the video, instead of the message, was mistakenly posted to the server. I only realized my mistake when peers quickly alerted me to delete it. I immediately deleted the video, and purged the entire server.

Most of my peers were on Prim's side. A majority weren't even in the server when it happened. They believed I sent this video purposely, and as "revenge" for Prim's harm against me.

This truly was an accident, and I was incredibly embarrassed I'd made that mistake. It was not purposely sent however, and certainly not to get back at Prim. Sending that purposely would not only genuinely be stupid, but counterproductive. My sole intention was to warn my friends of Prim lying to them. I would not lie about something as serious as that, and still wouldn't.

I'd apologized to Prim on multiple occasions; and I will admit, they were not as thought out as I wanted them to be. My words were heavily misconstrued, and were interpreted as "using illness as an excuse".

I bring up my mania not to lessen consequences or say "It's okay I did this because I'm ill!", but rather to explain my mistakes. Me bringing up impulsivity, or racing thoughts does not mean I did whatever I did (Not even limited to this situation) because I couldn't control myself; But because it genuinely made me unable to process what I was sending. I cannot emphasize this enough, but I genuinely believed I was sending the text evidence. I made the ridiculous mistake of sending whatever was in my clipboard right away, instead of inspecting it. It was reckless, and it was dangerous, but it was anything but me deliberately harming Prim.

I cleared this situation up a few more times to Prim herself, and assured her what I sent was completely accidental. Prim knew that was accidental from the start, as her intention was likely to get me to make this very mistake from the beginning.

I still apologize, accident or not. I wholeheartedly admit I was reckless, and believe me, I have been working on impulsivity, and checking the things I send before I send them.

I am still hoping people catch onto how disgusting this situation really is. It was overlooked in the past few situations, but it shouldn't be rocket science to figure out why someone, regardless of age, masturbating to a then 12 year olds SFW photos without consent needs to be reported.

I do completely acknowledge my negligence in this situation, and I will continue to. What I did, accident or not, was bad. It was not an instance of maliciously distributing CSEM, or Revenge Porn though. I am unsure where this claim came from, as I'd never once said I sent it for revenge.

Definition for context:

Dictionary

Definitions from Oxford Languages · Learn more re·venge porn

/rəˈvenj ˌpôrn/

revealing or sexually explicit images or videos of a person posted on the internet, typically by a former sexual partner, without the consent of the subject and in order to cause them distress or embarrassment.

"she's been campaigning for a change in the law since she first became a victim of revenge porn"

My story has always been that I'd copied the wrong file, and pasted it in the wrong place. It has not been "because I was manic!" and if i have stated this, it would have been an incredibly poor choice of wording.

No matter how manic I may have been, I would never send a piece of media like this deliberately. Again, my sole purpose was to help others, and warn them of Prim/ Clearly I was not in the position to do that.

Last I would like to address claims of me "doxxing" Prim - I have not doxxed Prim. I have, however, posted their face (that were already public). I have also given Prim's address to an ex close friend for our cybertips report. That is quite literally it.

Now that that's explained,

This leaves only TWO instances of me, non maliciously, and completely accidentally sending this content. Not 6.

The first situation, with the UTTP, was me genuinely not knowing what was in the video, or description due to heavy distortion,

And the second situation was me recklessly not checking what I was sending into a discord server. Keep in mind, this video was meant to go to cybertips, and cybertips ONLY.

I have never had CSEM / CSAM saved in my life, and I certainly have never sent CSEM for "shock value", "revenge", or "because I was manic".

Again, the accusation of acting out due to "mania" stems from experiencing racing thoughts and difficulty in recognizing certain things as a mentally stable person would - not from a deliberate, unstable choice to send things. The only times I have admitted to this state are in relation to making offensive, bigoted remarks that I did not genuinely mean.

This condition is a medically recognized issue that led to my hospitalization in May 2024, and still I continue to experience manic episodes to this day. While I shouldn't have to disclose my medical history, since so many online people seem to be qualified mental health professionals and psychiatrists with degrees, I will elaborate on my diagnosis in the final sections.

I do not know where the “6 times” claim came from, but it is certainly not true, and is baseless.

I will keep learning from these situations, so that I am less reckless, and pay more attention in the future.

“ Daisy sent my penis out to people. Also, I’m biologically female. “ - Prim, twenty twenty something

Safari 8chan / dark w accusations

(This section was written by safari)

Since this is my (As in Safari, I'm speaking now) first mention in this document - I will start off by stating that I am 15. I do not turn 16 until a week before the year ends. (December 24th 2009.)

As far as I'm aware, nobody has been notified of my age and it has deliberately not been clarified anywhere in the document, or publicly. (likely to help the pedophilia allegations thrive.)

This would make me at least a year and one month older and at most two years older than most parties mentioned in this situation.

Birth certificate, as for some reason they obliged not to verify my age.

Anyhow, for such a serious accusation, I'd expect literally any form of proof that any of this happened the way it was stated to have, let alone at all.

Daisy's (ex) friends talk about their interactions with Safari and how when they were in calls with her she would stream explicit content to them. Including websites containing CSAM links.

Fairly recently, I was on a call with a friend and decided I'd screenshare some 8kun bullshit. The site is notorious for weirdos going on tangents, and I (as well as the person I shared it to) just found it humorous. I'd also like to mention - they did explicitly ask me to go on this site when it was mentioned.

I was there exclusively to laugh at the foodism crazies. I did not at all view any explicit material of children (let alone search for whatsoever) nor did I find this. I am unsure where that claim came from to begin with, but I will unfortunately have to assume it was added on because I already have pedophilia allegations. That is the only reasonable explanation I can come up with. I did not legitimately know there was ever explicit material containing children on that specific site. I made one singular joke referring to the fact that the people on that board will go above and beyond to express their pure, unrelenting edge.

The joke in question was something along the lines of “there’s probably tons of crazy shit on here” and I saw some random link and exclaimed some joke about how it contained everything evil on earth and said I’d seen it all before or some shit, like a three minute ramble kinda joke where I spew random deranged slop in desperate hopes of getting a laugh, I suppose? I probably slipped something about that kind of content in there, I genuinely do not remember the exact specifics of the joke. Not a mature or funny joke by any means, very tasteless in fact, but jesus christ, no, I never legitimately stated to have seen cp, and I sure as hell didn’t see it on that call. Just a ton of racism and words I can’t pronounce or remember.

The circumstances are certainly pretty odd (no I don’t actively search the hidden web) and there’s criticism to be had for even so much as touching that site, but I hadn’t actually been knowledgeable of anything beyond the fact it contained a foodism board and I found that pretty funny. If you don’t find that funny, I totally understand, but I find the kind of talk I see on there to be pretty unbelievably insane and humorous. That’s literally the only reason I was ever there, cannot stress that enough.

Important sidenote: If we're bringing up things that happened on vc, Winter has actively given me a guide on how to find explicit material regarding children on Twitter (???) by searching specific codewords through NSFW twitter (I will obviously not share). I did not try these methods out at all, and I was not aware they could be executed until they told me. If we are bringing up things said in calls, I find that relevant to mention if Winter is going to downright misconstrue things while on the other hand: they have actually been doing these things.

I didn't bring it up before not only because I was unaware of them sharing this false information about me, but because I didn't believe they told me out of ill will. Frankly I trusted them way too much and let that slide.

Daisy note again; they also include a screenshot where I explicitly stated Safari did not go on those sites to view those things.

Daisy admits to Safari (his girlfriend) browsing foodism & skibidifarms, which are run by the UTTP (who have actual cp). Daisy also claims that Safari does not go on other deep web sites despite allegedly browsing 8-chan and other forum sites which have cp on them. (Safari admitted this in vc with a 14yr old while screen sharing said site).

Foodism is on 8chan by the way, so no, I did not lie. They are virtually the same thing.

I didn't mention this here, but foodism and skibidifarms were QUITE LITERALLY harassing us at this time.

(I will paste screenshots when I can find them, again! They were spamming my address in my youtube streams and making references to Nazism.) I should also let this be known - it was because of Yummi's video. Obviously, Yummi didn’t send them to us, but they did harass me and dox me because they discovered his video existed. We didn’t even know who they were before that.

Again another baseless, and incredibly dangerous claim. It is another example of ex friends making up disgusting falsehoods to add fuel to the already burning forest fire.

Instead of speculating, this issue could have been resolved by simply contacting the people involved. No one who is involved in this has reached out to them for their perspective, yet I am criticized for associating with them. If they are the alleged pedophile, that would make me an active victim and them an active threat. This doesn't make sense.

GROOMING / MANIPULATION ACCUSATIONS

This tab will discuss all the accusations of both Daisy, and Safari grooming / preying on others; as well as manipulating others.

Lime Context

How me and Lime met

I was friends with Tex for approximately 3 years. We met in late 2022 (I believe august/november) with me being 13 nearly 14. I was born 11/21/2008.

My official birth certificate

(I am also not a senior in high school. I am a Junior.)

At the time of this. Tex introduced herself, giving the impression of her being the same age as me. She stated to be born 11/30/2008, making her claim to be 9 days younger than me. I do not have evidence of this as my account was banned, however I do have evidence of when she told me her real age, which was this year.

She expressed having a hyperfixation on me, which I only now remember that she's using as a point. Claiming I had a power imbalance over her from the start, is a stretch however. I did not directly pioneer her fixation, nor indulge in it. I simply felt honored that someone like me, a regular person, could be valued that much. You being starstruck by a child with 6K subscribers on youtube for a bad rant, doesn't mean I'm going to realize such, especially at 13. The same age she claims she is now.

"always" how

If Lime introduced herself as the same age as me, hyperfixation or not - I did not overpower her. I was not even in school at this time, making me far too uneducated to even understand power imbalances to begin with.

This was also around the time I made my Foxi Boxi Expose, which was received negatively by the community due to my lack of knowledge and pure negligence.

I did not know how grooming or manipulation worked, even with me being groomed at this time - therefore I could not have done this myself, as grooming is a planned and deliberate process of manipulation.

Grooming cannot be accidental because intent is a necessary component of the behavior. Grooming is defined as the intentional and strategic process of manipulating and building a relationship with a victim (often a child) to gain access, trust, and compliance for eventual sexual abuse or exploitation.

While some individual actions used as tactics within the grooming process might be presented as "accidental" by a perpetrator (e.g., an "accidental" touch or walking in on someone changing), the overall pattern of conduct is deliberate and purposeful.

[sources on grooming, and how it works.]

The point of grooming is manipulating a party into getting something you desire. I had no desire for anything other than friends, And this is natural, Especially for somebody my age, Who was isolated from in real life peers.

I took her admission of being fixated on me as a gift, Still unknowing she was 10, instead of 13, like myself.

This wasn't a situation of "Well you should've known she was 10 when you first met! It's easy to spot that!" It is not at all. Even now, I genuinely believe she is older than she claims.

Several factors contribute to my doubt, including her appearance (which I will not share, as it could jeopardize her safety), her writing style, and her reluctance to provide proof of her age. This makes it difficult for me to accept her stated age as true. (Note: This is a personal belief, not a statement of fact or falsehood. I am admittedly, still in denial due to the severity of this situation.)

Examples of her writing:

These may seem like a stretch on the reader's behalf, However as someone who has known her longer than anyone, I can say these did sculpt my image of her.

Her knowledge, and the advice she gave me, was beyond wise. I just thought she was someone the same age as me that was more intelligent than me in terms of both education, and literacy.

There was also a group chat named “maga” she brought up. If she brought up her age in July, It was well after the Safari situation that went on, Because it happened in May 2025.

This could very well be misremembering, however with other evidence, it doesn't add up. She also does not end up correcting such, but instead backtracked when I sent screenshots disproving of it.

this is important

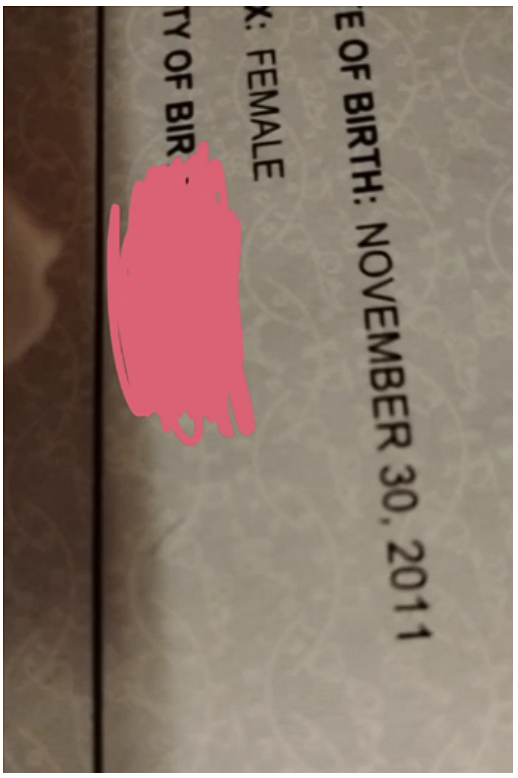
No, I wasn’t guilt tripping by the way. I was genuinely on the verge of a seizure.

Notably, the last screenshot in particular is incredibly odd. What would be incriminating about a birth certificate, especially if I already have her birth name, where she resides, and previous school? (Yes, This was given to me consentingly, and contextually.) There can't be anything more incriminating than my worst fear: A lie for the fourth time.

This was 10/16/25, when I contacted Tex to assess the situation. I will get into this later - However; It is a little odd to guilt trip someone and claim they're “pressuring” you, solely for asking for evidence of your age, that you've been flippant about several times.

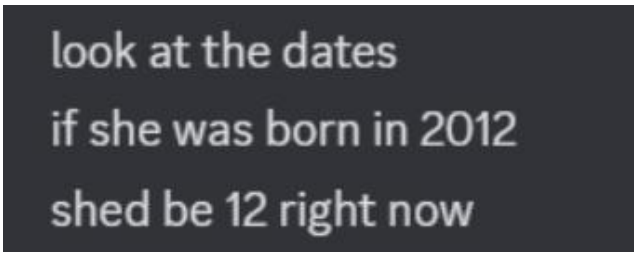
Tex finally admitted she couldn't find her birth certificate, but her explanation still felt incomplete. If she truly lacked access to it, I can't understand why she didn't mention that sooner.

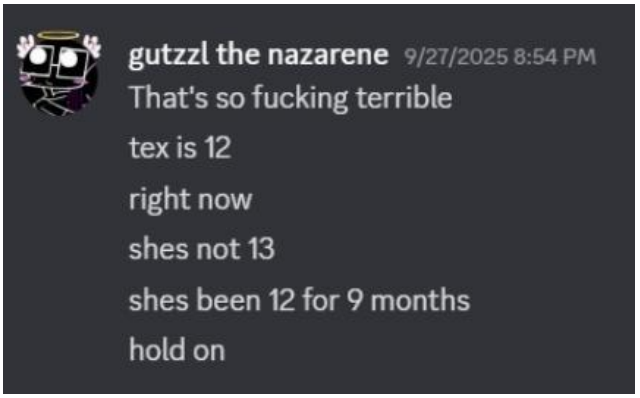
As of the document being released, Tex has now provided her birth evidence to the document creators; which is still incredibly confusing since she previously withheld it from me.



I was also shown that some people believed she was born in 2012, which makes me more skeptical.

Gutzzl stating she was allegedly born in 2012





The fact that multiple people have said multiple different ages, is very confusing. This is why I believe it is important. If Tex has lied one, or twice, about a specific topic, they may do such again.

You should not have three different dates of your age, that is impossible.

Tex did eventually send me a screenshot of their grades, and above it said Grade 8 (which would make her 13, turning 14 in November), However, them being reluctant to send this to begin with contributes to my suspicion.

Again, I am not claiming she is lying now, however my paranoia is more than valid considering her pattern of lies regarding this crucial information.

Individuals I have recently told about this situation are even confused about the fact she lied to begin with.

People whom have also known Tex being shocked she was deceptive about her true age lying about your age for 4 years is insane never saying anything while being 3-4 years younger than your friends is insane

Tex even confessed to me in late 2023, and got into a relationship with me, with me still being under the impression she was the same age as me. This was a crucial mistake on her end. She did not tell me or hint to such whatsoever, which was incredibly dangerous for both parties. This time, she offered to send photos of her legs with my name on it. Me being her partner, and unaware of the deception of age, I accepted. (Not nudity)

I do feel bad about this, and I didn't remember this whatsoever until I was sent screenshots of such. This was also two years ago however, and it does not reflect my character now. It is personal, and not for you to judge.

I would also like to mention, Me and Tex had a conversation about this, and she exchanged the same feelings. (I mention this in about two paragraphs after this.)

I can't find relevant information on the start of our relationship. We did speak a lot on instagram, however my account is banned, so I cannot retrieve this information. I am unsure if Tex's account was ever swapped or banned previously, but if it isn't, we're sure Tex can get more information. There were also several witnesses of this however, who actively believed Tex was 16 as well.

We parted for a few months due to interpersonal drama, and then reunited and elaborated in DMs, it was better we broke it off. We were good friends, not partners. Both of us expressed we couldn't feel beyond platonical feelings.

I recently found out, Tex has been pinning this as malicious as well, Which is incredibly incriminating, due to the fact she is aware she did not tell me her age at all during this time. It also does not add up, because we “broke up” in February 2024.

It's not linear whatsoever. You have just destroyed your credibility a little more, with unnecessary lies.

In January of 2025, Tex came out and admitted to lying about her age for three years straight, making her real age 10 to 11 (11/30/2011) at the time of our meeting.

This information was received at a very sporadic, and random time. I also mentioned this before but this was literally 3 days after the most recent instance of her saying she's 16. I was naturally shocked (and admitted this several times.)

I did not apply this information subconsciously, As I was so used to knowing Tex as the same age, Not someone much younger.

It is a very hard realization for the person who has been the closest to you for years, to lie about something so heinous. If you put yourself in my shoes, you would have a hard time processing this as well. People process information like this at different rates, and forms. It is genuinely disgusting and reckless to lie about something so important for that long, knowing you did things that could have them pinned as a predator.

What Tex did could and did get me in trouble.

Do also keep in mind, even if she did come out about her true age, that it was 3 entire years of me being used to and conditioned to this lie. Lying for such a time can disrupt memory, especially in individuals like me, who already have a hard time remembering daily things. I cannot even remember some traumatic events. Someone I loved and trusted lying about their age, and getting me into a relationship with them unknowingly, can disrupt this even more.

Here are some psychological resources on reoccurring lies affecting future memory (yes, even if the source lying comes out and says they were lying.) the effect of lying on memory:

source!

source, again!

No, this isn't "using my illness as an excuse" or whatever. What I suffer from does genuinely impact my everyday life, even up to my memory. Unfortunately, this extends to inconvenient and dangerous circumstances as well. It isn't a fictionalized fairytale, it is real life. Things like this happen. It is not something I can control, or manage without medication.

(By the way, I don't remember what idiot of a human stated this, but amnesia is not limited to D.I.D. I cannot believe that was an actual point.)

I've also conducted an experiment - Seeing if people, completely unrelated, and unbiased, experience the same thing. Not a single person knows the context, However every single comment had elaborated on amnesia. Even better - It lies in the picture.

hey flowerfriends 🌼 i'm curious, does anyone else with bpd/ptsd struggle with amnesia, even with significant/important events?

Borderline and PTSD here! Yes all the time Dosnt help that i've gaslit in the past so idk if a memory is real or not

There are at least a dozen more personal accounts.

The last comment stuck with me personally, as they brought up the fact that the other party corrected themselves on the mistake. This did not happen with Tex. Not in the moment of the Safari situation, at least.

Multiple people also bring up still associating memories with the lie regardless of what the other party says.

You could argue; “There isn't evidence you forgot!” But there also is no evidence that I did not forget. There is, however, evidence that the other party lied.

The only instances and evidence of me stating she was 13, was after the Safari situation, or May 2025 event.

Daisy acknowledges Lime's age months before asking for their nudes.

It was July 4 months ago. After the event.

I ask that you give me the benefit of the doubt. The problem of the matter is that Tex should not have lied to begin with. I'm sure we wouldn't be here right now if that was the case.

" Safari Situation "

(Heads up, this segment was written before I broke up with Safari)

The “ Safari Situation “

As I mentioned, I am very close to Safari - Dare I say; Safari is the closest person to me and has been for the past year.

They were aware of this, and took advantage of this. From December 2024, to June 2025, they were incredibly abusive to me. I will not get into the specifics of this, As it is not your business, However I will say a prime example of such occurring was guilting were set on the ideology, "Hey, if I tell Daisy to do this they're gonna do it because they love me, if they don't im gonna tell them to leave!"

When I didn't do the things requested, they would berate me, sometimes blackmail me, and force me to do things, such as self harm. I can confirm this, as some previously affiliated parties let me vent about this abuse.

They took advantage of this fact in a psychotic episode - berating/degrading me as a person if i didnt do everything they said.

And alas, comes this whole spiel.

I do not remember the topic of discussion, and I cannot retrieve it as I've lost access to my Imessage (My ipad is broken, And it did not back up to Icloud.) However, Safari asked me for explicit images of Tex. I expressed discomfort, being visibly grossed out, and even stating such. I remember saying things such as “She is pretty but I don't see her beyond that” and whatnot. Safari pushed more, and more over time, and with them using the tactics I mentioned earlier; I ended up complying.

I remember being in 5th period when this happened, I was incredibly scared. I had to step into the room next door so people didn't see me visibly tearing up.

I made sure, even though I was incredibly weary, to explicitly state "Safari wants to see”.

If you look here, you can see this is a direct admission of me believing they were the same age as me.
(“age range” meaning 15-16)

If they didn't comply, Safari wouldn't have gone further. Safari mainly wanted me, and things out of me. Tex even admits this in an argument about it.

BUT WHY WOULD DAISY SAVE IT???

(Clarifying that it was never saved!)

Safari also told me they, despite doing this, didn't feel anything beyond platonicism. I think that is important to note. With the thought of "exploiting the other party" in mind, you would expect them to be a lot more upfront to me as they usually were, expecting me to keep this information as they expected me to keep everything else. (As in, they wouldn't have been afraid to tell me this with the way they'd already harmed me.)

Tex did comply, though, again with us under the impression they were older than Safari, and the same age as me.

I am absolutely not stating that "13-year-olds can consent." That sentiment has never been expressed by me, and implying that was inherently malicious.

What I am asserting is that even though the situation was highly irresponsible and dangerous, all individuals were fully aware of the nature of the communication. No one was coerced, and Tex was not intentionally deceived or misled in any way.

Nothing was saved, as it was screenshared. I only did what Safari asked. I didn't feel as if there was a choice by this point.

What Safari wanted was not a matter of wanting to exploit someone younger, because we were both under the impression that Tex was the same age as I. There was absolutely no evidence of Safari knowing Tex's age at the time of this happening, either.

Their actions were to harm me. I made it explicitly clear to Tex that Safari was asking for these.

If Tex was harmed (and, evidently it seems she is) then this was not deliberate. It wasn't a "group effort" grooming situation. We both still feel immense guilt knowing she feels this way. I am extremely embarrassed by these circumstances, even if they weren't completely on me. I will give a more in depth apology, at the end.

Fast forward, a month or so later. Me and Safari's relationship was still incredibly abusive, and I was still taking hits. I snapped several times, to no avail. I pretty frequently expressed these feelings, only to be ignored; so it'd result in insults. Still with no reasonable responses.

These are not all of the screenshots at all; they only represent the period after the main event. This unstable behavior persisted for months.

It was at this point, or shortly thereafter, that I left and blocked Safari across most platforms for several weeks; However, I forgot to unblock them on Instagram, which, of course, they exploited to message me.

They went into a schizophrenic breakdown,

They sporadically spewed paragraphs about them being a "pedophile", "groomer", and things similar, even breaking down to their parents about it - However this was not a true statement, and it caused by the episode they were already in for months. As much certainly wasn't caused by the Tex situation. I didn't bring that up until later on.

I will not include images of this, they have expressed immense discomfort, as this is a breach of as I won't excuse this behavior, I will say -

The reason this was said to begin with, is a direct symptom of their (Yes, diagnosed professionally) Paranoid Schizophrenia. Paranoid individuals, during episodes this severe, will convince themselves that people are trying to harm them, or that they are terrible things. It is a little similar to Pedophilic OCD.

For example, I've stated I have Pure-o, which causes me to force myself into believing things, or think of things that are distressing, intrusive, and objectively incorrect. Example - Thoughts regarding family members, and pets. It is not something we deliberately think of, or want to experience. The fine line though, is that our brain is genuinely lying to us. These thoughts are not true, nor are they a reflection of our character.

- Intrusive unwanted sexual thoughts/images/sensations arou but not exclusively one's own child
- Fear that early experiences were si pedophilia (e.g. When I was 10, I hac kissed a 9-year-old, which means I l
- Fear that common childhood sexu a pedophile
- Fear that having been a victim of cl abuse condemns one to become a
- Fear that incidental contact with ch somehow intentional or pleasure-d girl sits in her father's lap while he r shifts her to be more comfortable a in his groin – Did I move her for the p pleasuring myself? he wonders)
- Fear that positive emotions toward be sexual in nature (e.g. a woman f with love for her son, wonders if the romantic or sexual)
- Fear that noticing beauty, cuteness prettiness, etc. in a child is a sign of
- Fear that noticing adult characteris body parts, body positioning, style prepubescent children, pubescent anyone "too young" is an indicator

- False memory obsessions, such as obs concern that a pedophilic act occurred somehow blacked out of memory (e.g. that little boy I walked by earlier and not Why am I wondering?)
- Not fearing being a pedophile but feari presence of intrusive pedophilic though ruin the possibility of being happy or so convert the thinker to become a pedop

Regarding Paranoid Schizophrenic Delusions:

Again, these are not based on reality, and they are not something you believe, or want to act on Paranoid schizophrenia del

- What they are: Paranoid schizo paranoia, delusions, and hallucin
- Delusions: These are persistent, context, they often involve the b conspired against (persecutory grandiosity, misidentification, or
- Hallucinations: These are exper are not there. Auditory hallucinat common.

deep down. It is something that causes you genuine distress, and disgust.

Safari has been to a therapist to manage these thoughts, and these individuals have confirmed they are not a pedophile.

In a fit of blind rage, as this wasn't cleared up previously, I messaged Tex regarding this. I first explained that I left Safari at the time, Then I told Tex falsely, that Safari was planning to put them in harm's way, with no evidence.

Keep in mind, Tex did not clarify her age. It wouldn't have been grooming due to the age gap, but rather because I believed Safari was going to harm her as they did to me. My actions were only out of care. If I was deliberately planning to harm her, I would have tried to get her away from Safari.

During the event where she sent photos of herself, I was completely void of this mindset previously. I only reached this conclusion, due to Safari's sporadic, and false admissions. I truly did not think of such at the moment. I was only afraid Safari would leave me, which is one of my biggest fears.

Tex seemed generally understanding regarding this.

Two days later, when I am trying to heal from the damage Safari caused, I get a long message from Tex. I am still briefly speaking to Safari, And they end up clearing up a bunch of things regarding it. This was including the pedophilia spiel, and the situation regarding Tex - where they admit they took advantage of me in this situation.

i've been trying to wipe that memory because that was actually foul and i'm not gonna blame you for going along with it as much as it made me take it further, you literally tried to stop me a and you were clearly uncomfortable Message...

Notice, again, they don't bring up it's bad because of Tex's age, as we again, were not aware of such. But because this was someone dear to me, I did not wish to sexualize. Forcing me to get images for their own gain, was incredibly destructive.

Consensual, or not, this was still something I did not want to do, and they have admitted to such.

at the time, I didn't believe you really cared for me anymore. However, one thing I did not consent to was sharing that with someone who was planning to groom me. Idea, plan or not, it was very much said to you and you fully know that it was wrong. Yeah perhaps you apologized but that was a shitty ass apology and you never fucking cared because I've heard a lot more than just this instance with stuff similar to this. I do not feel safe around you anymore and I can't feel the same love and care that I used to have for you. I'm not saying it won't come back but it won't come back fo a really long time. I feel used and discarded. I tried my best for you and I was met with nothing at all. You never appreciated me as I appreciated you. You will never love me like I love you. I would like to note, Tex did not write this message solely on her own. Without my knowledge, they had told another individual about this situation. I will give them the alias red.

Tex was obviously very confused by the situation, so they contacted Red regarding this. They explained the situation to Red, and naturally: They thought it was absolutely horrid - However, it was not due to Safari's negligence, due to Tex's alleged real age. Tex had told Red they were 13 multiple times.

Red gave Tex advice on how to write this paragraph.

I responded back sporadically:

heart and soul, i dont do that with alot of people. because i dont care about them.

i cant really talk much but i never used you either, i didnt do anything with those pictures and remember how gross it would seem i kind of deleted it from dms, i genuinely was just curious cuz i needed a reference for agent and i told safari abt it (aga i promise it wasnt in a disgusting wa even he apparently didn't find sexua attraction to it because he considered you a friend, it was more just looking at the raw flesh of another human being, and i appreciated that) and speaking of your other friends, they did that out of malice. i didn't. i didnt do it to use it for anything either. i used it as a reperesentation of my favorite ocs body for a reason. you mean something to me that much. i dont few my friends sexu if i didn't care, i dont know why i would tell you my concerns (whi were honestly impulsive with wh thought it was because he was n planning to groom you he just jok abt it after the fact and he apologized and i took it to heart) try my hardest to get away from why would i purposely try to dist when i felt he'd harmed you? and again, why would i TELL you.

As aforementioned, I'd contacted Safari again. With this, and the idea they felt genuine remorse (which, I do believe they did) I decided to lessen the punishment of them, rather than me, by throwing in something that wasn't true. These were spur of the moment, and not deliberate, repeated lies, as I thought my best friend was going to leave me over something I did not orchestrate or want, knowingly.

Clearing up a few things from this sporadic paragraph:

1. The photos sent weren't deleted, because they were never saved. This wasn't a spur of the moment statement, but rather just misremembering due to the horrid time this confrontation went on. Again, with the amnesia. I confirmed with Safari those photos were not distributed.

2. I do mention Safari making grooming jokes, however these were not serious. As expressed, I'd stated otherwise because I was genuinely under the impression those jokes had undertones due to my own abuse.

3. Agent was not inspired off of Tex. They are the same height, however It is purely coincidental. Agent was created (05/14/25) before the entire ordeal (05/16/25), so this is clearly not true. I stated such to lessen the severity of backlash towards Safari, as I still internally cared about their image more than my own.

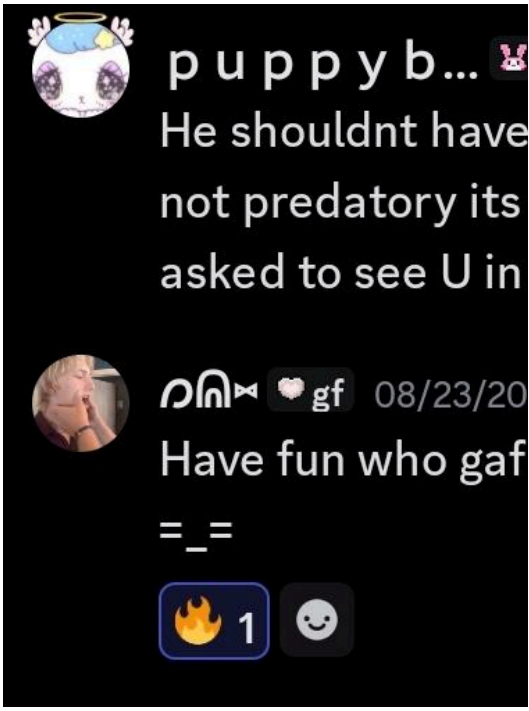
(Evidence Agent + their reference was created before the entire ordeal)

Tex was allowed to be upset, However - to pin this as grooming on my end, is genuinely upsetting considering the context given. I understand the context with Red, as they genuinely believed this was deliberate, and all knowing. The thing that tripped me up was after the ordeal.

This was not the only conversation we had about this. I cleared my head, and we had a proper conversation regarding such contents. Me and Tex were on mutual understanding, and even though she disliked Safari for harming me, She understood she was not deliberately harmed, and were certainly not groomed.



Here, I explicitly make it clear they were not being predatory, but rather negligent of our relationship VIA cheating on me with Tex.

In late September, a few months after this ordeal, I found out the situation had spread to Gutzzl, unknowingly through Red. I was incredibly confused, and upset, as I had cleared up everything.

I lashed out, and blocked her. I sporadically expressed how hurt I was that this spread so widely, With no clarification.

youre also rude in general and then you whine when u cant get anything your way when u dont try to do anything bro u sit and u surround yourself with disgusting people and you want to blame me

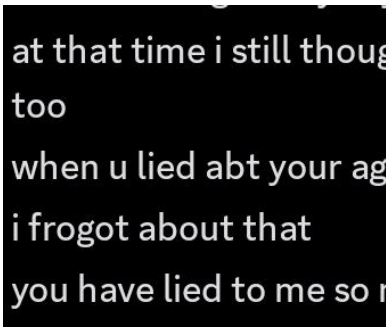
Note, (Obviously, there's a stupid typo) I come out and say I did truly forget she lied about her age.



This was not the reason I broke off our friendship, but it was the pushing point as I took it as malice. I still do not know if what she said came from a place of genuine hurt, or pettiness. Even so, I am incredibly sorry and I have made that clear.

The main reason was that I got sick of straining myself. She didn't listen to me, she didn't want to. It's not something I should have the responsibility of. I'm not even in a good mental spot to take care of someone else, so how could I parent another person at this time? I did not even recognize I would need to, again, with her lying about her age.

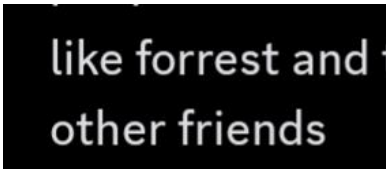
As much as I loved her, our reactions were making me more and more uncomfortable. She is allowed to be hurt, but I am also allowed to be hurt. I am even more distraught, she is pinning this as grooming, yet doesn't call out the people doing exactly that.



Forrest is associated with parties that distribute genuine, in real life dark web CSEM. I cannot find the conversation, however I beg Tex to leave him, to no avail. I will not blame Tex for this, as they would've been in danger. I still stayed when they came out about that.

Temple is a 17 year old who is in a toxic relationship with Tex. They claimed he was not grooming them.

They first agreed that it wasn't grooming, but the fact I wasn't unblocking them at the time eventually made her have a complete dissociation from me, and our friendship as a whole.

All I needed was a break. This was the week I'd been having seizures frequently due to stress, and they were aware of this. I even stated in my sporadic “parting” message I would likely unblock her.

I do not blame her for mutually being sporadic, however claiming for these interactions to be grooming on my end (Not even Safari's, which would make more sense though they are still not a predator) made the situation blow up. Tex also ended up making merely false claims in individual DM's to take me down.

For example, another party besides Red, who has already been mentioned in this document at least even you thought she was 16 no?

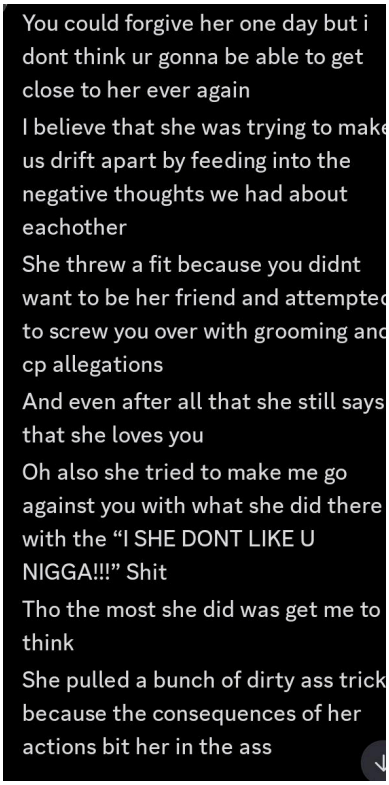
NEW MESSAGES
9:26 PM
Yeah
I was shocked when i found out she was younger



You could forgive her one day but i dont think ur gonna be able to get close to her ever again
I believe that she was trying to make us drift apart by feeding into the negative thoughts we had about eachother
She threw a fit because you didnt want to be her friend and attempted to screw you over with grooming and cp allegations
And even after all that she still says that she loves you
Oh also she tried to make me go against you with what she did there with the “I SHE DONT LIKE U NIGGA!!!” Shit
Tho the most she did was get me to think
She pulled a bunch of dirty ass trick because the consequences of her actions bit her in the ass

Again, adding on false claims with no evidence if you believe you were already victimized with enough proof, does not make sense.

A little later, I unblocked Tex. I wanted to clear up this conflict fair and square, as Gutzzl, and Red had been insisting I groomed her. The conversation is obviously below.

i cannot explain how hurt i feel. i have been hurt prior to this as well. ive been wanting to distance for a while, because of the people you put above me. you have not changed in years, and it was bringing me down. other people have told me of such as we you speak to people who are still genuine racist nazis, you spoke to forrest for ages after being notified of a individual who distributed real life csem, you still spoke to lydia, who was a lolicon, and a genuine practicing zoophile.

how can you pin me as a groomer, but not them? especially temple. i'm not dating you. i didn't date you knowing you were underage, after lying to me.

i wanted you to leave these people for months. you wouldnt, so i gave up its hard to help it, nd i know because ive been in that spot, but it came to the point you were making it my fault i was uncomfortable. you cannot cling to me and claim im your favorite person, yet put these disgusting creatures above me.

back to the age thing - you lied to

back to the age thing - you lied to again, with the boyfriend thing

I would like to mention, I genuinely did not remember bringing this up.

However, this supports my point more. The fact I vented about it to my only support system, (Meaning they knew of this before and didn't consider it grooming) yet they are still the ones who called me out.

Also, they claim that Safari masturbated to such, when this is not true? It literally says it right there? Conversation with red

In these last two screenshots, Tex indirectly admits she did all of this because I blocked her.

Exhibit A.

Tactics debunk

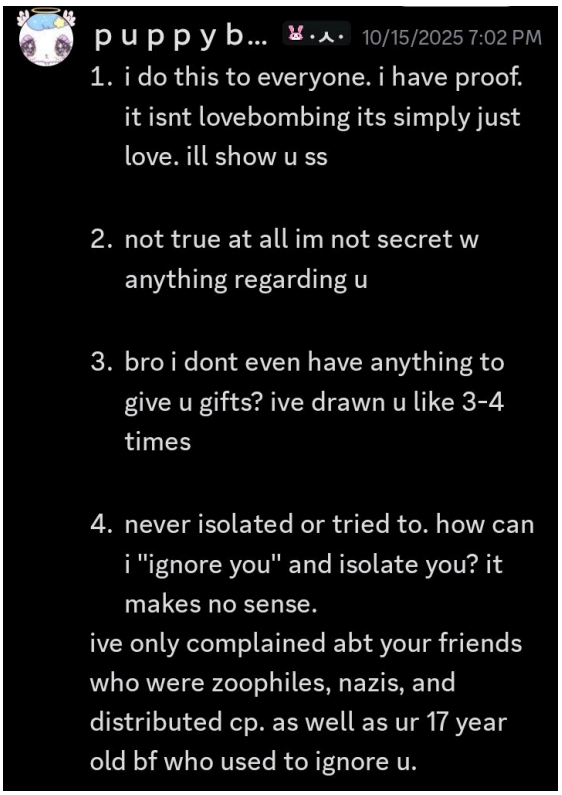
Rebuttaling the “proof” of grooming

As stated before; grooming is deliberate, and planned out. Me being an unconsenting party of my partner's abuse, as well as Tex hiding extremely important information 3 years too late, is not my fault.

Having referenced a grooming signal list, I have not reached a single marking.

Interaction with the groomer

- Love bombing and excessive compliments: The online person offers intense, frequent compliments and attention, making the victim feel special or "loved" very quickly.
- Insists on secrecy: The groomer will ask the victim to keep their communication a secret, claiming that others won't understand their "special" connection.
- Unexplained gifts: The victim starts receiving mysterious gifts, money, or digital currency from someone they met online.
- Attempts to isolate: The groomer will undermine the victim's other relationships by saying things like "no one understands you like I do".
- Pushes for privacy: They may try to move the conversation from public platforms to more private spaces, like direct messaging apps.
- Inappropriate or sexual language: The victim may begin using sexualized language that is not age-appropriate. The groomer may also send explicit images to desensitize the victim.



puppyb... 10/15/2025 7:02 PM
1. i do this to everyone. i have proof. it isnt lovebombing its simply just love. ill show u ss
2. not true at all im not secret w anything regarding u
3. bro i dont even have anything to give u gifts? ive drawn u like 3-4 times
4. never isolated or tried to. how can i "ignore you" and isolate you? it makes no sense.
ive only complained abt your friends who were zoophiles, nazis, and distributed cp. as well as ur 17 year old bf who used to ignore u.

Tex responded with this.

gf 10/15/2025 7:04 PM
1. It is love bombing not love ???
2. You got mad when I told others
3. It's still gifts...?
4. You pushed me to not talk to friends who deeply care about me. I'm not friends with Nazis. I'm not friends with zoophiles or any of that . He doesn't ignore me at all
5. You've known my age since January 2025 and have made jokes since then

I responded again.

puppyb... 10/15/2025 7:05 PM
1. it is not lovebombing if it was genhine and i did it all the time
2. no the fuck i didnt wheres your evidence
3. i was your friend thats what friends do? it only happened in like 6 month intervals too
4. this is not true lol you were friends w disgusting people
5. not only are jokes are jokes , i did not know you were 16 still. the realization did not set in bc of how long you lied for

Regarding lovebombing - I do not do this. The love I express outside of my partners is always platonic unless stated otherwise, and I make it clear. Me showing care and love excessively, is not lovebombing, Especially when it isn't directed to one person, but rather everyone I value.

"Love bombing" someone throughout your entire friendship is just being an affectionate person. For the way I interacted with Tex to be considered lovebombing it would have had to begin suddenly, or end suddenly. If my affection had ever died down, it doesn't mean I felt less. I have always said I love you to others unless they express disinterest, discomfort, or I am upset at them.

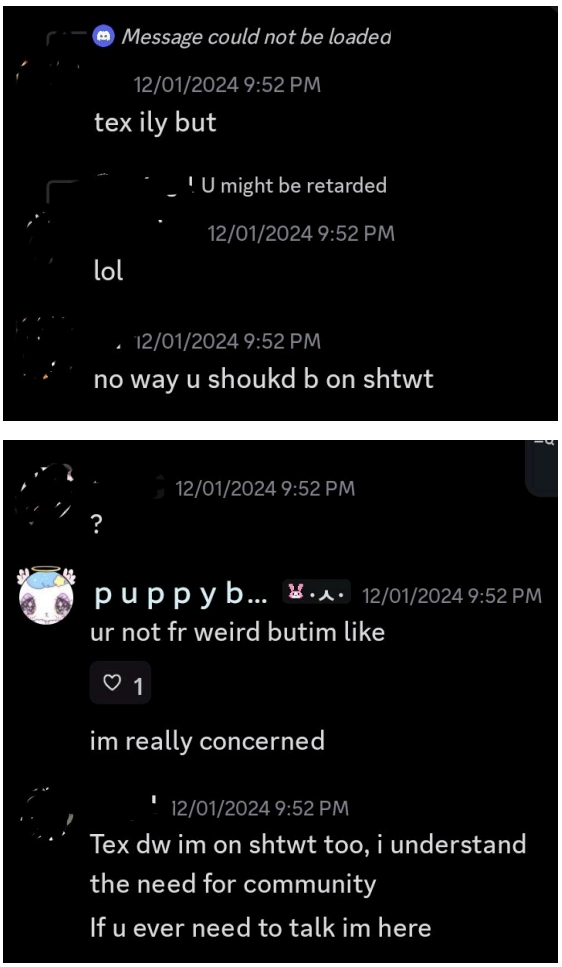
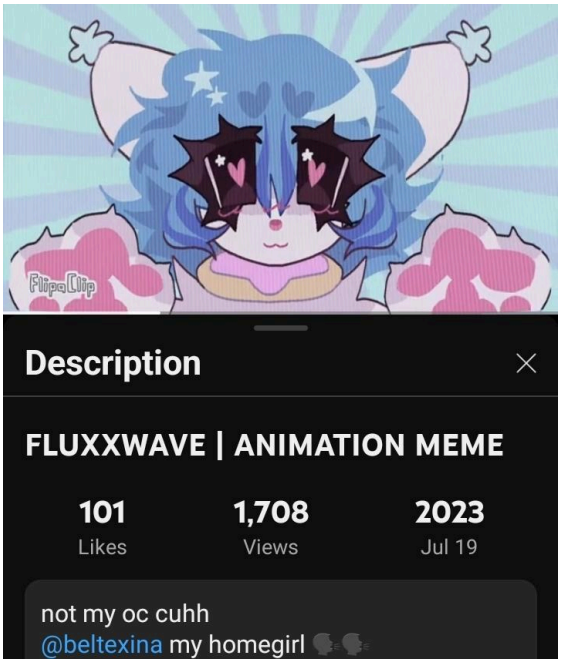
The second symptom, which is secrecy, just had not happened whatsoever. Everyone I know knows Tex, and I always spoke of her. Especially in concern.

Conversations where multiple people showed concern for Tex (Excluding the claim of secrecy, because obviously this isn't secret.)



The gift giving claim is just as silly as the first one. I don't have the resources to give much, but when I do, I draw art.

I don't have many examples, but I do have this gift I made for her in 2023.



https://youtu.be/NnSMRlr5x_M?si=xt9m0Sjy_4WAbqWQ

Tex also was the one giving gifts to me more frequently, So it's a confusing, and frankly hypocritical duality.

Again, There was no Isolation whatsoever. There had only been discussion of me trying to get them away from the disgusting parties I mentioned. Even while we were arguing, I brought up the fact her boyfriend was 17 turning 18, and exploiting her. She claimed he wasn't grooming her, and loved her. This isn't the only instance, however.

Me attempting to get Tex away from harmful parties, Of which she responded with aggressiveness or dismissiveness.

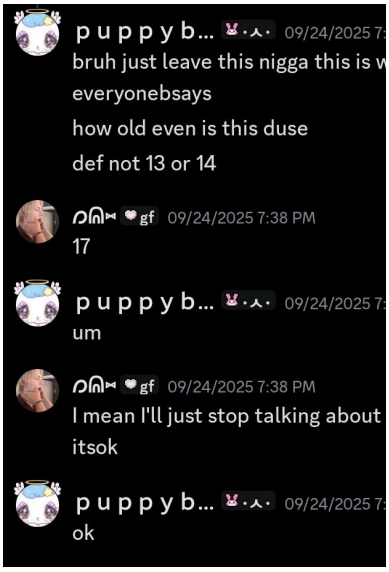
Just be careful and keep clean

These are all very clear instances of me attempting to help her, and get Tex away from disgusting people. Tex never, ever listened. Claiming I contributed to this is incredibly contradictory, and even hypocritical as they still talk to some of these individuals today.

I showed this already, but the last instance of this is me getting frustrated that they, once again, are in a relationship with someone 4 years older than them. Again, I am not blaming Tex for such, however you cannot blame me either for getting sick. It was genuinely impacting my mental health to have to try to save her 24/7.



Last on the checklist, Is sexual language, Or normalizing the victim to sexual language. Tex has claimed this is true because i “groomed her into lolicon/zoophilia” However, This is not true.

I have looked through the logs across Tex's old accounts, and there is shown to be no malicious, or sexual discussion of such.

Clearly, Something isn't adding up.

Let me state - Despite the fact that nobody was groomed, what

Her also admitting Angie, one of the peers i mentioned harmed her earlier, got her happened was not okay. I was not aware that teenagers exchanging explicit photos to "consenting" parties was a crime.

Do keep in mind though, nobody into zoophilia. I obviously criticized such.

would get in trouble for these actions, as technically, both parties cannot consent.

The laws also vary by state.

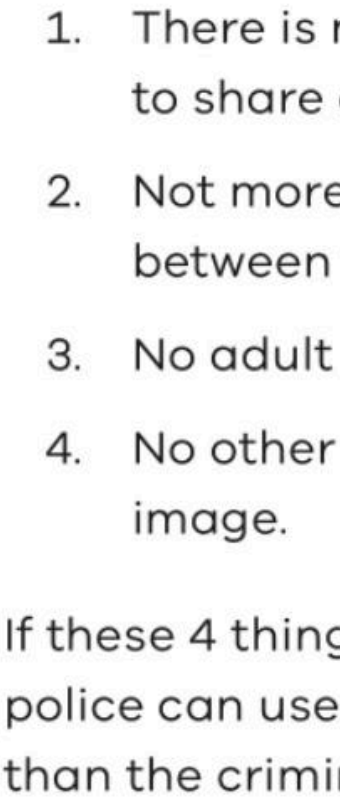
Fact checking, In Safari's country, and state, what happened would not be considered illegal.



For Tex's state, I believe it would still not be considered illegal, as their state doesn't even have sexting laws.

Tex would, however get in trouble for lying about their age whether cleared up or not. (Not prosecuted, but it would result in extreme consequences.) You cannot deliberately prove either of us knew their age, especially as Tex theirself did not notify Safari.

On my end, it would not be illegal. Asking for explicit photos, same age or not, is considered a crime. This situation is different however.

I would not be charged as I was coerced, and I am able to prove such. Coercion is a negation of consent, which still implies it was still never agreed upon. If i was not coerced, due to all both being under the age of consent, no prosecution would take place. Only an online safety class, or an order to get offline.

No, this isn't law morality. I am only stating this because I have been reported to the authorities. Ironically; I am the only party that would not get in trouble.

Some individuals have gotten angered for bringing up the law, however if you've reported me for this, it is hypocritical to get mad at me when it was brought up on the other end.

(And if you’re curious, yes, the police are aware of what happened. I will get into this later, but by court of law I am innocent.)

What happened was still not okay. I cannot see myself willingly committing these actions on my own accord. Safari has shown remorse for such as well, and it will not repeat. That is for them to state, though.

This was infact, just a case of teens being irresponsible. The main problem lies with the coercion of me, and Tex convincing the both of us they were the same age/older.

Teenagers exchange these things all the time, which is why they don't get in trouble. The law is set for safety and assurance that children will not be harmed online.

This situation is a good example of why you should not do this, whether you are the same age or not.

As for safari, they are getting help for what they've done to me, and their extreme paranoia. Safari has told their parents, and their therapists/psychologists what they've done to me, and has gone through Cognitive Behavioral Therapy. They have also gotten medicated, and have shown incredibly significant change. It is up to me to forgive her, and I have. It isn't your business.

Safari has also apologized to me. They offered an apology to Tex, and she declined because Tex didn't care about the situation, or find it malicious.

All I can do is apologize, and ensure safety online. I am not a predator however, nor am I in possession, nor was I even in possession of illegal material.

To end this off:

To Tex, as I oblige to not contact you further; despite how I feel about all of this, I want you to know that I am still genuinely remorseful about all of this.

I recognize and will not invalidate your hurt feelings. What happened should never have occurred, at all, and I will be taking precautions so that it doesn't happen with anyone else. I did care about you, and I still do. I hope you can find a safe path to recovery.

I still think about you often - both in positive, and negative connotations; but the fact remains that I don’t regret meeting you. You did genuinely bring joy to my life. This was more a learning experience than anything.

I feel nothing but disappointment about the fact you view me in this way, and I hope with time, it changes and you realize I genuinely did not mean to harm you. I certainly did not, and never would have manipulated you either. That was the last thing on my mind.

Please take care of yourself. I can’t make you take a break, and I know it’s always been hard; but I am certain that you need one. Even just for a little. Everyone in this situation needs reflecting.

Focus on your art, and your tarots. Do something great with yourself and your talents. I truly mean this. I harbor no hatred toward you and never will. My hope is that you don't feel any hatred toward me, either.

Though this is quite bittersweet, I cannot, in good conscience or maturity, end this without a proper conclusion. It feels akin to finally shutting a locked diary.

Since this incident, I have distanced myself from Safari. I am still recovering from the abuse I personally experienced. Again, if Tex personally feels harmed in any way, I pray they can do the same. It’s never too late, like we both said to each other, yeah?

Bless your soul, genuinely. Don’t mean to get too emotional on a google document, haha.

(I also hope this doesn’t sound or look God awful. It comes from a genuine place in my heart.)

Safari's behalf

Accountability

Firstly, I'll address the relevance of my presence in daisy's life. Considering the things i am about to admit to doing (primarily to daisy himself) naturally most would expect me to be a far distance from daisy, but with consideration of my progress with mental health and impulse control, daisy has made a conscious decision to continue our relationship in stress that i would maintain steady improvement and right my own wrongs. This is daisy's decision, not the reader's, not anybody but daisy's. Daisy was the target of my manipulation, other parties were not even brought into contact with me nor was anybody but daisy methodically and deliberately taken advantage of directly by me in the past.

It should be known that this is primarily one of my many wrongdoings, and a result of my previous extreme manipulation tactics. I do not believe daisy should be viewed as a necessarily willing, and especially eager participant in this situation, but much rather an uncomfortable, practically forced (trust me, I was very much there) middle party, with daisy even having encouraged me upon the first multiple requests not to request these things (likely knowing I wouldn't allow him to comfortably deny the request if I had continued, which I still did) and communicating in what I believe is a pretty clearly uncomfortable and hesitant way. It was my coercion that pushed daisy to request anything from tex, not daisy's own volition, and especially not for financial gain. (wherever that claim came from, perhaps prim?)

I'd also like to mention that the age gap between me and tex at the time was nowhere near predatory. I had, in fact, believed tex was older than me. Even if tex's supposed real age had been mentioned prior, I have no memory of this being brought up, and actually continued under the belief tex was 16 until the recent resurfacing of events. I'm even more disgusted than before. As anyone would (hopefully) be.

Daisy had not assisted in predatory activity, tex did in fact have complete knowledge as to where these images were going, and (although these images never should have been exchanged and no parties involved can genuinely consent) no predatory or deceptive behaviour had gone on whatsoever.

To all parties involved;
I am genuinely sorry for my erratic behaviour. Things did not need to be this way, and if it weren't for my selfish decisions and the effects they had on the people who mean the most to me, they certainly wouldn't have. I want to take accountability for the majority of what went on. I feel immense guilt and an extreme sense of depersonalization almost nightly, and I am making a genuine, active effort to improve, and I have made significant progress.

Where I was misled

I'll state this as firmly as I can; I did not have prior knowledge of tex's genuine age, I was under the same impression as countless other people. None of what was instigated had been under any sort of belief that tex was even my same age, let alone younger than me at all.

I have genuinely been accused of pedophilia privately (now extremely publicly) by parties who, albeit not knowing I would hear about this, now have uncomfortable levels of knowledge about my intrusive thoughts and paranoia induced by my schizophrenia well exceeding what I am comfortable with (not to victimize myself, but to say this shouldn't be such a public spectacle as it doesn't relate to the situation at hand when given the genuine context). This situation is not a product of anything I have previously said about myself or others in psychotic states, nor is it an example of intentionally predatory behaviour, even if this admittedly took place at an apex for my mental decline. I can confidently say that there is absolutely no evidence in existence that can imply otherwise, and you're not necessarily just taking my word for it.

An example of tex stating she was turning sixteen on the 30th of November. I (safari) was 14 years of age when this conversation took place. Daisy was 15 at the time. The age gap between daisy and tex would be virtually non-existent if tex hadn't been lying, and tex would have been older than me.

As can be seen in daisy's segment, upon apologising to daisy after being confronted of my actions neither I nor daisy mentioned anything remotely relative to or implying that I was conscious of tex's age even long after the incident, as I still believed tex was in fact older than I was.

Sidenote: tex denied an apology. I obliged as to not contact her, presuming she did not want to be contacted as well as being under the impression she believed I did those things out of malice and may be genuinely afraid of me as daisy was.

(Daisy note: I mention this in my segment as well.)

Winter Situation

Ivyfinite Situation

To start off, I'd like to give a little context and background regarding those involved. Ivyfinite, who I will refer to as Blake/Winter, is 14, turning 15 in December. I again am 16, turning 17 in November - making this a 2 year and one month gap in age. We would be in the same high school class. Gutzzl/Moss is 17, and turned 17 this year.

Now that this is known, I will explain the situation.

Keep in mind, I do not have every screenshot regarding the conflict, as they removed me from every group. It is included in their document, though.

I recommend you read the screenshots in their document along with mine. Admittedly, I'm not too bothered to scramble for evidence for this defense.

CUPIDITES LIES (unfinished doc)

I was in a group chat (Bunionganggg) with several individuals. Of these people, Gutzzl and Blake were included. These were the only people I'd been talking to daily, as I was isolated because of the yummicactus situation.

On September 21st, (09/21/25) we got into a conflict regarding proship, and proship content. My point of view was simply that I didn't care. Nothing more, nothing less. I expressed such, as I'd had a past of being exploited and raped in real life. Me being a victim of these circumstances made me develop an inability to compare fictional instances to real life instances. I explicitly stated that I did not care about shipping discourse. It was petty, stupid, and childish to me. I expressed being uncomfortable around both proshippers, and anti-shippers as they all have their own respective flaws.

(They also literally include this in the document.)

09/08/2025 11:21 AM i dont hang around ppl who do it for fun it makes me weirded out i dont think theyre always predators but me personally i dont like it it makes me so fucking uncomfortable

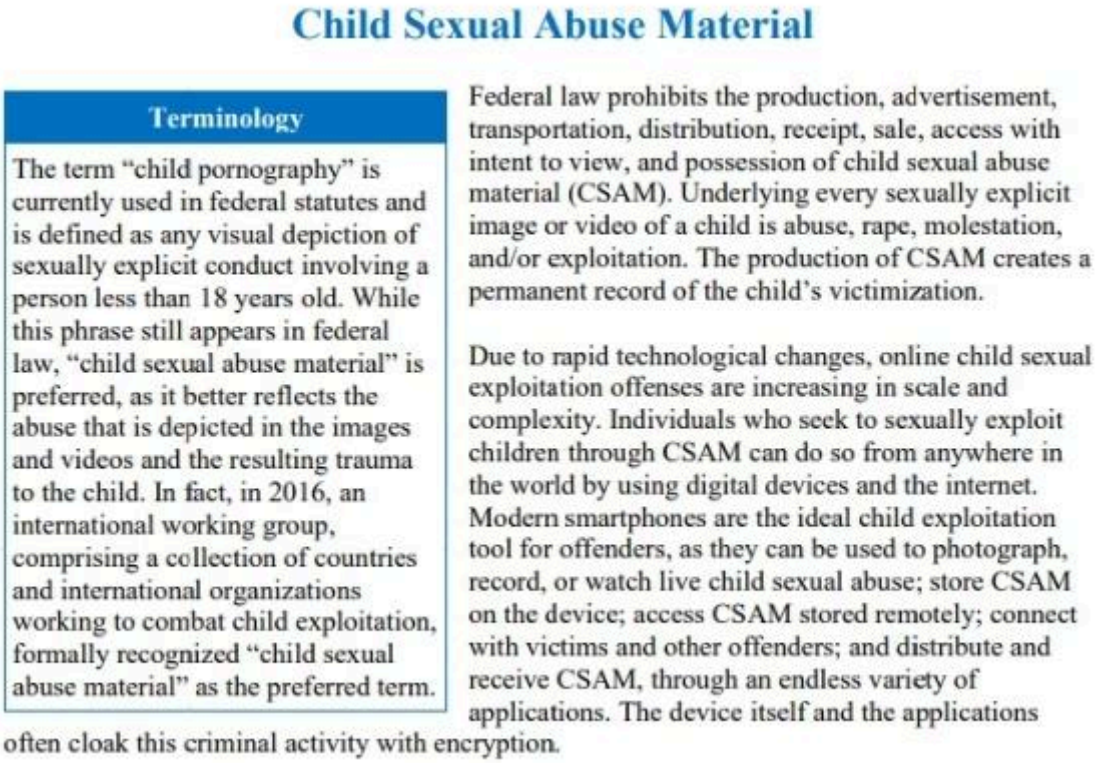
What sparked this conflict to begin with was a popular furry artist (obviously supporting proship) being exposed for possession of real life CSEM. There was also a separate artist that happened to be my mutual brought up. This artist drew knots, but apologized for this and has not done so in years. There was also Nyanwolf, who was exposed for liking feral art. Gutzzl made the point that these people were irredeemable, as fictional depictions of paraphilias (zoophilia, pedophilia, necrophilia) were the same as actual, real life cases.

I was very upset by this. I explained the following: CSEM by definition is exploitation of a real child. CSAM is the abuse of a real child. A fictional character can abuse another character, and a fictional character can be abused in a fictional setting - but this does not contribute to or translate to actual cases of real life child, or hell–even animal abuse.



Child Sexual Abuse Material

Terminology

The term "child pornography" is currently used in federal statutes and is defined as any visual depiction of sexually explicit conduct involving a person less than 18 years old. While this phrase still appears in federal law, "child sexual abuse material" is preferred, as it better reflects the abuse that is depicted in the images and videos and the resulting trauma to the child. In fact, in 2016, an international working group, comprising a collection of countries and international organizations working to combat child exploitation, formally recognized "child sexual abuse material" as the preferred term.

Federal law prohibits the production, advertisement, transportation, distribution, receipt, sale, access with intent to view, and possession of child sexual abuse material (CSAM). Underlying every sexually explicit image or video of a child is abuse, rape, molestation, and/or exploitation. The production of CSAM creates a permanent record of the child's victimization.

Due to rapid technological changes, online child sexual exploitation offenses are increasing in scale and complexity. Individuals who seek to sexually exploit children through CSAM can do so from anywhere in the world by using digital devices and the internet. Modern smartphones are the ideal child exploitation tool for offenders, as they can be used to photograph, record, or watch live child sexual abuse; store CSAM on the device; access CSAM stored remotely; connect with victims and other offenders; and distribute and receive CSAM, through an endless variety of applications. The device itself and the applications often cloak this criminal activity with encryption.

The general argument relating to proshipping and content similar isn't regarding whether it is CSEM, but rather whether it romanticizes such things. By law, and fact, fictional depictions of or even forms of media romanticizing paraphilias are not inherently illegal. They are also not inherently associated with genuinely illegal content including real life exploitation.

Comparing fictional depictions of these things to real life occurrences and examples of them is disrespectful to victims, such as myself. My CSEM was placed in a telegram folder by my groomer without my knowledge. Obviously, I am going to be a little offended if I see some sexualised art of an underage anime girl being compared to my real life experiences and emotions, emotions that this aforementioned anime girl cannot feel, which is an objective fact regardless of how gross, immoral, weird, objectionable or practically criminal you believe that content is.

Same with feral porn. I was forced to watch content involving animals IRL, by people far older than me. It is very hard to see similarities in fictional aspects, given I was a victim to seeing the opposite.

Nobody defended the distribution of either. We all were on the same page, *except for gutzzl.

Me, Blake, Chip (14) and Apple (16) were on the same ground. Gutzzl, Melvin (17) and Leaf (17) were on the contrary.

I apologized to Gutzzl in this groupchat, for misunderstanding my perspective. I am also just now seeing this, but she claims I “guilt-tripped” her because I was paranoid she hated me for our conversation. (???)

I apologized to two other individuals in case they misunderstood my point and they accepted this apology. My views are never in ill will or bad faith. My past experiences simply contribute to the way I think about these topics. I never want to make anyone uncomfortable and I make this clear. Nobody has to agree with me. It's just frustrating to have conflicting views, but that's all. I have always been open to different perspectives, especially from those who have experienced grooming as I did.

hey dude, you probably need a break so respond or interact whenever but just checking up,, i genuinely hope youre not uncomfortable with the conversation we had. i promise it was all in good faith, and i just wanted to see your view, and share mine. it doesn't mean im downright correct, im not all knowing god. i just share what i think. i dont like making my friends uncomfortable or feel unsafe, and know i will always respect you, and your views, i love you to bits and i pray to god you don't view me any lower, i just word things really badly alot.
please take care my friend

I wasn't mad literally at all the only point I was "upset" (which isn't even the right word) is when Clancy said my take was retarded when my take is cp is bad 😭😭 but I'm not mad, genuinely upset, uncomfortable etc MUCH LOVE I LOVE U

I also apologized to Gutzzl/Moss herself.

[redacted] 09/08/2025 7:47 PM

I know this conversation was hours ago (I just woke up not even a few minutes ago) but I hope you didn't take what I said to offense I just took it a different way and I care about [redacted] alot, I care about all my friends in that groupchat and I don't hate you at all I love you daisy

I also got emotional over it and cried because I just didn't want [redacted] to be hurt or worse be in bad environments again because I care about her and she's so young and people her age get influenced easily so I'm a bit protective on that

I took what you said differently and I'm sorry if I came off mean or anything like that I wasn't trying too and I got overwhelmed because of it

I think having disagreements is totally fine it doesn't ruin anything between me and yous friendship I love you despite our disagreements because everyone will naturally disagree on stuff and not think the same way

And I also cried bc I thought I was gonna lose you over a disagreement

After this (?) Gutzzl had pinged everyone in the group chat, exclaiming that she was uncomfortable with the discussion of sexual topics due to the age gaps of people in the group. This was completely reasonable, but the discussion was not sexual whatsoever. I don't remember all, but I do remember mentioning my experiences with assault that caused my mechanisms. I cannot say this for a fact though because I have no access to these conversations. Take what I am saying with a grain of salt.

I can assure you though, these conversations were not intentionally inappropriate. Most of it was just “girl” talk, or edgy sex jokes. Something that most teenagers indulge in.

I remember being frustrated due to her vague wording, and her not telling us immediately when she was uncomfortable. I expressed this to her. We argued for about 10 minutes, then I apologized, and cut it off. This was in fact miscommunication though. It was not handled the best.

I also didn't understand the age argument at the time, because nobody's age was clarified directly. I had known that Gutzzl and Blue were 17, Blake was 14, and that Magenta was 14 because they told us. I did not know that Purple was about to turn 18 though. Nor that Magenta turned 14 this year.

If I was told this previously, I do apologize - but I only remember it being brought up after the conflict.

Gutzzl, and Blue were not almost 18 as claimed though. They still have an entire year, and so do I. This makes all of us (from my knowledge) have a two year age gap based on what I was told.

You can be uncomfortable and express such without making everyone else uncomfortable. We all collectively agreed Gutzzl should've expressed discomfort without bringing up my age. I am quite literally younger than Gutzzl.

Apple expressing discomfort because of Gutzzl's wording

Blake/Winter DM'd me and expressed frustration with Gutzzl and Purple. They exclaimed they wanted to switch to a group chat with our other friend Chip, and I agreed as I was frustrated as well.

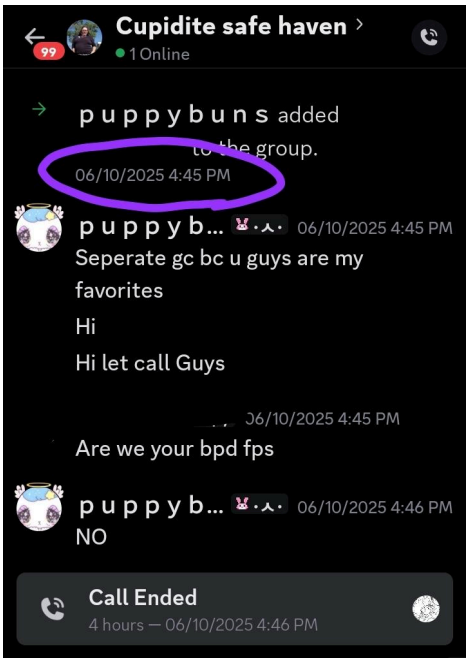
I did as they requested, and moved to a group chat that already existed with me, Blake, and Apple prior.

Gutzzl first uses this as a point of me grooming Blake - Isolation.

This first off, makes no sense due to this group chat being created prior.



(I also did not name it “Cupidite Safe Haven”. Teal did, it was an inside joke for VC.)

I would also like to mention that Blake asked for us to move back to this group chat first.

We both agreed upon inviting Chip, as we were frustrated we couldn't reach a mutual conclusion with the others. I asked if I was able to invite Magenta. Teal and Blake agreed.

I will note - I did believe that Chip was born the same year as Blake. I did not know they turned 14 this year. I believed they were turning 15, as Blake is. I should have clarified with Chip. This was irresponsible on my end, and I apologize.

No sexual discussions with them went on regardless, that would have been out of character morally for me. Only in a neutral, assertive (as in debating), or educational context.

We were talking about the situation when Blake brought up the fact that they drew knots. I expressed I had done the same in the past.

Me and Blake had an entire conversation on how we weren't attracted to each other, and how we were talking about these things neutrally. (Need I add, it's because I'm black. I told them I didn't find interest in them whatsoever because they were ginger, as a joke)

In this timeframe, Gutzzl sent me a long paragraph explaining their views on porn, and talking about it with friends.

HUH LET ME R4AD
IM SORRY I GENUINELY CANT REPLT TO THIS

I did not respond, which I admit wasn't the most mature. I expressed it was too long, (with it literally filling up 6 pages of my screen) However this is not a good reason to not listen to your friend's views. After this conflict, during the Tex situation I apologized for such negligence. I explained why I held the views I did, with her response being another rebuttal. It seemed useless to try and respond to begin with, due to her strong views. She admitted she was trying to force her views on us.

I will also bring up another point - them saying it enabled Winter's views on fictional NSFW feral art and romanticizing the fact Winter was groomed into it; If this is true, then I literally had no knowledge. Winter themselves stated they only drew that content because they saw furries online doing it.

I do not blame Gutzzl for her views, as she has a history of harmful people exposing her to these things. I do not like how she does not listen to others opinions on it because of these experiences. It feels very disheartening to be labelled a predator, or to be labelled with a literal paraphilia due to me simply not caring about such topics.

What I believed was not affecting my life, and it still is not. It is not something I think of on a daily basis.

I was on a completely separate page with her views on the age gap point though.

No, a two year age gap relationship is not grooming. It can play a factor in those cases, but there was no abuse going on. The maturity difference is not gigantic, and there was no power dynamic. We considered each other friends and nothing more. There was absolutely no sexual or romantic interest mutually.

She brought up the fact she wouldn't even do the things I did with someone one year younger, showing bias. To this day, Gutzzl still believes that two year age gaps are inappropriate.

Reminder, that groomer primarily focuses on the action.

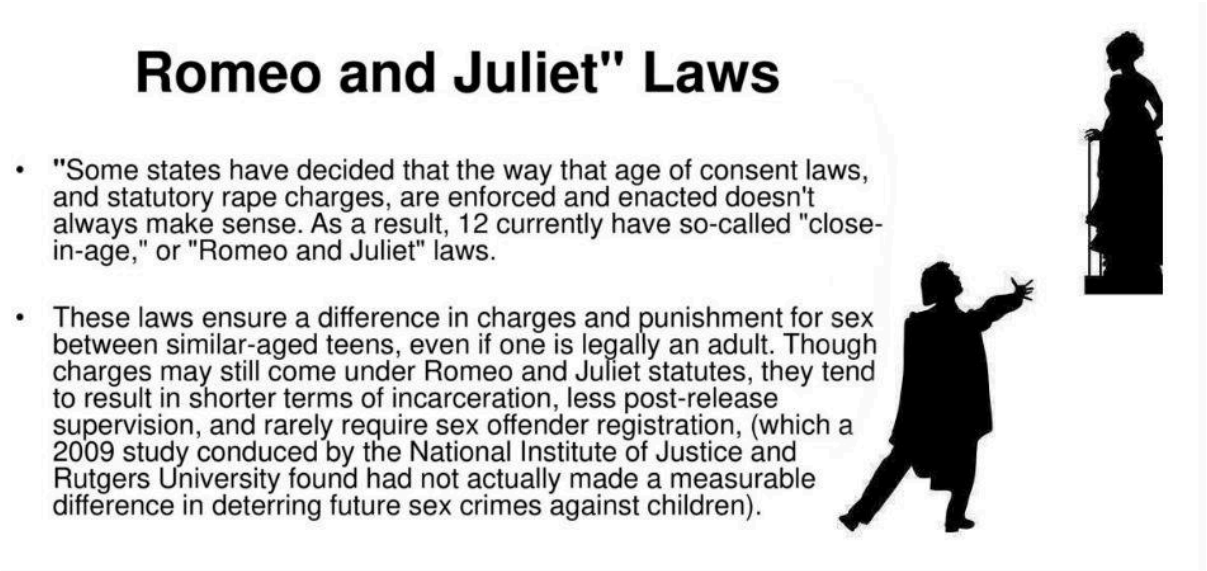
Legal Wise...

Most states (including ours) recognize that small age gaps between minors are not the same as exploitation. This is why they have close-in-age exemptions, often called Romeo and Juliet laws

These laws exist because teenagers often form relationships naturally within their friend group (for example, 14-16 or 15–17, Me and Blake's age gap)

The goal of the law is to punish exploitation, not normal relationships between peers close in age.

These laws prevent either party from being labeled a “sex offender” or “predator” when both are minors acting without coercion or manipulation.



Romeo and Juliet" Laws
"Some states have decided that the way that age of consent laws, and statutory rape charges, are enforced and enacted doesn't always make sense. As a result, 12 currently have so-called "close-in-age," or "Romeo and Juliet" laws.
These laws ensure a difference in charges and punishment for sex between similar-aged teens, even if one is legally an adult. Though charges may still come under Romeo and Juliet statutes, they tend to result in shorter terms of incarceration, less post-release supervision, and rarely require sex offender registration, (which a 2009 study conduced by the National Institute of Justice and Rutgers University found had not actually made a measurable difference in deterring future sex crimes against children).

Ethical Perspective

A two-year gap between minors (EX: 13 and 15, or 15 and 17) usually means both people are in the same or very similar stages of emotional and cognitive development.

People in this age also share the same social environments. Like I stated before, me and Blake would be in the same high school. People our age will talk about these subjects. It is a part of our natural development.

Age gaps like this lack the power dynamics that make grooming or manipulation possible. Ethically, what makes a relationship predatory isn’t age alone - it’s intent and power.

Blake has also expressed being aware of this.

Gutzzl had even shown pornographic material to them jokingly/satirically in the past. I am NOT accusing Gutzzl of anything predatory, by the way. It's clear with their blatant disgust of this they had no ill will; But by their definition of grooming - they would have the same label as me. It is only hypocritical. Joking exposure and joking discussion is still exposure.

I am not defending these instances, but they were not predatory or grooming. The discussion was mutual, and I would argue it wasn't even sexual. Nobody expressed sexual interest to any party, only interest in conversation due to the circumstances.

A few more things before I end this off,

Gutzzl has accused me of blackmailing Blake, due to me posting screenshots of them saying racist things against black people on my community posts.

As much as this wasn't the best option, It was not blackmail. I did not deliberately threaten to expose this information. I simply just posted it. I was frustrated that a trusted friend went behind my back and was working with two individuals that have harmed me in the past.

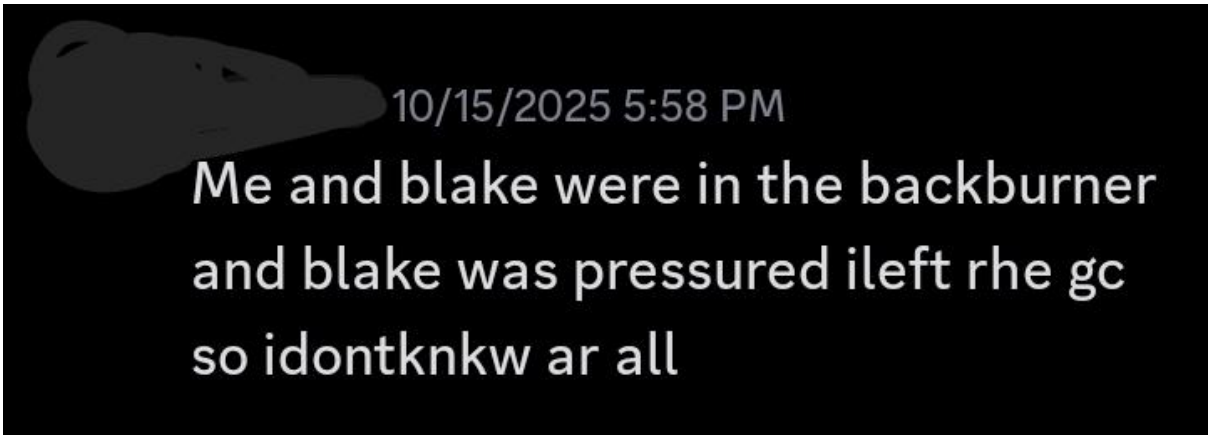
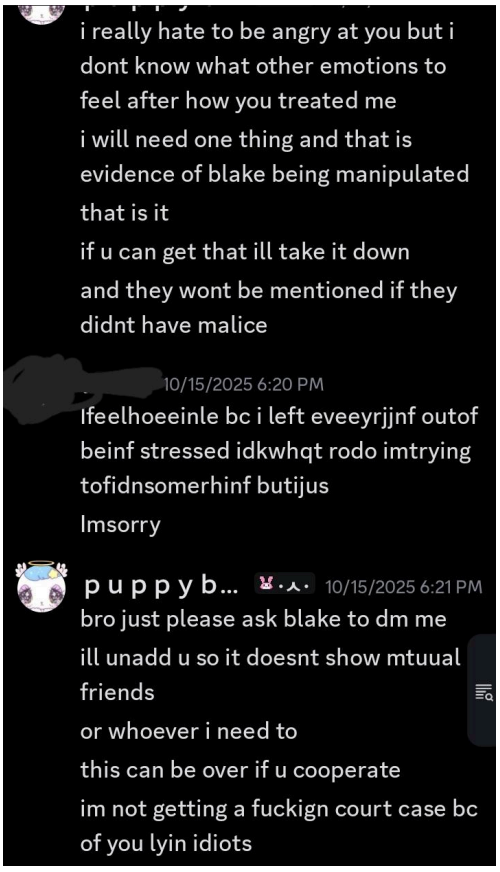
Chip messaged me, begging me to take the posts down. I rightfully refused. In response, Chip lied and claimed that Blake was being manipulated, and guilt tripped to do this.



Obviously I would offer to take down my posts if they were manipulated, because that would mean it wasn't out of their own will. This is not blackmail.

I was just trying to see if one of my friends was turning on me again.



i really hate to be angry at you but i dont know what other emotions to feel after how you treated me

They came out and said they lied because they were scared.

I will still admit, this entire situation was incredibly irresponsible. Moving forwards, I will make sure to take the necessary precautions so that this doesn't happen again.

I again, am not a groomer though. I did not pressure anyone into anything either. If they were uncomfortable, I'd wish for them, or anyone else to speak up next time. I make it very clear that my last intention is to harm others.

And to clarify, I am not a proshipper. I am still neutral and I always will be. This discourse is not something I want to be involved in whatsoever.

Leaking these opinions knowing it was something strictly confidential, is not a good look. I feel quite embarrassed I have to tell everyone I was raped 600 times to not be called a pedophile or zoophile for not caring about people taboo fictional interests. I am 16. (17 now) My opinions will change with time.

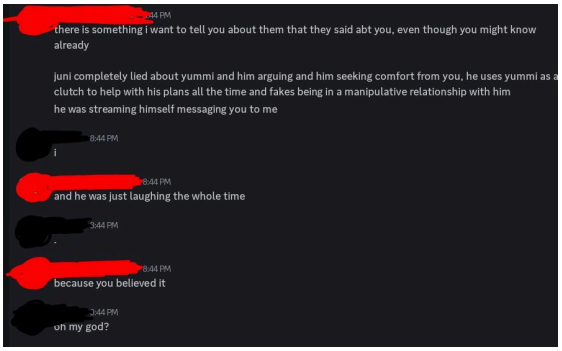
Juni Situation

I was going to write an entire segment regarding this, however this is after my exposure to the Juni and Yummi document. Juni has admitted she knows she wasn't manipulated, faked being abused, and that Yummi knew about it the entire time.



there is something i want to tell you about them that they said abt you, even though you might know already juni completely lied about yummi and him arguing and him seeking comfort from you, he uses yummi as a clutch to help with his plans all the time and fakes being in a manipulative relationship with him he was streaming himself messaging you to me i and he was just laughing the whole time because you believed it on my god?

Another point I'd like to bring up - the entire reason Juni befriended me was because he wanted evidence of me being antisemetic, and wanted to harm Yummi. He normalized making those jokes with him using the excuse that “he’s Jewish” and made me feel safe, then went behind my back and took screenshots.

I sent him a paragraph explaining how hurt I was, and he replied with one or two words and that is all.

Juni was never a friend to me, and I think that I deserve an apology for being manipulated. This segment is admittedly a little emotional so that's all I'll say, but it gets the point across.

BIGOTRY

This tab will discuss all accusations of bigotry (racism, transphobia, nazism, ETC.)

Nazism / Antisemetism

While I am reluctant to revisit this topic for what feels like the three-hundredth time, I feel compelled to address it as promised, covering all aspects of these allegations.

To properly address the claims made, I must first establish context. I apologize if the details I provide are limited, but I am not obligated to disclose the full scope of what I went through; However, to explain my past views and beliefs, I do need to delve into my past experiences and trauma. No, this isn't "guilt tripping" or whatever other tiktok buzzwords you have in mind - It is a genuine explanation. Please read thoroughly.

To start off, if you don't remember the full extent of my background, this isn't my first run in a big drama. I'd gotten forcefully deplatformed by a youtuber much bigger than me in late 2022, for being mutuals and friends with MORTiSFiLiC - Otherwise known as the leader of dice org. I was barely a month into being 14. My point of view was similar to (admittedly) the staple of my existence now - seeing the best in the worst, and trying to help by all means necessary (while being ill and impressionable myself.).

It admittedly, is a true problem. I struggle with it today, and admittedly I still see little harm in it. I do believe it is between me, and a future therapist to clear that up though. Not me, and strangers on the internet that document my every mistake. It isn't healthy.

Anywho - Every time I tried to make new friends, I was berated. I did not have any communities I felt belonged in, so I started to spiral slowly. This is also the time where toffuxx had made false grooming allegations of me, so I was hated even more. At this time, I would've also been isolated from the outside world (meaning no school, not even online, no neighbors, nothing. Only myself, my physically/mentally abusive guardians, and my siblings.)

In early 2023, I'd been searching for new discord servers to find friends, and romantic interests in. (Yes, you can laugh. It is so incredibly embarrassing.) I was genuinely sick of being isolated this badly, and craved new connections.

I'd come across this server, on disboard tagged as a few of my interests. At this time, I believe I was fixated on movies, and film. It'd been one of my comforts, and still is. Essentially, it was tagged "filmbro", "sigma" and things similar. I was very unaware of how these people manoeuvred in private, so I went in oblivious.

I went on one of the discussion channels, and brought up how one of my family members said “Hitler was a satanist! He wasn’t christian!”. A member by the name of “DK” responded to me, calling the family member unintelligent, and claimed they were false. Asked them what they meant, and about the history of WW2 (again, with me not being in school) and they compiled.

Alas - came my “bLaCkPiLliNg” journey. DK invited me to his own server, and it was full of alt-right individuals, and down right Nazis, and fascist. I am admittedly confused on why they’d let me in, due to me making it apparent I was blasian - but of course they considered me “one of the good ones”. I was taught to hate my race. I was also taught to preach Hitler, and consider his ethics morally correct. Believing these people were my friends, I invited them to a small server I still had up. They spread their fascist propaganda there as well.

One of my peers, “KXCZ” , had falsely confessed feeling to me, and we started a relationship. Throughout this relationship, him and his friends would spread Nazi, and antisemetic propaganda to me. I absorbed it like a sponge, given it was my first introduction to politics. They sent me fabricated sources on the holocaust being false, hitler giving “good speeches” ETC, ETC. They’d even gotten me to believe I was allowed to be a nazi as hitler sometimes accepted, and deployed people of my race. They also got me to believe this was a Christian belief, and the true way to peace and God. Apart from this, they made me draw my persona in Fascist uniforms, as well as my peers. The only thing I was ever known for was being one of the good ones, but also somehow anything but that.

I do not want to dive further into the specifics as this is genuinely traumatic, and hard to talk about in places other than private dms - but KXCZ would ignore me for hours, to days on end, randomly block me, and downright extort me to do things. Two other individuals (whom I will name A and D, due to genuine fear they are still stalking m) would introduce me to other forms of politics such as communism, socialism, and the left/right wings in general. I will admit, they did give me genuinely good resources regarding politics (outside of nationalist socialist beliefs) but they did harm me as well. These individuals, and more, worked together to harass me for being “mentally deranged”, a “rancid nymphette”, “disgusting faggot”, and even went as far as sending my suggestive semi-nude photos to people, adding it into troll youtube videos, and putting it as their pfp. They'd also gotten a mugshot of my mom, and would set that as their pfp as well.

I will mention, A, D, and KXCZ harassed Lime/Tex as well. I just didn't know where to put it in the paragraph, as this is regarding my experience. I just thought it'd be very important to mention.

These experiences have formed the way I think today. I no longer hold the views I was extorted, and manipulated into believing. Please understand this genuinely stunted my development, and that it truly was the worst time of my life. Worse than being physically assaulted. I am not exaggerating. I atempted to find ways to commit suicide nearly everyday. It didn't help that I was still being neglected,and abused IRL well. I'd also, by a stroke of my amazing luck, gone homeless, and met At*ny at the same time. They were the only people I had. They were the only people that didn't care about my petty youtube drama. I loved them to a horrific extent.

I ask for far more empathy on this. Nobody would listen, because I didn't ever share the specifics, and the extent I was abused to. I am not the same person I was, and even if it isn't the absolute best - I am in a far better spot than I was before. I am not a Nazi.

I also find it incredibly important to mention one of the document contributors, TJ/Foxilqq.

TJ did end up radicalising me further. TJ is an adult as of now, and still holds these views to this day. It is only natural to hold them accountable, as they did radicalize me further. It is incredibly unfair to blame me, and me only for my past beliefs.

I'd been friends with her for about a year or two up to that point, so I obviously trusted her. It was nearly 4 whole years until she left me over this entire situation. I talked to her about my newfound "non-woke", and "blackpilled" beliefs, and she came out and said she agreed. She told me to look into a site that I will link here. Keep in mind, I am only providing this to show evidence I am not making this up. I do not have logs to my old account, as I was banned several times.

" holoc*ust deprogramming course "

As far as I know, TJ still holds these beliefs to this day. I didn't want to bicker about it, because she was one of my best friends. I didn't let it break our friendship, due to the savior problems I mentioned beforehand, and essentially: bias. I am more than desperate to hold onto connections, even if they aren't healthy.

It is incredibly unfair for people to dive into my history, without diving into the history of the people giving this information. Even if TJ didn't work on this segment directly, TJ has still contributed to this document. I will elaborate on that in the last few segments.

Peacemaker

Peacemaker is a sub design for my sona, cupidaisy. (Also, don't draw her with human ears. It's fucking ugly.)

This character design stemmed from my belief that certain political uniforms could be reclaimed, and turned into something positive. Please note that even if this belief was false and harmful it did not come from ill will. I was incredibly uneducated in the topic of fascism, and I believed due to my experiences with these bad actors that I could turn a symbolization of it into my own. I failed to recognize the harm in this due to my own bias. I do not believe it is smart to “reclaim” these uniforms now, especially considering I am not Jewish. I do have deceased family members who have fought in WW2, but it still doesn't justify that belief. It doesn't do much for those harmed in retrospect.

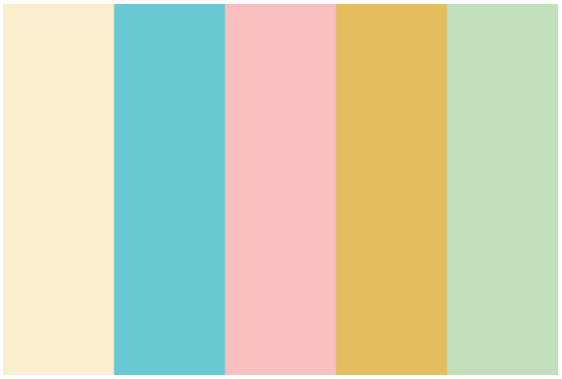
The claim that Peacemaker is based on hoerring goerring, is a lie however.

Not only did I not know who this was before it was brought up, I gave evidence that this was nothing but a stretch. Peacemaker was not designed by me, and her design was color picked directly from Tyler The Creator’s album, “Call me If you get lost”.



Yummi and Juni claim “we had to saturate the colors but pearl grey uniform was unique to him” but Peacemaker’s uniform is literally blue. Not gray. Adding on, if you have to warp or distort the colors of this person's uniform, it probably isn't inspired by them.

I also did not draw a Mercedes Benz logo on her hat. I do not know why it would be a plausible assumption that I drew a car logo on a character's hat.

This was meant to be a peace symbol, and it was drawn incorrectly. Nazi or not, it isn't common knowledge. If it is, not everyone knows that.

I have changed the armband off of Peacemaker, as well as the hats shape. I will not be retiring this character, as I have made the necessary changes.

Regarding antisemitism, in the past it would've been due to the same reasons aforementioned. Yes, I have said antisemetic things (and more) in the past, and I apologize. Again, these things were very much normalized around me, but I recognize now it is wrong.

The most recent claims stem from my belief that the Israeli government is harmful. This is not an antiemetic belief, as it does not target all Jewish people. It is a very common belief that Israel's government is corrupt. I had also made my username "mossadagent" a few months ago, but this again, correlates to my hatred of Zionism. Some people used this as a claim of me being a "Zionist" which literally makes no sense. You cannot be a Zionist, and a Nazi. They are conflicting beliefs. I am also neither of these things.

Despite my past, I do not hate Jewish people. I do not hate any race or ethnicity for that matter, and I only have respect and love in my heart for all. I have taken accountability for my troubled past, and I have not repeated those mistakes in over 7 months.

Juni and Yummi claim I've lied regarding my improvement, but this is nothing but a lie.

Not only have they drawn Nazi uniforms themselves,

Yummi has acknowledged I've changed and made improvements from my past.

I may slip up and make a “Jewish” joke from time to time, but these truly are relapses, and do not reflect my personal views. I am trying, and I have improved greatly. It used to be the staple of my humor, making jokes every day, then I started to make jokes every week, then I started to make it every few months.

This is proof I am changing, and I am growing out of that humor. I apologize sincerely to anyone that has felt offended by my actions, and I will assure you that I have made significant improvements.

Transphobia

Earlier this year, I referred to both Yummicactus and Graceful as the T slur. It was not the best decision regardless of what I'm about to mention, however I went way too far regarding what I'd said to Graceful.

I will talk about what I said to Graceful first.
It started off with me and Graceful's drama. I don't want to go back because I truly don't have the energy, but she had been very disrespectful to me in the past. My ex peers at this time did not like her. As a result, they (specifically and notably, TJ's girlfriend, Vii) would call her the T slur, make fun of her for her birth genitalia, and I ended up joining in.

graceful be like i love running thru grass and feeling it hit my pussy! cuz thats what

I regret this, and I forever will. It genuinely makes me feel grossed out looking at this screenshot, and I am still not entirely sure why I participated in this. The influence in this part of my life was incredibly big, and I would say anything to be approved. I am very aware my words were harmful, and I feel nothing but guilt about what I said. I am not genuinely transphobic though, and truthfully I never have been. I am transgender myself.

Thankfully, I have since apologized to Graceful in DM's, and she did accept my apology. I understand if she still feels harmed by this, but claiming I never changed from this behavior or felt remorse, is false. You are allowed to be hurt by what I said whether I meant it, or not. It is counterproductive to publicly purposely not bring up the fact I apologized, and we talked it out privately however. This was solved long ago.

I will also bring this up - not only has Graceful offered to say the N word to me while being non black. Obviously, as seen here I say "say [redacted lol]" and then they say they would. I just point it out as it is slightly hypocritical.

She has also called prim a "Faggot tranny retard". As far as I know, Graceful is not neurodivergent either.
(Edit 11/10/25 - Graceful has told me she is neurodivergent.)

Now for Yummi. I called him a “Texan [T slur]” as an edgy joke. Nothing more, nothing less. I have apologized for this, and I have expressed he is more than allowed to feel uncomfortable. I will also note, Vii, the person who encouraged me to make these transphobic jokes leaked this and worked with Yummi out of anger. I am not trying to shift the blame because I said it, and it came out of my mouth, but I do believe it is important to mention the pattern of people close to me enabling me, then getting mad I haven't changed from their harm against me.

Yummi has also, however, referred to someone as a homophobic slur.

I mention this because - If they can do these things and not be transphobic, it would only be fair to have the same logic for me. Everyone was very immature at this time. I just went way over the limit, and I acknowledge that. I take full responsibility for what I've said, and I will not and have not made this mistake since.

The last thing I'd like to bring up is 2023; I'd said very transphobic things to this person, similarly to Graceful's case. I was very angered due to them making allegations about me falsely grooming toffuxx, and my groomers fueled this rage.

I have recognized this wasn't okay long ago, and have apologized for this more than one time. This person seems to reject my apology every time though, and I cannot change that. This person goes into multiple servers, even as recent as two months ago - showing people I did this. There's not much more I can do than apologise, and I've done that.

I apologize to everyone involved, and I will assure you I have improved from this and it does not reflect my genuine views.

Racism / enabling it

There's not much to say in this segment regarding the racist things I've said, due to me explaining it in this Nazism segment. I will mention the claims of Safari being racist though, as well as the claims I enabled it.

Starting with the claims of me enabling racism.

For context, I again am blasian. I am allowed to have the opinions I have on the N word, as I am a direct victim of this being weaponized against me. I do not personally care as long as it is made known this person respects who I am, as well as my culture, and gets consent beforehand. I am never one to expose what goes on privately or misconstrue allegations, however when you step out of those boundaries and on top of that: betray me and say hypocritical things about me, I have more than a reason to come out.

Winter/Ivyfinite said more than just the N word. They've called me ugly because of my black features, have expressed discomfort in general around black people, and have made weird comments regarding racemixing.

; blake 10/7/2025 4:19 PM for me im just non chalant. my racemixing babe had confessed ro em and i wa slike woah. a g-girl..? why do i lowkey wanna have a furry erp?

They have expressed disgust to a partner they had in the past, because they were "too ghetto". Winter has also expressed only dating this person because it was funny.

I did not directly enable this. In fact - I told their ex partner what they'd said. I have been grossed out about this and the way they treated me due to my race for a while, but I didn't say anything because they were genuinely one of my only friends. This person is very much aware of right and wrong. I should not have to baby them into not believing a person is "ghetto" due to their accent. I am also allowed to be uncomfortable with that.

Winter has also threatened to report their Mexican ex the ICE for being a “ femboy “ behind their back. No, this is not a joke.

Let me make it known, I have nothing to do with this.

Daisy's fanbase begins flooding the 14 year old's comments for behaviors Daisy deliberately enabled.
This is another note, but this is such horrid hypocrisy on Daisy's part because he knows when he was this age and OLDER he was partaking in the same hateful behaviors. At first, those behaviors started because he was groomed and enabled Me and Blake were not friends at this time - which means I could not have enabled this. They have been discriminatory to minorities completely on their own, and have been saying the N word way before we’d ever reconnected.

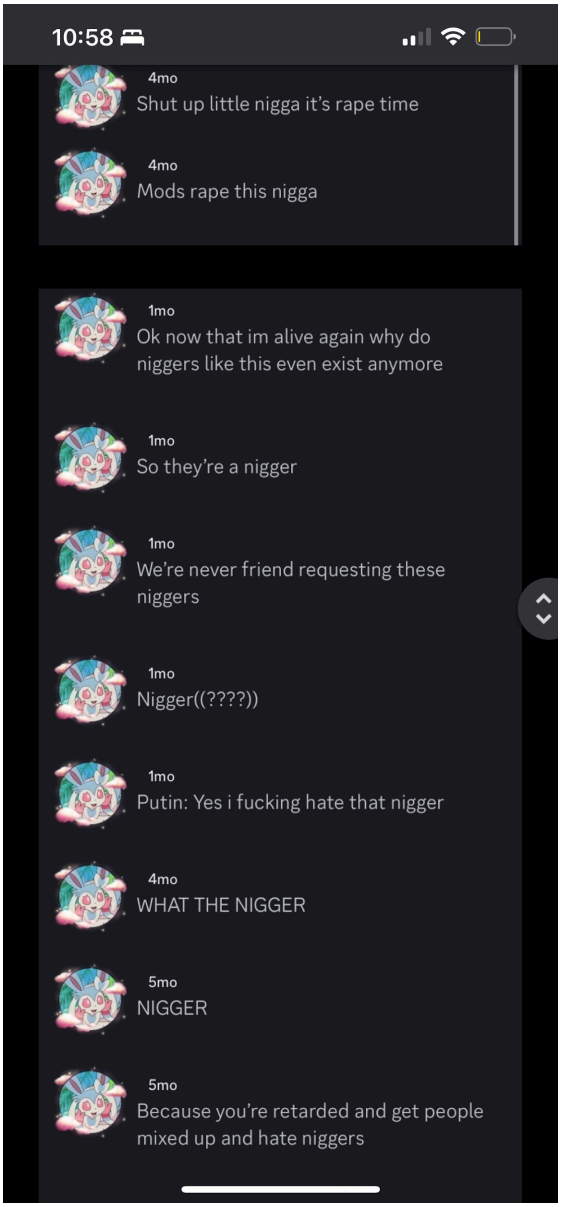
Again, more baseless claims.

Regarding Safari, they are someone that has only said this word in private, with people who encouraged it.



I simply just did not care. Clearly they aren't racist, because their partner of over a year, is literally black.

A point used for speculation Safari was racist is this image.

Daisy sends a screenshot of Safari referring to Daisy as a racial slur.

I am very confused on how this could have gotten mixed up, as the people who leaked this literally have seen their face?

If this image has been spreading around uncensored (and we know it has because it didn't originally have a red bar over it) then it is by definition, another case of defamation, which is highly illegal. This person has no idea who Yummi and Juni are, and did not once consent to having accusations like that tied to his face.

Not only is that not a picture of Safari - either way; it was confidential and posted without consent. It does not matter how bad we supposedly are - that does not give you the authority to post private images of us to thousands of people. We are still minors. You are not the police, or the FBI. That is not your job.

Before anyone brings up the Prim doxxing claims - Prim posted that photo, and more publicly. Safari has never posted an image of their face, let alone body anywhere except my DM's, or private servers.

Overall, it is something that they are growing out of, and is working on stopping. They are not racist, and never will be. We have actually had a significant amount of conversations about racism being stupid, as well as the concept of slurs = discrimination being stupid.

It's a little weird that these people are angry at my views, and what's occurred in general, because as far as I know - they do not have a lick of melanin in their skin. The only person involved that is black, is Donnie; and this person does not like me. Donnie has also literally encouraged Safari to say the N word in VC. I obviously don't have proof, as it was in voice calls, but there are multiple witnesses.

Everyone involved in the making of this document besides Nylo, Graceful, Yummi, and Juni have encouraged Safari to say this either verbally, or in text. They don't care, but they know that the community will care, and that is why it was exposed.

Miscellaneous

This tab is unlabeled, and will discuss (what seems to be) the rest of the allegations.

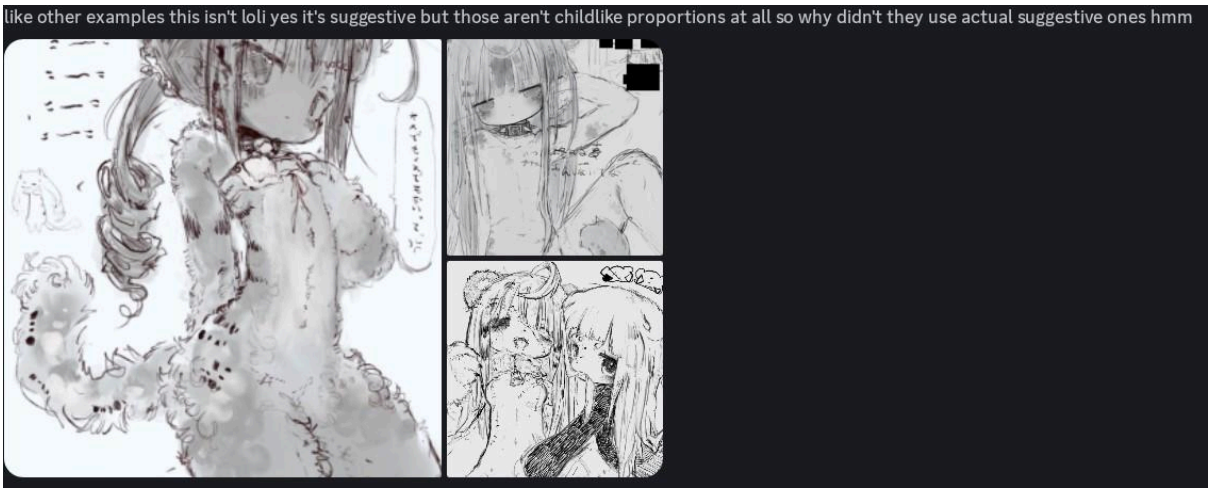
LOLICON

Daisy's behalf

This entire segment has false information, or edited screenshots. I am not a lolicon. I have never drawn lolicon. I have been subject to consuming loli content due to the former predatory adults in my life, but that is all.

First off, I will address me following this account.
I followed this account due to one of my mutuals commissioning them.

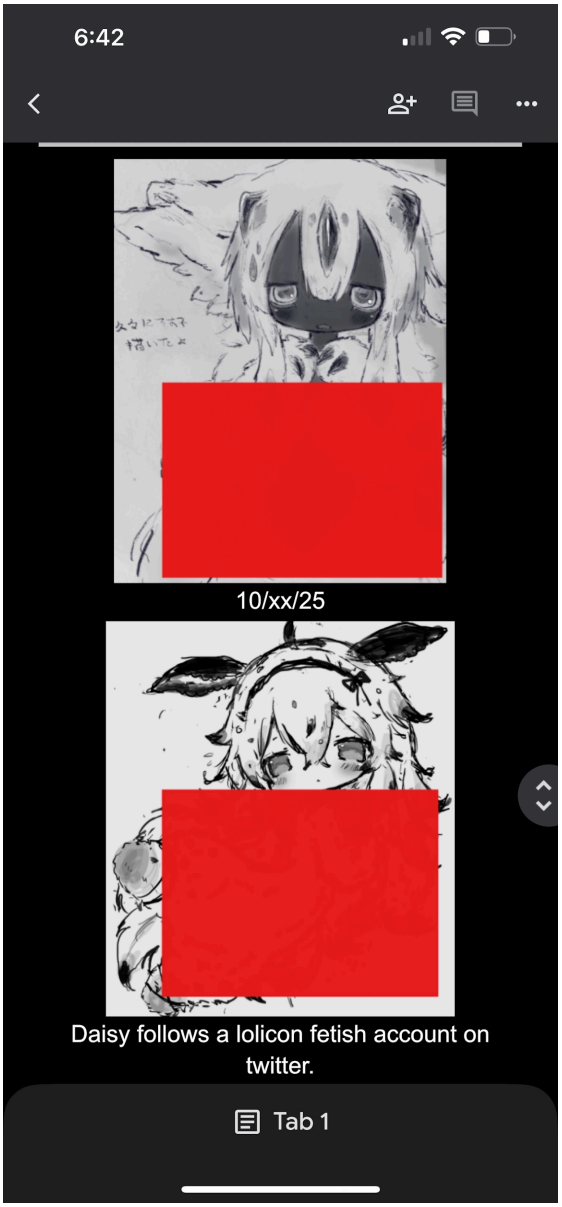
As far as I know, this account is not a lolicon account. This person draws all of the characters on their account the same way. The torsos are long and extended.



like other examples this isn't loli yes it's suggestive but those aren't childlike proportions at all so why didn't they use actual suggestive ones hmm

They also draw commissions they get, notably of over 18 characters, in the same way.

Yummi and Juni have fabricated screenshots, falsely censoring them and making it out to be NSFW.



6:42

Daisy follows a lolicon fetish account on twitter.
Tab 1

This character is literally fully clothed.

This was censored out of pure malice. This is quite literally fabricated evidence, and also directed people to harass this innocent artist.

On top of that, they have also included vent art that TJ/Foxilqq has leaked, falsely claiming for it to be lolicon.

puppybuns 08/24/2025 3:23 PM
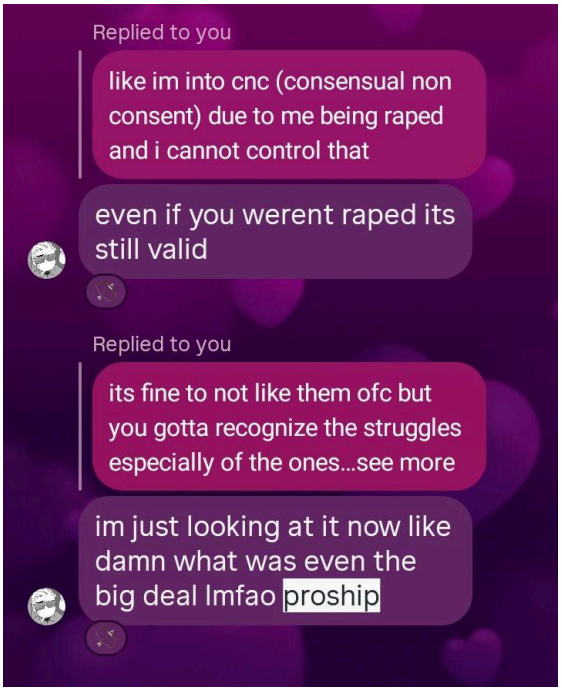
OH MY GOD
@puppybuns bro are you genuinely 4'8???

This drawing was not only private, but it was not NSFW, or suggestive whatsoever. I drew this during an episode where I was impure regressing.

This character was fully clothed, and simply had a pacifier.
If you see something sexual in that, there is something heavily wrong with you that shows you have more ill intent than I supposedly do.

If I did this to begin with, it should be a cause of concern to begin with. No fully stable child (which was also a child rape victim) draws theirself as a toddler in " suggestive situations " , no?

I am also even more angered at the fact TJ leaked this because she has expressed she does not care about Loli, or Proship. This entire segment was malicious.



Replied to you

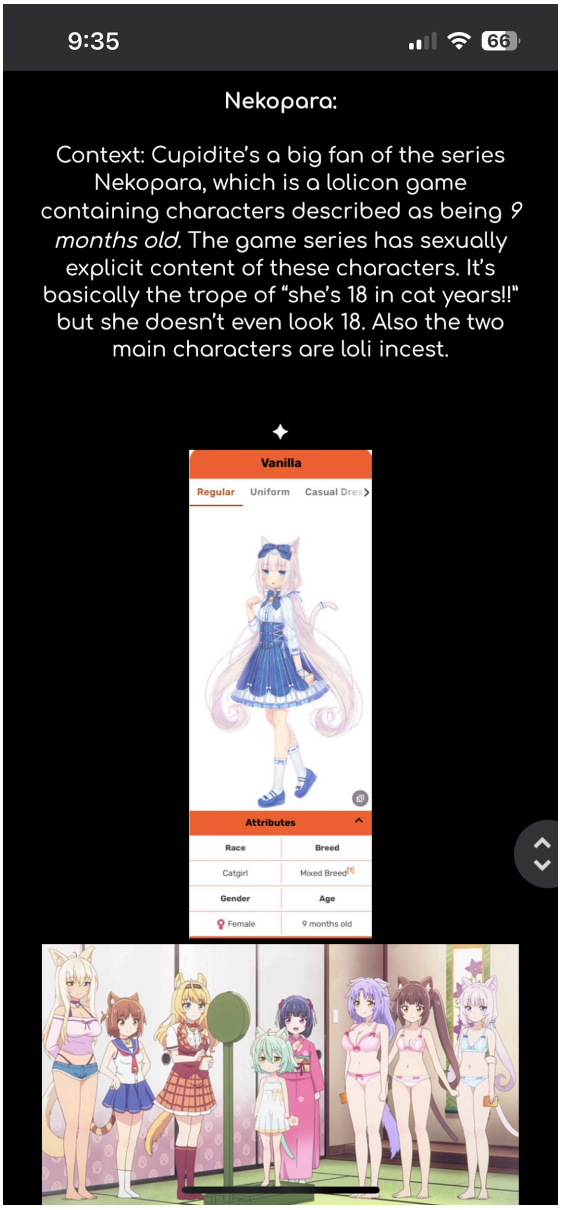
Regarding Nekopara:



9:35
Nekopara:
Context: Cupidite's a big fan of the series Nekopara, which is a lolicon game containing characters described as being 9 months old. The game series has sexually explicit content of these characters. It's basically the trope of "she's 18 in cat years!!" but she doesn't even look 18. Also the two main characters are loli incest.
Vanilla

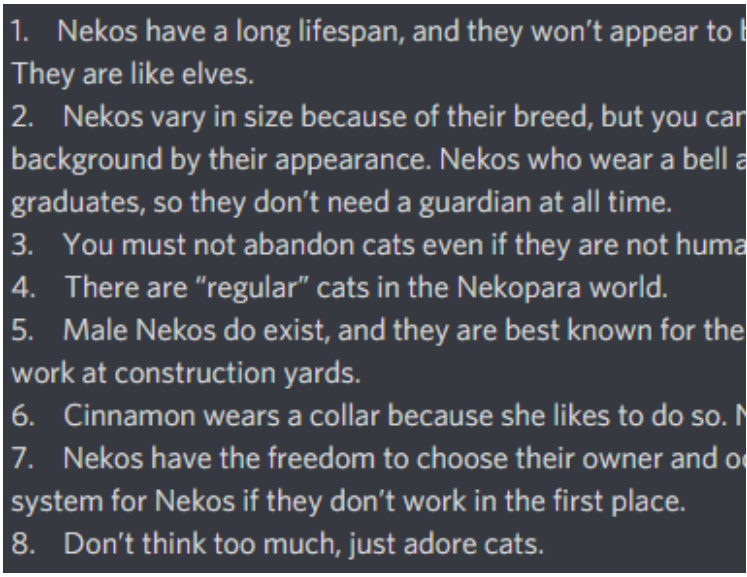
Me being a big fan is a downright lie. I have actually expressed the exact opposite in Yummi's DM's. I just think the art is cute. Nothing less, nothing more. I have done research just for this document, and have researched both the artist, and the art.

The ages of these characters are not confirmed by the creator of them, Sayori. The evidence they provided was a fanmade wiki. I don't know how to get this across, but these characters just don't look like children. It's pretty fucking obvious they aren't 9 months old?

It is mainly their slim figure (which is incredibly common in Japan due to their genetics), and the fact they dress in Lolita style maid dresses. It isn't a peculiar subject.



1. Nekos have a long lifespan, and they won't appear to
They are like elves.
2. Nekos vary in size because of their breed, but you car background by their appearance. Nekos who wear a bell a graduates, so they don't need a guardian at all time.
3. You must not abandon cats even if they are not huma
4. There are "regular" cats in the Nekopara world.
5. Male Nekos do exist, and they are best known for the work at construction yards.
6. Cinnamon wears a collar because she likes to do so. N
7. Nekos have the freedom to choose their owner and o system for Nekos if they don't work in the first place.
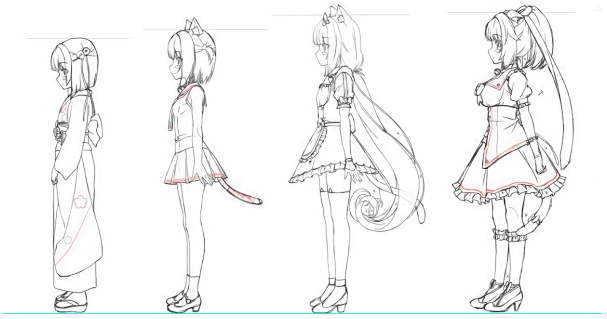
8. Don't think too much, just adore cats.

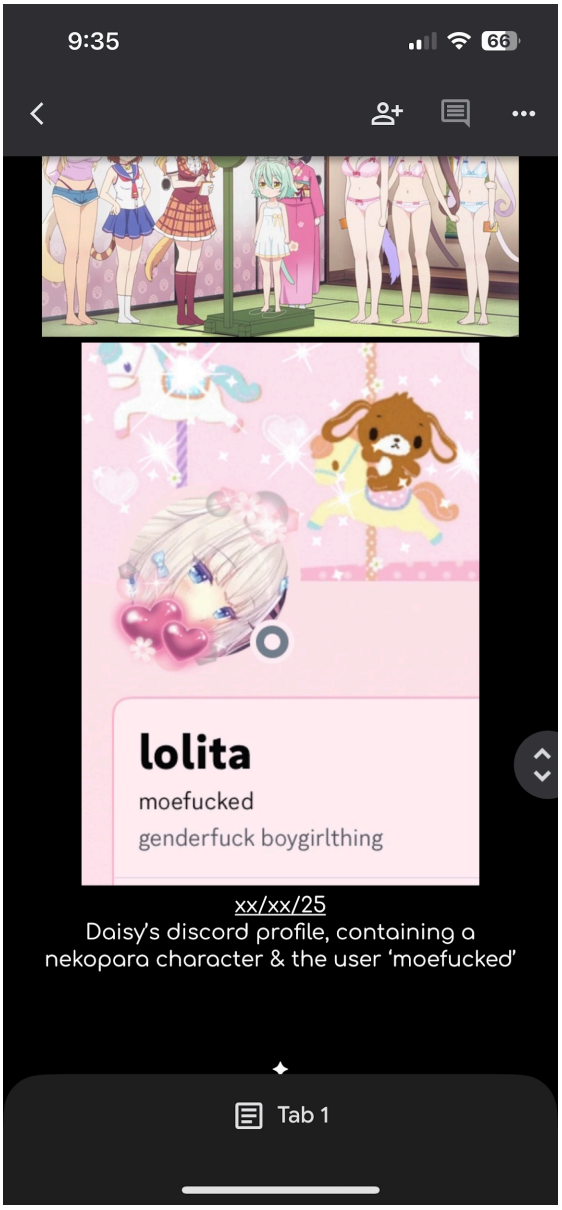
All of the characters range in the same height range, with the MC being 5'7. (For context, he is 1 inch taller than me.) The shortest character is suspected to be a self insert of Sayori.



Earliest art of Sayori, which looks nearly identical to Shigure.

Overall, I don't really care. I again, very much hate art style discourse. The art is cute, and that is why I've had it as my profile.

Me setting my profile as “Lolita” isn't a good point either.



xx/xx/25
Daisy's discord profile, containing a nekopara character & the user 'moefucked'

First of all - I am literally Japanese. Lolita is a fashion style. It derives from the mindset of rebelling against adulthood, and the clothes are inspired off of the idea of childhood. It is not dressing up as a child, and it is not inherently sexual.

Again, not a big deal. I am Japanese. I do not appreciate paper white people telling me I'm a pedophile for liking something innocent, a part of my heritage promote. It's just annoying.

Last thing I'd like to bring up are my loli jokes. When I made those jokes, they were always towards consenting parties, or people who had done it to me. There was absolutely no sexual intent, as those jokes were only made to make fun of those types of people.

If they had an issue, they should have said something about it.

TLDR; There is no evidence of me being a lolicon, and the evidence that is out is fabricated. I have never drawn lolicon, and if I have - with me being normalized to that due to my assault, you probably shouldn't be yelling at me for it. I have also publicly, and privately condemned lolicons. (EX: April 2025)

Safari's Behalf

This isn't something I've personally wanted leaked publicly, as it's something I've recovered from and grown to be frankly disgusted by in recent times, but alas, it can't go unmentioned.

From ages 12-14, and bleeding into early months of this year due to a relapse, I was (and there's no good way to say this) probably the youngest person I knew that had ever, even if occasionally, consumed loli content. This was not inherently pornographic but due to the influence of adults that had been a part of my life previously even up until last year, I was seriously convinced that I was into that sort of thing. I was, similar to the abuse I clearly followed in the footsteps of, berated, manipulated and blackmailed with nude images of myself into doing what older men wanted on the internet, while in truth I had actually cried in disgust almost nightly for multiple years because of my "infatuation" with these things. I was groomed, forced to indulge in disgusting content, and sexually abused, there is no better way to describe it. This also had some relation to the "blue whale challenge" if anybody is knowledgeable of what that was (and sadly still is).

I do not understand why this had to be made public the way it did, and I believe the way it's framed is possibly the most disgusting disregard for the safety of someone my age either way.

And because I don't really know where else to bring it up, there are images near this segment of Safari making rape jokes. Safari is a victim.

CHIPPER / DONNIE SITUATION

Yummi has denied, and disregarded accusations of then 17 year old Donnie/Chipper, being inappropriate to a then 14 year old Safari because of supposed lack of evidence, and as seen here; bias after him and his partner manipulated me.

donnies told me that they were upset because ever since safari met you they began saying slurs they couldnt reclaim and they believed you were a bad influence also forgive me but i dont think this proof really.. shows that donnie liked safari in a non platonic way. i've had plenty of older friends who have felt "protective" over me without it being weird, it just means that someone is a likable person. i know you said it was over vc but again i cant accept hearsay

It is ironic, because as seen all throughout this document, he believes other victims when given hearsay, example: Prim. Another example, when yummi was approached with CP accusations regarding me. It was hearsay, yet he believed them immediately.

As for the accused, here is more insight. Most of the instances happened in VC, so I cannot get evidence, but Donnie has recognized the age gap wasn't the best and that is more than enough. Donnie would constantly make jokes about grooming Safari, as well as raping them. They would also tend to isolate Safari, and make them only speak to them. When other people joined VC's to talk with them, they would get upset and leave.

After that they mentioned how they had you as a FP, but then Daisy started seeing you as their FP making Donnie upset. They claimed that you guys were pretty close at the time too which is why they were upset. Donnie said they hated you because of all that stuff but I honestly don't know why other than that bro was hogging all of safari's attention... grr

Safari was born in 2009. Donnie was born in 2007. The issue with this, if any, is that Donnie's birthday is at the start of the year, whilst Safari's is at the end. This makes it reasonable to estimate it as 3 years, rather than two.

Safari was 14, and was not turning 15 for another 5 or so months, while Donnie was already 17. We don't think that Donnie is a groomer, but they were being incredibly weird to Safari and again, did acknowledge their age gap.

Donnie has also lied to Yummi, and claimed they were 16 at this time.

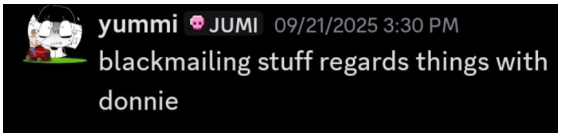
Message @yu...

The entire reason this was brought up to begin with, is because Yummi lied and said I blackmailed Donnie for coming out about what they did. Donnie claimed that I'd doxxed Prim for some reason, even though they participated in sending their face and whatnot.



They could've contacted us at any time to shut down the accusations, yet refused.

Donnie has also lied and has claimed they blocked Safari due to them “saying slurs" when mentioned previously, Donnie directly encouraged this. Donnie has had a habit of telling white people to say the n word, because they thought it was funny.

All we wanted was for Donnie to apologize for their behavior towards Safari, whether they meant it in a gross way or not. It was still incredibly uncomfortable for all parties, especially the alleged victim. It isn't hard to say sorry.

I don't know why they dedicated an entire segment to someone being uncomfortable. Just clarify, apologize, and move on.

PROBLEMATIC ASSOCIATION

I truly don't want to make an entire segment dedicated to other people's faults but I will say this - regarding me befriending people who draw taboo things, it is not my business. It is incredibly gross to expose me, and other children to this content when they have purposely been shielding me from this due to the fact I am not of age, and it could get them in trouble.

I do not care what my adult friends do in their free time. As long as they aren't physically, or mentally harming human beings or creatures, then I don't care.

I do not want to be exposed to these things. I don't follow their oh-so-evil alt accounts for a reason.

We do not bond off of that, and I will not be leaving them because of this. They have shown me an amount of love, and respect, none of you ever will, and that's that.

As far as I know, one of the people mentioned (Muppy) dislikes me due to the allegations on me anyways, which is ironic. It doesn't even matter much anymore due to that.

I do not have to support what they do in private. It is how they choose to cope with the trauma they've been through.

You do not know these people, or their story. It's also weird to assume I knew they drew these things in the first place. I did know about Muppy, but that is all, and I only clarified they were not a zoo, and drew CNC due to them being a rape victim.

I don't really have anything else to say here. Protecting the children includes me too.

Guilt-Tripping and " Suicide Baiting "

Albeit, I am incredibly confused by the “guilt-tripping” claims in the document, but hey. It's the ACC.

Expressing negative emotions during stressful circumstances is not equivalent to guilt-tripping. In fact, I explicitly reassured most people, if not everyone involved, of me having nothing but good intent.

I am allowed to be upset during conflicts. Not everything is guilt-tripping or manipulation.

I also do not “suicide-bait”. The times I have said I was going to end my life, I was, and I did attempt. If I didn't, then the people around me got me to stop.

It is simply another sign that I need mental help, and it isn't something you should shame me for if you know I cannot get it. It also is not always your job to help, and I fully respect that. Claiming I am not struggling because of your perspective is disrespectful though.

Regarding mental health, I thought it'd be relevant to mention here.

My diagnosis is none of your business. I have talked to therapists, and psychiatrists. I have been prescribed abilify (a medicine specifically for my bipolar symptoms). They have been trying to diagnose me with literally anything, but my family just has not taken me. I have not been checked out mentally in over a year.

The professionals I have spoken to, to my face have told me it is very likely that I have both Borderline Personality Disorder, and Bipolar one. And since you

I'm quite confused on the speculation regarding my diagnosis of borderline. I'd argue it'd be even more apparent considering my history.

Take my history of getting tangled up with fascists, and generally harmful parties, or hell the fact i keep getting harmed and or abused by people. I am impressionable, and prone to being manipulated. It's like a staple.

You could even consider my constant breakdowns, and (admittedly) embarrassing spirals. I'd argue that makes this more apparent.

I also would like to point out, I'd gotten in trouble for privately telling Juni that I didn't believe Yummi had OSDD, and I was , of course, ostracized.

My mental health concerns are my own. Stop speaking on a story you know nothing about. It isn't your job to tell me what I have and what I don't have. You aren't professionals either.

P.S : To Glass Raven: You like The Coffin of Andy and Ley Ley (an incest game) , and you called 14 year old me pedobait for being groomed by fascists.

Keep your filthy mouth shut.

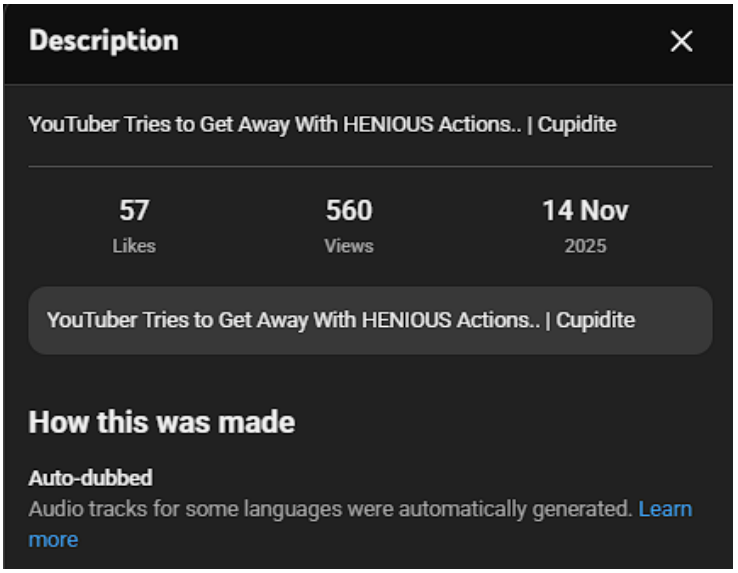
NEGLIGENCE

THIS TAB WILL DISCUSS THE NEGLIGENCE WITHIN THIS SITUATION AS A WHOLE

IN REGARDS TO GRACEFUL

As mentioned previously, Graceful has been harassing me for over a year. Grace does not see me as a person, and will continue not to as she believes she has more than a reason to.

To her, I am content, and I will always be content. I am not referred to by name, or personality, but rather vague terms such as “Youtuber”, or degrading terms in general.



It’s even weirder, because Graceful and I have spoken in private a number of times. It is an incredibly shitty gimmick. Need I mention - she admitted to doing this for views.

I truly do hate to bring it up, as she has a habit of misconstruing words, and pinning criticism as being rude, or “slander”, but I say this out of genuine exhaustion. There is no malice in my heart. I do not feel much saying this other than the emotion of exhaustion. I am sick of her treatment towards me, and I know for a fact even after this I will not be able to rest.

This person has consistently been interfering in my affairs, attempting to justify her actions by claiming the information is "publicized." Most of the controversy I've been in, have been private previously. If you care so much about fixing the issue, then you should not further publicize it - And if you are, you should be giving genuine input other than “this person's evil.” I do not need to have my every move logged. The only thing worth publicizing in depth was me saying transphobic things about her, because it was literally about her - and the grooming allegations (if it was handled maturely) as someone was potentially in harm. The way anything was turned into content to begin with is disrespectful to say the least.

I have wronged her, but I have always admitted to my wrongs. As mentioned previously, if she doesn’t want to accept my apology, that is up to her. (I don’t have the entire conversation, but here is what I do have.)

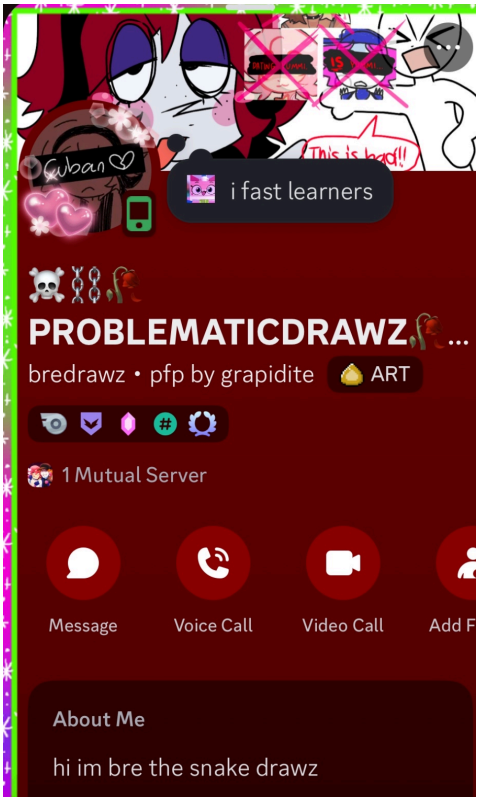
What is not going to happen though, is constant harassment towards me due to things I've proven to have changed from months prior. Not only this, but downright leaving out crucial information to my legal cases, or being nasty to others for being skeptical of their claims.

I will not go into every single last thing she's done, because again, I am tired. I will only mention the things crucial to this segment, and situation.

First off, let's talk about the bredrawz situation.

I was sent a screenshot of bredrawz's profile, with her having traced my art in the banner, and having credits in her bio as "grapeidite".



My first assumption, based on Bre's perception of me, and the things she was claiming about me - was that she was calling me a rapist.

Apparently there was someone by the name of "grapezz" in the server,also with the stupid traced PFP.

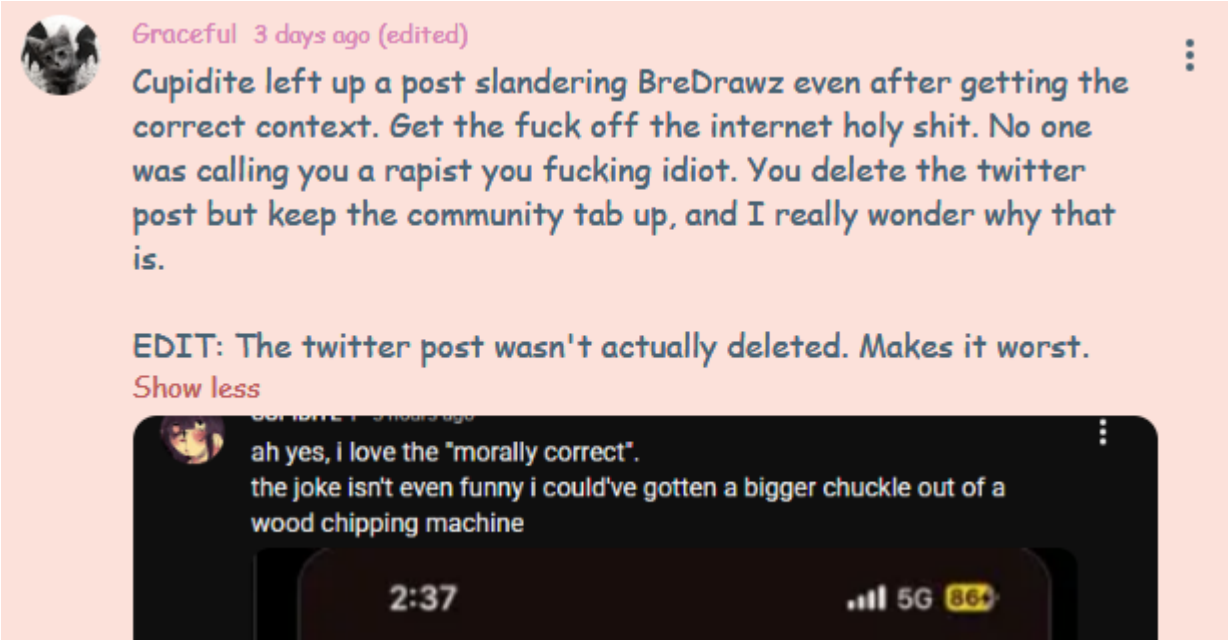
Graceful, for whatever reason thought it'd be good to make a post claiming I was "slandering" Bre when I had no indication that what they were saying was true, and also calling me an idiot which is just flat out unprofessional, and cruel. (I also took the post down, but Graceful claimed it was "too late".)



Graceful 3 days ago (edited)
Cupidite left up a post slandering BreDrawz even after getting the correct context. Get the fuck off the internet holy shit. No one was calling you a rapist you fucking idiot. You delete the twitter post but keep the community tab up, and I really wonder why that is.
EDIT: The twitter post wasn't actually deleted. Makes it worst.
Show less
ah yes, i love the "morally correct".
the joke isn't even funny i could've gotten a bigger chuckle out of a wood chipping machine
2:37
5G

Here is the definition of slander, by the way.

slan·der /ˈslandər/noun LAW
the action or crime of making a false spoken statement damaging to a person's reputation.
"he is suing the TV network for slander"

What all of you, including Bre is slander. I have not deliberately made a false statement intended to damage Bre, or anyone's reputation. I still believe they are using the Grapez name as a crutch, but as I don't have definitive evidence they are, I decided to take it down.

Bre also did not contact me to clear this up, nor did Grapez. Third parties did.

Regardless, it's weird for a 19 year old with 100k who already actively copies my style, to trace me, and mock me in their discord bio. The entire profile was already malicious. I am not at fault for being under the impression they were calling me a rapist. It also doesn't make sense why they didn't credit them as "Grapez" instead. It seemed more than purposeful. If they can call me a “pedophile”, or “groomer”, they can and would call me a rapist. I suppsoe that is my own speculation though.

Now for Graceful’s videos, and streams on me. I will not go over the entire thing, because I genuinely consider it a waste of time, but there are a few crucial things i’d like to mention.

First of all - If my partner was a pedophile (which, this is false yet Graceful insists it isn’t), the last thing you should be doing is making a video calling me out. By definition, I am literally a victim.

You also shouldn’t have been telling this 15 year old to end their life, over rape jokes. Safari is literally a rape victim, as mentioned previously.

Another thing I'd like to mention is their weird fixation with my mental illnesses? They mention it nearly every time they speak about me, and it genuinely makes me uncomfortable. I have never explicitly used BPD, or Bipolar as an excuse, yet Graceful makes it their main point. I only bring up mania, and I've explained its relevance.

In the youtube short Graceful made, she left out several key details I already mentioned in this document. Since you’ve read this I’m not going to regurgitate it (AKA i’m lazy as fuck) but I will say: I did not once use my mental illness as a point in the Tex situation. Amnesia is not a mental illness on its own, Graceful. I literally cannot control that I suffer from amnesia. It also was not my only point whatsoever. They purposely left out crucial information to make me look like a predator.

As I said, the only thing I can do is apologize to Tex (which I have done), and cut off all close connections with people under 15.

Last thing I will mention, is her getting angry at bystanders for being confused about the situation.

It's also hypocritical, as Graceful has criticized me in the past for not being professional.

Graceful is genuinely the last person I want handling this situation. I admittedly, much prefer Juni handling it over Graceful, and both of them were god awful in their commentary. Grace has proven to have a bias against me again, and again, and insulting people and telling them to "commit suicide" is not a smart more, ethically, or legally.

IN REGARDS TO "RUN FOR YOUR MONKEY"

After Juni's video was made on me, RFYM added me, giving me the impression they were going to offer help. It was an incredibly manipulative (gay) way to make content.

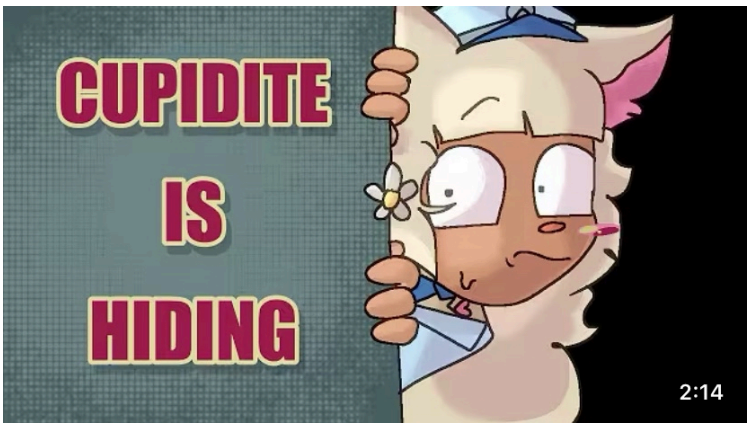
RFYM asked for context, and my side of the story, so I gave. I sent them my unfinished document, and they kept prying, and prying for more information. One of the questions they asked required Safari, so I asked them to send over a voice message. RFYM screen recorded this without my knowledge, or consent. They pulled private stuff out of our conversations, and used it as a weapon for their shit, public video; then blocked me.

(Again, please don't draw Cupidaisy with ears.)

Regarding the voice messages, they asked me to elaborate on Safari's disorder. I was under the impression that Paranoid Schizophrenia (what they suffer from) was similar to OCD. They were under the impression I was asking about P-OCD, what I struggle with. The difference is P-OCD is more based around intrusive thoughts, and experiences around you, while paranoid schizophrenia literally forces you to believe that thing. It is a delusion your brain tells you is true, like any other form of schizophrenia.

I forwarded all of these messages, clearing the miscommunication up. They took a chunk of the voice messages way out of context, and left out the other ones I sent to make people think Safari had P-OCD. I am unsure whether this was purposeful or not, but it was certainly reckless. In fact so reckless, this caused people who already hated us, to have a bigger reason to due to their stupidity, and negligence. They also made community posts mocking me when I commented, calling them out.

To top it all off, they made a second video where they had the nerve to criticize me for not responding fast enough.



They conveniently ignored the fact that internet access was restricted, meaning I couldn't post a response or even see the garbage they'd put out. They were notified of my occupation, yet debated against it.

Bottom line: "Run For Your Monkey" is annoying, reckless, and frankly, pretty fucking stupid. They've shown they're willing to exploit for views, all while ignoring crucial information for cases like this. Need I mention, they also contributed to the "Momodrawz" spiel.

I genuinely believe they owe me an apology. That's all I really have to say about this person.

I have been taken out of public school due to Yummi, and Juni communicating with Ex friends from there. I was harassed out of school, and I now have to do online. I didn't go in depth the first time while writing this, but after seeing evidence it's significant, I will.

Rosepetalite/Stiniebonini, also known as Pandora, and bxbgba/deer also known as Chris have been in some sort of contact with Yummi and Juni, and have given them my full, legal name, as well as my school, state, and apparently address.

here is my response to the allegations yummicactus/junidrawz made regarding me docs.google.com/document/d/1A5...
7:01 PM · Nov 10, 2025 · 161 Views

Literally the only reason they hate me as much as they do is because I confronted Chris about touching their pet. It was not out of harm, but rather the opposite. Pandora is the one who told me these things, and showed me their DMs. This is one of the only situations where I will directly say: this is not my fault at all.

Me, Chris, and Pandora were literally on a no contact agreement, and they broke it to spread Yummi and Juni's document around my school. As a result I'd lost all of my friends, and I'd been harassed so severely I'd be switched out of public school, to online.

Not only that, but the police did come to my house due to them (and I assume bystanders and anonymous people online) spam reporting me to my local police department, and cybertips. The officer questioned me regarding "dating a pedophile" (they are 15), and "having multiple amounts of CSEM saved to my device" (that wasn't even the original allegation). I showed the officer my gallery as he'd asked (specifically from May but I showed the entire thing just in case) , and he believed me based on what I showed as well as the context given. Where I live though, my phone had to be taken for evidence though, to ensure nobody was harmed. At least you can say the police were doing their job.

I was not given a court order not to post, or be offline. If there was any evidence of CSEM, or anything I was accused of, it'd be on that phone, which is why they took that device.

Anywho - I will probably never get my phone back, So thank you.

Pandora, and Chris - If you see this,
Fuck you. I genuinely hate you. You are genuinely disgusting and you deserve everything that comes to you for harming me and doxxing me to a random nobody youtuber just for wanting innocent animals out of harm's way. You are disgusting.

For Yummi and Juni this is about the 700th time they've worked with people that have manipulated me, abused me, or are generally unreliable, disgusting people.

Pandora (lolicon zoophile defender), Foxilqq/Tj [literal nazi (need i mention lies about her beliefs changing so people don't get mad at her] who contributed to the radicalization of me, and normalization to NSFW), Prim (too much to add), In the past: Vii (Tj's weird ass transphobic manipulative girlfriend), and much more.

These are the (second to) last (last is graceful) people who need to be handling grooming allegations.

GENERAL NEGLIGENCE

Alongside the accusers proving to want to cause harm to me, lacking a sense of supposed justice seems to be prominent as well.

The people involved have constantly treated this as a “LOL! This person is gross. I've never liked them!” Instead of a “This person is really harmful and people need to stay away from them because I'm afraid they'll be hurt by them.” situation.

Their handling of this has gotten me and my loved ones a numerous amount of death threats, rape threats, lynching threats (If you don't know what lynching is, It is a method the Ku Klux Klan used to kill African Americans. I am African American.), and generally disturbing, in depth threats.

There was never a disclaimer to not harass me, or the people associated with me, likely unsuspecting of my alleged harm to others.

I am allowed to report everyone involved with this. I am still a minor, and thus very much counts as harassment and libel.

There was also no legal clarification at the start, and that is a major cause for concern. You cannot accuse a 16 year old of several sex crimes and get away with it.

P.s - harassing my (notably minor) friends for associating with me (a supposed “predator”) is absolutely disgusting. There is no way I can sugarcoat this without sounding rude, but this is anything but productive. They have only been messaging me in fear as a result. If you really cared for future victims, you wouldn't be berating them. It is incredibly gross.

The only thing this person said was to be patient and wait until my side gets out. They never deliberately said “hey you fucking suck daisy is the only right one!” Nor did they say anything similar. They also wished well to Lime, and hoped for their mental health to get better.

As a result, they were harassed by everyone. They were sent multiple threats, and it came to the point people were hoping that their medical conditions killed them.

I may come back and edit this, but I don't know what else to say other than I'm disappointed and disgusted. Nobody in this situation is morally correct, in fact the exact opposite.

I apologize for my harsh wording, but all of you fucking suck.
I cannot hold up the professional facade anymore. I am a person and I am tired of me and people I know being treated like we aren't.

You cannot treat people like this and get away with it.

This is more than internet stuff, as my in real life has genuinely been affected by this.

Hypocrisy & Malice

This segment will show hypocrisy, and or malice from the accusers.

Keep in mind, If I state one thing, I am not accusing the parties of being predators. I am accusing them of being hypocritical and biased based on their existing POV of me.

Mentioning these things are not an effort to make you take your eye off of me, but rather to make you aware if the other parties are in fact purposely pinning the situation as malicious or not.

You do not have to take my full word, but I recommend you take the information given and digest it accordingly.

I also do not feel like adding this because I'm exhausted, but evident in the document made on these two people, they didn't have good intent to begin with. They profit off of situations, and literally brag about it in Voice Calls. The document on them is private as of now, but a bigger, more in depth document will be coming out very soon.

These people have been caught saying genuinely vile, and disgusting things about me and other people victims to them, but that's all I can say. I'm not gonna sugarcoat it, It is not pretty.

For now, here is Yummi bragging about contacting people about me during our peace agreement.

Refusing to contact me

A more in depth point is how they refused to contact me, or listen to my side. Yes, with cases such as this you are supposed to believe victims - however it is also innocent until proven guilty.

I had attempted to contact the parties before, and they were incredibly vague with their wording. I ended up being blocked every time.

Example: Yummicactus. He was aware of this situation prior. When I asked him about CSEM accusations, he said “fuck you”, then blocked me for unrelated drama.

pardon my actual ignorance but what does Juni want you to apologize for?

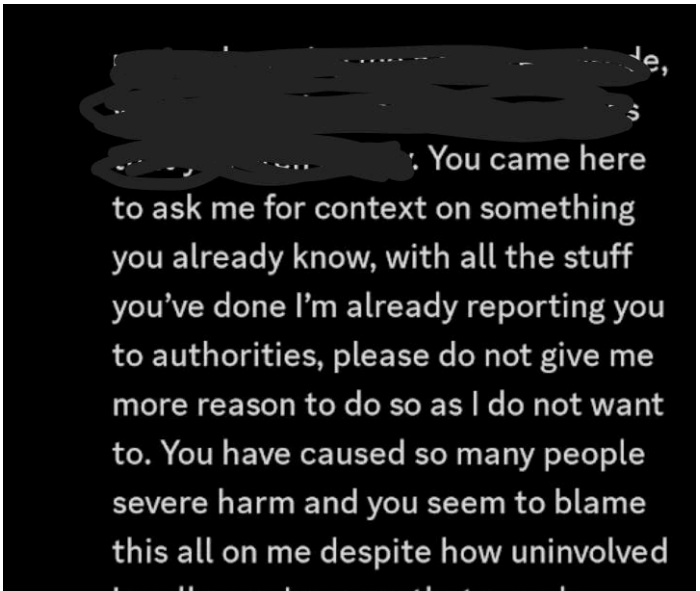
"manipulating her" im dead

Another point that I find relevant - when I contacted him to clear up the misinformation a few weeks before this ordeal, I notified him of one of his friends, Donnie, displaying predatory traits to Safari. Yummi stated he didn't believe me due to “lack of evidence”, and because I was on bad terms with his partner.

Believing others word of mouth claims about me being a predator, yet not believing my claims that have a plethora of evidence about one of your peers lying on, and being sexual towards my then 14 year old partner without consent while being 17, Is hypocritical.

It's all or none. You could get people harmed because of your negligence on both sides.

Another example, from Junidrawz. Here she is seen purposely being vague.



. You came here to ask me for context on something you already know, with all the stuff you've done I'm already reporting you to authorities, please do not give me more reason to do so as I do not want to. You have caused so many people severe harm and you seem to blame this all on me despite how uninvolved

Refusing to contact me because it'll "ruin their document"

With the point of Juni, Yummi, and their associates as a whole: It is weird to bring these popular Youtubers in this situation, then claim it isn't drama. You are making it a drama.

If you cared about the so-called safety of the "victims", you would've contacted the authorities. You have relevant on my personal life.

This situation was not, and is not any of their business.

It also does not help that Yummi, and Juni are people who have caused immense distress to me in the past. They have been harassing me for months on end, due to my problematic past. Gutzzl, Tex, and Blake are aware of such.

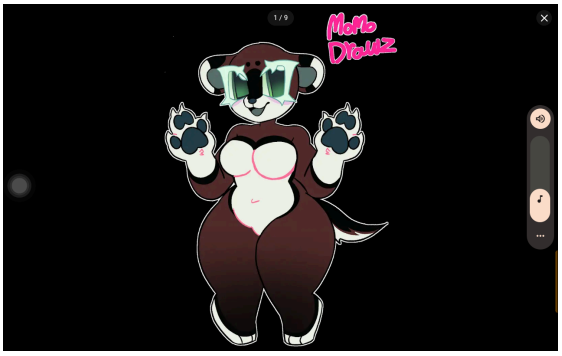
They have also criticized how he handles situations like this awfully. If this is true, why would you contact him?

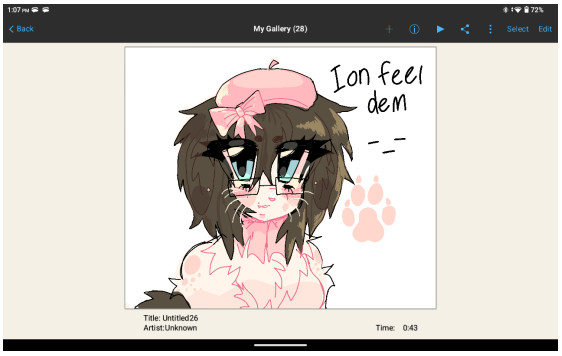
Yummi and Juni falsely innocent people of being me (an alleged pedophile groomer)

I'm very certain that you've heard of the momodrawz spiel, but if you haven't - momodrawz is a new YouTuber that seemingly popped up after I went on hiatus due to legal concerns.

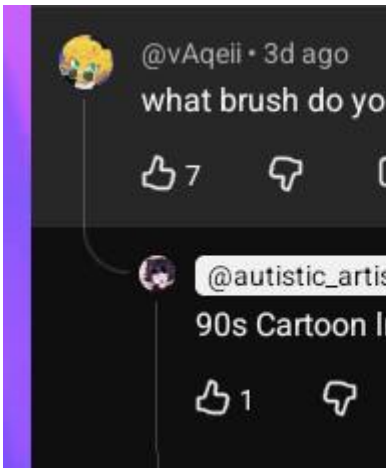
This person is very obviously inspired by my art, with them literally tracing my eye style. (No, I don't care by the way. It was also expected due to my allegations.)

(My most recent art is below)





Momo, however, has a PC, and makes their content + art on there. I just got a Laptop today, and I use IbisPaintX to create my art.



This is the pen Momo uses. I use Digital Pen and Dip pen (hard).

There is more than enough evidence we are not the same person.

Yummi and Juni have been sending harassment to this person, falsely accusing them of being me. This is by definition, ANOTHER form of defamation, and is illegal.

I'd also like to bring this up, Juni had said something so incredibly racist to prove that they were me? That we both have an accent?

This is very obviously pointing out my blaccent.

We literally do not talk the same. Momo's voice is far more nasally than mine. My voice is also more masculine/unisex nowadays, and raspy.

A YouTuber by the name of FriendlyFire hosted an interview with me, where they would prove me and Momo aren't the same person. We started a voice call, and talked to prove we weren't the same. Yummi falsely copyright striked this, which is more than illegal. This is his second time falsely copyright striking a video, and he can be charged for this.

Please give support to Momo. They have literally done nothing wrong, and you all owe them an apology for what you did to this poor girl.

The only reason Juni and Yummi took down their posts accusing them was because Friendly contributed to the expose document on them. They are not sorry, and they still believe me and Momo are the same person to this day.

Hypocrisy / Bias with NSFW Topics

Gutzzl has a history of getting angered at victims for drawing not safe for work material, though she has done the same herself.

I can understand a fraction of this, again due to their experiences with being groomed and exploited online - But your experiences aren't a reason to belittle others.

This, along with the allegations she has made against me, proves to be biased.

Gutzzl's close friends discussing how she shames children for drawing NSFW.

I ended up leaving this person's server, as they kept posting their NSFW, and it made me uncomfortable. (side note - a groomer probably wouldn't be trying to help grooming victims.)

I have also been made aware multiple times that Gutzzl has shared porn as a joke to Blake, and Magenta. As I stated on the previous tab.

Claiming I am wrong for asking for such, but you not being wrong for distributing such is hypocritical.

I understand it was not in a malicious context, as I even laughed with Gutzzl, and the rest of the group about such. The things that I did were not malicious either though. I was not given as much leanway.

Age discourse

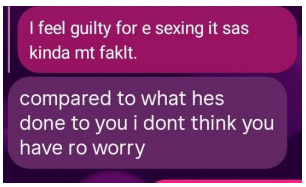
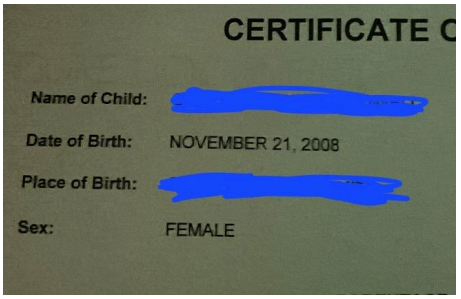
Gutzzl keeps claiming that I am 17, yet still calls Blake 14, and Tex 13. If you were to claim I was 17, you would also have to round up Tex's and Blake's age to 15, and 14.

I am not 17. I have shown my birth certificate in the document. (But I will show it again!)





I am still 16. Tex (Allegedly) turns 14 barely a week after i turn 17. Blake turns 15 a month after I turn 17.

Gutzzl listens to the specifics of everyone else involved, but disregards me, because of the "allegations". This is showing bias, and bias is incredibly negligent in situations like this.

People blaming me for my experiences, when they supported me through it previously (Victim blaming in general)

People involved (even individuals sharing proof to those who started the allegations) have known about the Tex situation before. They have also known about me doing sexual things in private with Safari. They did not care, and even directly responded to such when I showed distress about it.

In May/june - Me venting about the abuse against me to Tj/Foxilqq

Tj/Foxilqq mocking me for venting about Safari making me harm myself

I wasn't going to mention this at first, but I feel like it is important to mention how the handling of this situation has affected me.

Tj/Foxilqq (Though i already explained the abuse because it was online, and not in person (While knowing my history of being groomed and abused)

This person also states minors cannot consent, which is

This comment alone, sent me into a spiral I was not in previously. This person deliberately went out of their way to make me feel guilty about my traumatic experiences that are still harming me mentally to this day.

contradictory given what they said to me. You cannot disregard the fact I can't consent either because of the circumstances. It is dangerous.

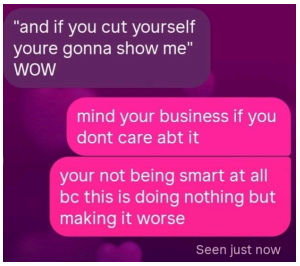
time span I purposely put myself in danger, because I thought my trauma wasn't good enough. According to them, it was "online" and I wasn't allowed to be impacted by it. This, and the fact they were calling my partner a predator repeatedly made me lack the ability to care about the consequences of abuse because it was already happening, or from their POV too late.

I do not know what their intentions were when saying this, but they are very aware I am sensitive to these things. They knew me for years, and were with me when



"and if you cut yourself youre gonna show me" WOW mind your business if you dont care abt it your not being smart at all bc this is doing nothing but making it worse

I must also point out that Tj has seen my nude body on multiple occasions. While still in a relationship with Vii, Tj literally encouraged me to masturbate to her voice. (I apologize for the explicit detail; I cannot describe this more vaguely.) During the "Prim situation," she later blamed me for this, even though it was not my fault. She would make suggestive sounds I won't detail, and prompt me to keep going after asking. Tj had vented to me about Vii emotionally abusing her at this time, and expressed she didn't care.

I was in the period of the worst mental torment abuse I'd ever gone through.

Taking advantage of this situation to downright bully me for my experiences, and refusing to give me context or tips on how to solve it, is and was harmful.

She views "minors showing themselves to others as illegal and CSEM" only when it involves me, yet she has seen nearly every part of my body. Does this mean I am Lying to my face, and saying it was okay and that you wouldn't tell anybody the harm I went through, was and is harmful.

The mob mentality is apparent. I will get back to this point shortly.

incapable of consent? It is also relevant that Tj is older than me, self-identifying as a "mature-adult." By her definition, she has also committed a crime. I do not report this though, because I know it wasn't out of ill will. It's just hypocritical, and upsetting knowing our history, and what she's seen of me.

As mentioned before, I also spoke about the Tex situation to buniongangg.

This is an apparent example of the mob mentality. The fact they knew about this situation prior, but only decided to deem me predatory for it when we stopped being friends, and a Youtuber with a big following was on it.

Next, Making sexual comments about my coping mechanisms.

Though I understand why gutzzl would be angry at me, she has said outright disgusting things about me - such as claiming I sexualize my age regression.

I do genuinely feel dirty, and violated by this statement. My age regression is the way I don't resort to the harmful mechanisms you hate, such as drawing taboo content.

It is weird to claim this with no proof, especially a minor.

Regarding Tex...

I have shown numerous instances of Tex being vague, or secretive about their true age. I have also shown instances of Tex snapping at people, and pinning them as malicious when they are angered at them.

Example: Tex lashing out at Red for telling others, even though previously she worded it maliciously

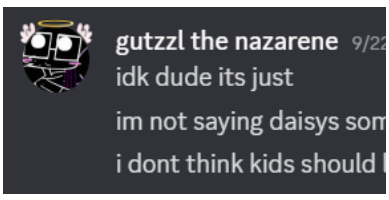
Tex mentioning the situation will be private, yet Gutzzl expressing they want my platform taken away from me.

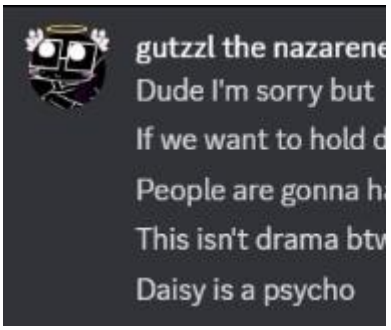


I can understand wanting my platform taken away if you believe I am a predator, however why are you worried about Youtube, more than the authorities?

I am the accused. I am worried about my channel because it is the only way I can financially support myself without my parents.

You have little to no reason to post a video/document, before reporting me. This shows that you have no reason to, and that you want to take me down.

Gutzzl also states:



But publicizing this, will it make it a drama?

If you reported this, the police would tell you to take the posts down. The investigation is supposed to be confidential. You only want to take me down because you know it is all I have left.

Gutzzl mentioning I was following "lolicon" accounts, yet not notifying me of such sooner.

Gutzzl was one of the reasons I had the lolicon allegation, aside from TJ.

You cannot prove why I followed these accounts. There is no evidence of me reposting their "loli" art. I followed the first individual due to my mutual commissioning them.

I am also not fixing to argue about this, because I don't care - but this person draws every character the same. Even the commission of my mutual was in the same artstyle. Claiming it is loli with no proof the characters drawn are underage is stupid.

Art style discourse is stupid and if you don't show me deliberate proof they are a lolicon, I will not care.

Gutzzl also attached another account. It was a fictional erogore or possibly self harm account.

Getting mad at me for this when you know i struggle with self harm is weird. Instead of berating me, educate me on why it's wrong. Especially when I notified Gutzzl of Safari making me self harm myself. They even gave me advice on such.

I most likely followed them due to the erogore art, though. There's not much to say other than I probably liked the art they were posting. Who cares?

Exposing this sensitive information of me, as a minor, is dangerous to begin with. It is common knowledge to not post minors' kinks, or fetishes no matter how problematic they are, as long as they aren't harming others. There was literally no reason to leak this other than to get more people to hate me. It proves nothing.

It is far different than Juni and Yummi's current case, due to them being hypocrites, and ruining people's lives while they do the exact same things they did. They have also literally manipulated, and what looks like: grooming people.

I again, am not into erogore or loli.

The only thing remotely similar to such was me venting about when I used to sexualize my rape as a child, and pretend I was a kid going through it again as a mechanism. This did unhealthily affect me, and I have found other ways to cope.

I should not have to expose this information for the sake of a defense. I am 16 years of age. Not 18, or above.

More regarding Gutzzl's intentions, from Red some context for how this happened originally, she told me the original stuff about you in buniongang and i, under the impression that you were predatory, leaked the safari tex thing to gutzzl purely so she would know it happened and to give her another reason to stay away from you (again, under false pretense)

starting the whole thing LOL looking back on it i still think it was pretty weird that that happened and i felt it hadn't been handled properly but if i knew it would spiral out into docs accusing people of grooming i wouldnt have leaked it purely for texs sake but as you can see gutzzl didnt even initially care she just wanted to yap about all the ways you wronged her LOL she only starts showing actual worry for tex after something happens behind the scenes (cant remember what and im not entirely sure i knew in the first place but there was a clear shift) pants on fire well if youre crashing out that badly take a chill pill before talking you dont want to say something you shouldnt in the heat of the moment and especially dont mention what i told you about safari because daisy might actually give tex the strappado or something

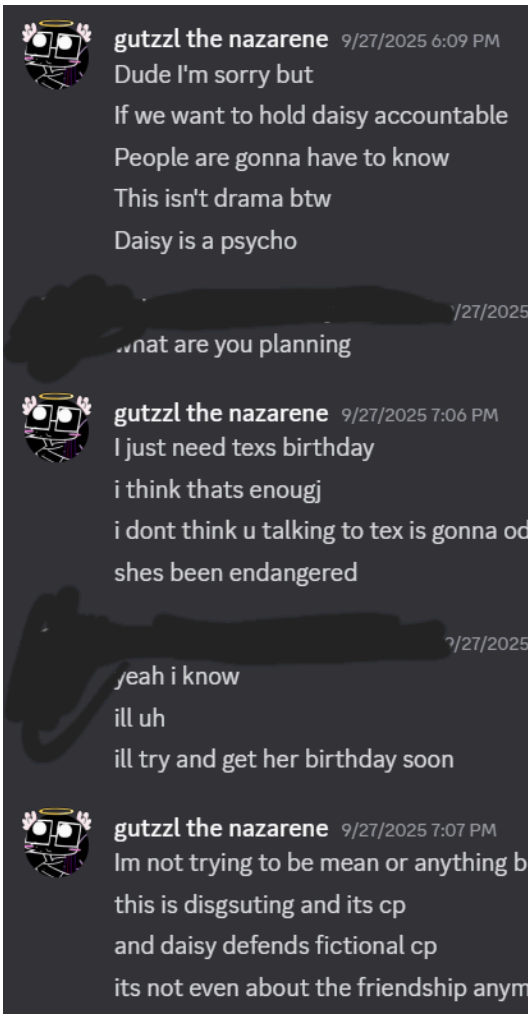
gutzzl the nazarene 9/27/2025 2:00 PM
Just get her birthday that's it
Cuz shed be 11 and daisy would've been 15
That's bad enough along with 12



gutzzl the nazarene 9/27/2025 6:09 PM
Dude I'm sorry but
If we want to hold daisy accountable
People are gonna have to know
This isn't drama btw
Daisy is a psycho nat are you planning
gutzzl the nazarene 9/27/2025 7:06 PM
I just need texs birthday
i think thats enougj
i dont think u talking to tex is gonna od yeah i know ill uh ill try and get her birthday soon

gutzzl the nazarene 9/27/2025 7:07 PM
Im not trying to be mean or anything b this is disgsuting and its cp and daisy defends fictional cp its not even about the friendship anym

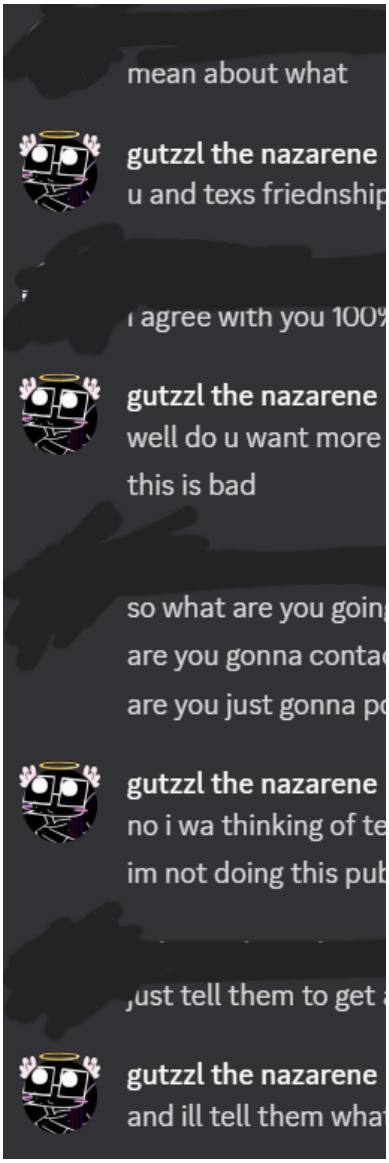
I also think it's odd to refer to the people around me as "minors" when i am a minor myself.



mean about what

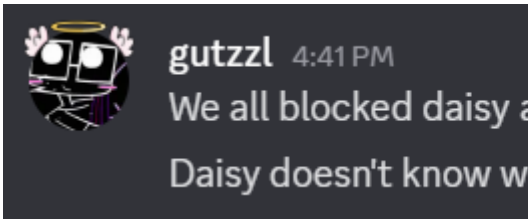
Gutzzl trying to instill fear in me

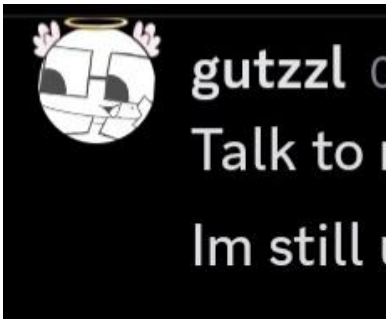
If I was deliberately supposed to feel fear in what was coming, it probably was something that was not intentional or malicious.

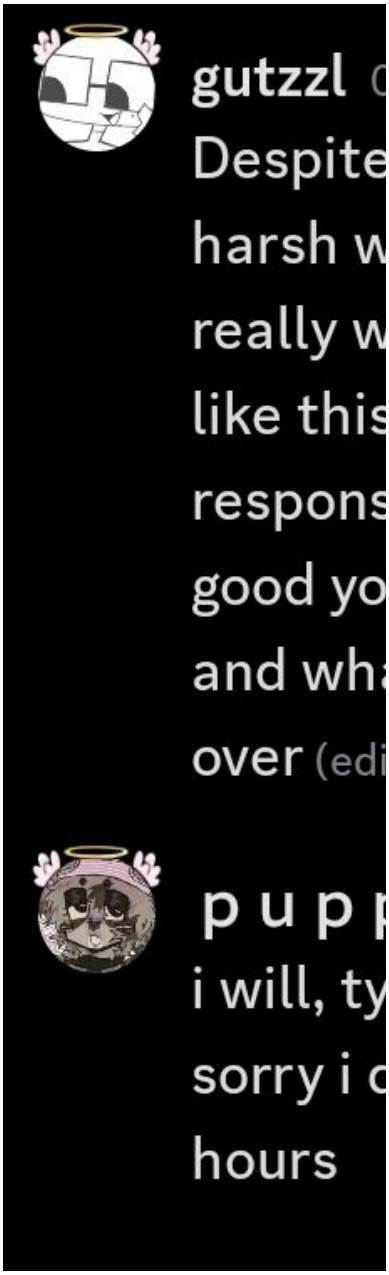


Regarding Red theirself:

the primary reason i sent you these screenshots is because you seem to have a genuinely good-faithed interest in proving your innocence and i've been kept in the dark about this so severely that i genuinely don't know who's in the right or wrong here, so i want to clarify that i'm not saying you're completely innocent or guilty, only that i have these issues with the way the case was handled from my point of view and i think that if you're going to be as honest as you can in defending yourself that you deserve to know this information so you can do just that. nothing more, nothing less. i wish more than anything to stay completely uninvolved and uncontacted about this, and i pass no judgement on either party.

Gutzzl claiming they would help me “change my mindset”, Yet blocks me.





If you want me to improve, then isolating me, blocking me and making a callout would not help.

This is at least the 5th time I've said this, this year.

I have been isolated for months, and that is a big reason that these things happen. Lack of guidance and support.

I would like to mention one more thing: calling me out, and berating me, but refusing to contact Safari. I have asked both Tex, and (from what i remember) Gutzzl to do so. If I am telling you the person that abused me, and coerced me into something I did not want to do admit to it - you should probably contact them.

You cannot single out parties in these situations regardless of your bias. This is why it tends to end up in things like this, all the time.

As far as I know, there isn't anything else to bring up here.

Please come up with your own conclusions based on the evidence provided. I am not telling you to hate gutzzl, or claim her as a liar. What they did was clearly out of concern,

Some things are worth looking at twice though. That is my view, as the accused.

I still absolutely did wrong, however pinning me as a dangerous person to be around is disheartening. I am still a teenager that is learning, no matter how you may pin such.

Conclusion

In conclusion..

This situation is not what it has been and likely will continue to be made out to be. It was not handled as professionally or as carefully as it could have been from all involved parties, but I'm hopeful it will be resolved no matter how long that may take.

I am not a predator, groomer, or any of the sorts. I will never hold this title, I would never stoop to that level no matter the circumstances. This is a situation built on misinformation, ignorance, and, frankly, incompetence.

I have made mistakes, frankly more than I'd like to admit - but I do take full accountability for them. This includes my negligence, past apathy, irresponsibility. Despite what the accusers claim, I have improved from this. I will continue to improve from this as well. I have been on this journey for quite a while now, and it will not stop because of this situation.

Safari is also not a predator or groomer. They harmed me and they may have harmed others (to an admittedly incomparable degree), however they have also taken the appropriate steps to begin improving from this behavior quite a while ago, and they are still improving and getting better.

I will be cutting off close contact to those below the age of 15 to ensure safety and prevent any further irresponsibility. I will have some peers that are 14 due to my long past with them, but I will not (and have not) treat them the same as my older peers.

When I am 18, around this time next year I will make sure my personal spaces are strictly 16+. I will also verify the ages of those involved if I have any discussion of anything remotely inappropriate as of now, no matter the circumstances, this is how it should be.

It is only smart, mature, and appropriate to take these precautions.

Regarding the other parties; legal action will be taken against them. There was absolutely no need for this to be handled the way it was.

The police are involved, and my phone HAS been searched through. They quite literally found nothing on my device, which means the report was false.

I will be taking a break. A long one too.
I may occasionally come back to edit this document though.

You may email me, or comment for my discord, but that is all. I will also make communication strictly for commissions. I do not wish to rebuild any new friendships, or reconnect any old ones. I am frankly, tired. I do not crave new connections anymore. I do not want to talk to anyone outside of the people I already have anymore.

YouTube wise, I will likely not be posting anything except my response, some art, (and possibly streams) as long as this is being handled legally unless stated otherwise. I am getting a lawyer.
